REGULAR SEASON - WEEK 7 WASHINGTON REDSKINS [4-2] AT DETROIT LIONS [3-3]

Sunday, Oct. 23 | 1 p.m. ET
 Ford Field (64,500) | Detroit, Mich.

REDSKINS TRAVEL TO DETROIT IN SEARCH OF FIFTH STRAIGHT WIN

The Washington Redskins will seek their fifth straight victory when the team faces the Detroit Lions in Week 7. Kickoff at Ford Field in Detroit is scheduled for 1 p.m.

The Redskins will be looking to continue their recent success away from home, as they attempt to open a season 3-0 on the road for the first time since 1999. A win on Sunday would give the Redskins six consecutive road wins, dating back to last season, which would tie the fifth-longest streak in team history. It would also represent the team's first six-game road winning streak since winning their first seven road contests of the 1991 season.

Part of the Redskins' recent resurgence has been the stifling performance of the defense in the last two weeks. The Redskins allowed only 272.5 yards per game in Weeks 5-6, trailing only the Vikings (214.0), Cardinals (258.0) and Titans (270.5) for fewest in the NFL in that time frame. The unit has not allowed an offensive touchdown in its last seven quarters and has not surrendered a touchdown in the second half in any game of the team's current winning streak.

ALUMNI CENTER

Formally organized in 1958, the Washington Redskins Alumni Association was the first organization of its kind in the country. The organization spearheaded the alumni movement among former professional football players and was the model for other alumni groups that later formed in all NFL cities. Now entering its 58th year, the Alumni Association continues to celebrate those who have contributed to more than eight decades of Redskins football dating back to the team's inception in 1932.

The primary objectives of the Redskins Alumni are promoting a continuing interest in current and past players of the Washington Redskins, as well as promoting and fostering interest and funding for charitable purposes. With respect to the latter, the alumni conduct fundraising events to raise money that can be donated to charitable organizations or used in other ways to help improve the quality of life for youth in the Greater Washington community.

Today, Redskins alumni continue to make their presence known throughout the community. As a very active chapter of the NFL Alumni Association, their motto is "Caring for Kids." In addition to the numerous events and appearances Redskins Alumni participate in throughout the year, they hold two major fundraising events of their own — the Redskins Alumni Charity Golf Classic, now in its 38th year, and the annual Washington Redskins Welcome Home Luncheon, now in its 55th year.

The alumni have an office at Redskins Park and can be reached at 703-726-7488. Since his arrival in Washington in December of 2009, President Bruce Allen has made it a priority to build a bridge to the franchise's historic past. During the Redskins' NFC East title-winning season in 2012, that mission came to the forefront as the team celebrated its 80th anniversary.

"This year, the Washington Redskins will be celebrating our 80th anniversary season. I'm proud to be with the franchise in our nation's capital, one with such a rich tradition and gloried past on and off the field," Allen said in a July 2012 column filling in for Sports Illustrated's Peter King. "The current Redskins players, coaches, fans and staff owe a big debt of gratitude to the people who have made the Redskins one of the flagship franchises in sports."

Throughout the 2012 offseason, the Redskins traversed the Washington D.C./Maryland/Virginia area as part of the team's 'Thank You Tour,' which brought players, coaches, alumni, cheerleaders, team officials and more to fans throughout the entire region to help celebrate the team's historic heritage.

That heritage continues to be honored amongst the game's elite, as in August 2011, former Redskin great Chris Hanburger was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. He was presented by his son, Chris. Hanburger was voted into the Hall after being a nominee of the seniors committee. In all, he waited 28 years to be elected.

Hanburger joined Darrell Green (2008), Art Monk (2008) and Russ Grimm (2010) to make four players who spent the majority of their careers with the Redskins to earn the honor in a four-year span. In addition, former Redskins Bruce Smith (2009) and Deion Sanders (2011) have also been elected over that time. Hanburger said of his election to the Hall of Fame: "It's wonderful, I'm overwhelmed. It's just such a tremendous honor to even be nominated, let alone be voted in. You have to think about all of the men that played before I did, certainly the men that I played with and against, and then you look at the guys playing now. It's just a select few that make it in. I was fortunate to play with players on the Redskins defense that made it all work for me."

On Wednesday, Aug. 31, the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation and Redskins Alumni Association hosted the 55th annual Welcome Home Luncheon at the Hilton McLean in Tyson's Corner. The annual event celebrates the burgundy and gold and kicks off each football season with Redskins players, coaches and alumni.

The Redskins Welcome Home Luncheon is typically the only annual event where fans and corporate partners have the chance to spend time with the entire Redskins team. Each table is usually guaranteed at least one player or coach seated with the attendees. Proceeds from the event benefit the youth programs of the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation and Redskins Alumni Association.

This year, the Redskins used the event to honor their players for contributions both on and off the field. Quarterback Kirk Cousins earned 2015 Bobby Mitchell Offensive Player of the Year presented by STS International, defensive end Chris Baker earned the 2015 Sam Huff Defensive Player of the Year presented by comScore and kicker Dustin Hopkins received the 2015 Mark Moseley Special Teams Player of the Year Award presented by MGM National Harbor. Other presented awards included the Redskins Salute Award presented by Lockheed Martin for efforts with the military and the Redskins Community Man of the Year presented by Washington-First Bank.

Also among the Redskins Alumni Association's premier events is the team's annual Alumni Homecoming celebration, which the Redskins hosted in Week 7 last season. Not including staff and coaches, players in attendance represented nearly 600 combined seasons of Redskins service, 98 combined Super Bowl appearances, 59 combined Super Bowl titles, 26 members of the 80 Greatest Redskins, 17 Redskins Ring of Famers and five Pro Football Hall of Famers. The Redskins used their 2015 Alumni Homecoming celebration to induct center Jeff Bostic into the team's Ring of Fame in addition to inducting linebacker Monte Coleman in December.

This year, the Redskins will use their 2016 Alumni Homecoming weekend against the Minnesota Vikings in Week 10 to honor former General Manager Bobby Beathard with induction in the Ring of Fame. The honor was announced by President Bruce Allen during training camp at the Bon Secours Washington Redskins Training Center in Richmond.

Beathard's illustrious career as an NFL executive included 11 seasons as General Manager of the Redskins from 1978-88. After taking the job on Feb. 24, 1978, Beathard guided the organization to three Super Bowl appearances, including victories in Super Bowls XVII and XXII. Many of the players he acquired remained on the roster for the team's Super Bowl XXVI victory as well.

In Beathard's 11 seasons as General Manager, the Redskins averaged 9.5 wins a year. The team posted a regular season winning percentage of .625 (105-63) in that time frame, best in the NFC and second-best in the NFL. No team in that time frame posted a better postseason winning percentage than the Redskins, who went 11-3 in postseason play in his tenure for a winning percentage of .786.

"This is a wonderful occasion for us, and a real honor to be brought back here by Bruce and Dan," Beathard said. "Of all the years I was in the NFL, this organization has been the most supportive and the most fun. I've never been with an organization who has done this much for the people in it at present and the people who were in it in the past."

BREAST CANCER AWARENESS

The Washington Redskins are embarking upon several initiatives throughout October in honor of National Breast Cancer Awareness Month.

Throughout the month of October, fans can join the Washington Redskins in promoting breast cancer awareness by purchasing a limited-edition Redskins Fight Breast Cancer T-shirt (pictured bottom right) designed by Redskins alumnus Chris Cooley. Net proceeds will benefit the ZTA Foundation and the Brem Foundation, dedicated to educating women about risk factors and screening options and providing access to critical diagnostic tests for uninsured women. T-shirts are available online at www.Redskins.com/FightBreastCancer and were sold in-stadium at Section 124 in Week 6.

The Women of Washington Redskins (WOW), the official women's platform of the Washington Redskins, kicked off a lineup of events in support of breast cancer awareness with the WOW Redskins Charity Ride on Oct. 1. WOW teamed up with the Redskins Charitable Foundation, along with Redskins two-time Super Bowl Champions Gary Clark and Ravin Caldwell, at SoulCycle to support the Brem Foundation. On Saturday, Oct. 8, WOW hosted a free Fitness Boot Camp led by Nike Trainer Deanna Jefferson at FedExField. Members were encouraged to bring a gently used or new bra to support the Brem Foundation's Re-Bra initiative, a bra-donation program that provides bras to low-income women. In support of the Redskins Charitable Foundation, WOW will make a donation on behalf of every member who donates a bra, with each donor receiving a limited edition BCA T-shirt.

Friday, Oct. 14 featured the Friday Night Lights THINK PINK!® initiative, a partnership between the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation and Fairfax County Public Schools designed to promote breast cancer awareness and the importance of early detection at the high school football level. W.T. Woodson High School hosted Lake Braddock Secondary School and the game featured pink gear and stadium equipment.

The Redskins' annual Breast Cancer Awareness Game, presented by Inova Health System, was hosted last week against the Philadelphia Eagles. The Redskins' Breast Cancer Awareness Game featured players, coaches and referees wearing pink game apparel, additional on-field and in-stadium branding, and 34,000 pairs of gloves were distributed to fans at the gates, along with information about how to receive mammogram and breast self-exam reminders from Inova by texting GAMEPLAN to 99000 – all to help raise awareness. Much of the apparel worn at games throughout October by players and coaches, along with special game balls and pink coins, will be auctioned off at NFL Auction, with proceeds benefiting the American Cancer Society's Community Health Advocates National Grants for Empowerment (CHANGE) program.

Fans attending the game were welcomed by Tanya Snyder, wife of Redskins owner Dan Snyder and NFL Breast Cancer Awareness Spokesperson, and hundreds of Zeta Tau Alpha members distributing THINK-PINK!® ribbons and breast cancer awareness educational materials. Mrs. Snyder and ZTA started the THINK-PINK!® campaign for breast cancer awareness in 1999. At the time, the Redskins were the only team in the league to participate. With the founding and continuous support of Mrs. Snyder and the Washington Redskins, ZTA created a national model for THINK-PINK!® throughout the NFL. Currently, all 32 teams in the NFL participate in the campaign.

Mrs. Snyder and the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation, in partnership with the American Cancer Society, hosted the ninth annual All-Star Survivors Celebration at Redskins Park on Monday, Oct. 17.

The All-Star Survivors Celebration pampered, supported and celebrated 31 area women currently battling breast cancer. Each of the 31 women represented each of the 31 days in National Breast Cancer Awareness Month. During the event, the breast cancer survivors, or "All-Stars," received new jeans donated by Gap Inc., as well as new wigs, scarves and a Redskins gift bag. All-Stars were treated to lunch, makeup consultations, massages and a behind the scenes tour of Redskins Park from Redskins players.

The Redskins have also participated in and supported the following ongoing initiatives throughout the month of October:

- WOW featured an interactive map on WOW-redskins.com to promote breast cancer education and the importance of early detection by helping women find the breast cancer screening center closest to them.

- WOW and Mrs. Snyder welcomed the Redskins Charitable Foundation's All-Stars, 31 women currently battling breast cancer, along with more than 200 WOW members, in a special pink-themed pregame party. Guests will receive WOW pink rally towels.

- WOW will donate $1 to the American Cancer Society on behalf of each new member who joins the club throughout October. Toyota, the presenting partner of WOW, will match this donation at the end of the month, up to $4,000, to benefit breast cancer research and outreach programs.

- Toyota will donate $50 to the American Cancer Society for every catch made by the Redskins this season to encourage fans to make the "Crucial Catch" and get screened annually – last season the Redskins completed 360 catches making Toyota's donation $18,000.

The Redskins breast cancer awareness campaign is part of the NFL's A Crucial Catch initiative. Any questions regarding the Redskins breast cancer awareness campaign or Mrs. Snyder's breast cancer initiatives should be directed to Alexia Grevious of Redskins Public Relations at 703-726-7077 or greviousa@redskins.com.

HEAD COACH JAY GRUDEN

Jay Gruden is in his third season with the Washington Redskins in 2016 after being named the 29th head coach in franchise history on January 9, 2014.

Previously a decorated quarterback in the college and Arena Football League ranks and a successful NFL assistant, Gruden showcased his offensive acumen honed from his diverse football background in his first two years with the Redskins.

In 2015, Gruden led the Redskins to an NFC East Championship, posting a 9-7 record to complete the second “worst-to-first” turnaround in team history. Gruden became the sixth coach in team history to lead the Redskins to a playoff berth within the first two years at the helm, joining Ray Flaherty, Dutch Bergman, Dudley DeGroot, George Allen and Joe Gibbs.

Under Gruden’s guidance, the 2015 Redskins featured one of the most prolific passing attacks in franchise history. Quarterback Kirk Cousins, named the starter in the middle of the preseason, set single-season team records for attempts (543), completions (379), passing yards (4,166) and 300-yard passing games (seven) while throwing 29 touchdown passes, including at least one in all 16 games. Cousins’ success coincided with the emergence of third-year tight end Jordan Reed, who finished the season with 87 receptions for 952 yards (both team records for a tight end) with 11 receiving touchdowns.

Gruden assumed control of the Redskins in 2014 and guided the team through a campaign in which three different quarterbacks (Robert Griffin III, Kirk Cousins and Colt McCoy) recorded victories as starters. He installed an offensive system that produced two Pro Bowlers in his first season as tackle Trent Williams and running back Alfred Morris earned repeat berths.

Excluding interim coaches, Gruden, 46 at the time of his hiring, became the team’s youngest head coaching hire since hiring eventual Pro Football Hall of Famer Joe Gibbs at 40 years of age in 1981. He became the first Redskins head coach hired directly from an offensive coordinator role on another team since Norv Turner in 1994.

Before joining the Redskins, Gruden spent his previous three seasons as offensive coordinator for the Cincinnati Bengals. In his tenure in Cincinnati, the Bengals averaged 10 wins a season, making three consecutive playoff appearances and earning an AFC North championship in 2013. Members of the Bengals’ offense accounted for seven Pro Bowl selections in his three seasons in Cincinnati.

Gruden was tasked with the development of quarterback Andy Dalton, a 2011 second-round pick. In three seasons together, Gruden helped Dalton to a 30-18 regular season record as a starter (.625), as Dalton’s 30 wins in that time frame ranked tied for fifth-most among NFL quarterbacks. Dalton’s 80 passing touchdowns rank third-most in NFL history for a quarterback in his first three seasons, trailing only Dan Marino (98) and Peyton Manning (85).

Prior to joining the Bengals, Gruden served two years with the Florida Tuskers of the United Football League from 2009-10. In 2009, Gruden served as offensive coordinator as the Tuskers compiled a 6-0 regular season record and earned a UFL championship game berth. In 2010, he assumed the roles of head coach and general manager and led the Tuskers to their second consecutive championship game appearance.

Gruden coached for seven seasons (2002-08) with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, earning a Super Bowl championship ring as an offensive assistant in 2002. There he worked under his brother, Jon (then the Bucs’ head coach), and current Redskins President Bruce Allen (the Bucs’ general manager from 2004-08). Gruden helped guide the Buccaneers to the team’s first league championship, a 48-21 victory in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Gruden also ranks among the most outstanding players and coaches in the history of the Arena Football League, having won six combined league championships – four as a quarterback and two as a head coach. Gruden played quarterback (2002-03) and served as head coach (2004-08) of the AFL’s Orlando Predators while simultaneously working as an offensive assistant with the Buccaneers. In all, Gruden served as head coach of the Predators for nine seasons (1998-2001 and 2004-08), leading the Predators to four championship game appearances and two league titles as

In his eight seasons as a player in the AFL, Gruden completed 1,673-of-2,775 passes (60.3 percent) for 21,578 yards with 398 touchdowns and 99 interceptions. He was also named the 1992 AFL Most Valuable Player and was honored with induction into the AFL Hall of Fame in 1999.

Gruden played quarterback for four seasons for former Redskins draft pick Howard Schnellenberger at the University of Louisville (1985-88) and was a two-time team MVP.

Gruden was born March 4, 1967, in Tiffin, Ohio. He and his wife, Sherry, have three sons – J.J., Joey and Jack – and a grandson, Trey.

JIM CALDWELL

Head Coach Jim Caldwell is in his 16th season in the league and third season with the Detroit Lions. The Lions finished their 2015 campaign with a 7-9 record ranking third in the NFC North. They enter into Week 7 with a 3-3 record.

Caldwell's first coaching job in the NFL was in 2001, when he served as the quarterbacks coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Caldwell helped the team finish their season with a 9-7 record and earned an NFC Wild Card berth.

After his stint in Tampa Bay, Caldwell spent 10 seasons with the Indianapolis Colts (2002-11). In his first three seasons, Caldwell served as the quarterbacks coach before earning the of assistant head coach prior to the 2005 season. He was promoted to the associate head coach position with the team in 2008.

In 2009, Caldwell earned the head coaching position with the Colts and would spend three years in the position (2009-2011). During his first season as the Colts' head coach, the team recorded a 14-2 record. He was the league's only rookie head coach to win his first 14 games in a season. He also became the fifth rookie head coach to reach the Super Bowl.

Caldwell joined the Ravens as the team's quarterbacks coach following his time in Indianapolis where he took over the offensive coordinator position with three weeks left in the 2012 regular season. In that same season, the Ravens went on to win Super Bowl XLVII. Caldwell then served as the Ravens' offensive coordinator in for the 2013 season before joining the Detroit Lions.

In his first season as head coach of the Lions, Caldwell became the third head coach in franchise history to lead the team to the playoffs in his first season and also set a record for the most wins by a Lions head coach (11) in his first season. The team's 2014 campaign would end with an 11-5 record and a trip to the playoffs.

The 11-5 record in 2014 tied Caldwell with Patsy Clark (1931, Portsmouth Spartans) for the most wins in franchise history by a coach in his first year with the team. He is just the third coach in franchise history to lead the Lions to the playoffs in his first year with Detroit (George Wilson in 1957; Bobby Ross in 1997).

Caldwell is also the seventh coach in franchise history (since 1930) to lead the Lions to a winning record (entire season) in his first year with the organization. He also ranks among one of four coaches to lead the Lions to accumulate 11 or more wins in a single season (Patsy Clark in 1931, George Wilson in 1962 and Wayne Fontes in 1991).

Detroit's defense ranked among the top in the league during the 2014 season allowing only 69.3 yards per game. This set both a team single-season record and ranked them ninth for the best single-season run defense in league history.

Caldwell's coaching experience at the collegiate level included stints at Southern Illinois (1978-80), Northwestern (1981), Colorado (1981-83), and Louisville (1985).

After his year at Louisville, Caldwell became an assistant at Penn State where he was the wide receivers coach (1986) and quarterbacks and wide receivers coach (1987-90). Penn State would win the national championship in Caldwell's first season with the team.

Prior to his start in the NFL, Caldwell spent seven seasons as the head coach at Wake Forest University (1993-2000). In his first season with the team he led them to their first winning season and bowl appearance (Aloha Bowl) since 1992.

Caldwell attended the University of Iowa (1973-76) where he was a four-year starter as a defensive back and earned his degree in liberal arts.

A native of Beloit, Wisc., Caldwell and his wife, Cheryl, have four children: Jimmy, Jermaine, Jared, and Natalie.

REDSKINS IN LONDON

The Washington Redskins will travel from one nation's capital to another in two weeks, as Washington, D.C.'s squad is slated to head overseas to England for a Week 8 game against the Cincinnati Bengals at London's Wembley Stadium. The Oct. 30 tilt is one of three regular season NFL International Series games scheduled in the United Kingdom this season.

Redskins Owner Dan Snyder has been involved in expanding the NFL's footprint overseas. He serves on the NFL's International Committee, which staged three regular season games in London in each of the previous two seasons and authorized the league to potentially expand the series to other markets in future years.

"We are excited to showcase the Washington Redskins on an international stage," Snyder said when the league announced the Redskins' involvement for 2016. "We are honored to help grow the game overseas."

"The Washington Redskins are proud to be one of the most popular sports teams in the world," President Bruce Allen said. "We look forward to seeing our fans from everywhere come together to sing 'Hail to the Redskins' in London."

The contest at Wembley will mark the Redskins' European debut in regular season play and only their second regular season game outside the United States all-time. In their only other international regular season game to date, the Redskins faced the Buffalo Bills at the Rogers Centre in Toronto on Oct. 30, 2011.

The Redskins have twice appeared overseas in preseason competition, once at the former Wembley Stadium in London in 1992 and once at the Osaka Dome in Osaka, Japan in 2002.

LAST MEETING

Lions 27, Redskins 20

Associated Press
Sept. 22, 2013

LANDOVER, Md. -- Robert Griffin III went head-first instead of sliding, so when the ball popped out it was a fumble.

Aldrick Robinson had a touchdown catch in his hands, but he couldn't quite maintain possession as he hit the ground in the end zone.

Thanks to the turf, the Detroit Lions have ended 74 years of road failure against the Washington Redskins.

Detroit beat Washington 27-20 Sunday with big days from Matthew Stafford, Calvin Johnson and Nate Burleson and those two fourth-quarter Redskins bobbles, the kinds of breaks that had eluded Detroit (2-1) in the nation's capital since Franklin Delano Roosevelt lived on Pennsylvania Avenue.

"You never know how the cookie's going to crumble, and it feels good that it crumbled our way this time," Detroit cornerback Rashean Mathis said.

"I wasn't a part of the past, but I am part of the future, so it feels good to give the fans something to feel good about, and we can demolish a record, our streak, that was going on for years and years and years."

The Lions last beat the Redskins away from home in 1939, a 21-game streak that comes to a halt as the second-longest in NFL history.

Detroit's last road victory in the series came in 1935 against the Boston Redskins, two years before the move to Washington (0-3).

History was at play in other ways. The "Calvin Johnson rule" -- in which a receiver must maintain possession of the ball all the way to the ground when falling during a catch -- worked in favor of the Lions for a change.

The rule was named after Johnson after he had a catch in the end zone overturned three years ago against the Chicago Bears.

This time it was Robinson who wasn't quite able to keep the ball from coming loose after hauling in a pass from Griffin for an apparent 57-yard touchdown. The score would have given the Redskins the lead with 9:05 to play, but it was overturned by replay.

"I'm not known for my calm or anything like that," Detroit coach Jim Schwartz said. "But if that hadn't got overruled, I would have had a difficult time. I might have had a conniption or whatever that is."

Then there was Griffin, who finally resembled the RG III of last year when he scrambled to make something out of nothing with a 21-yard run deep into the opponent's territory with the score tied in the fourth quarter.

But the ball jarred loose as Griffin stumbled forward to give himself up at the 30-yard line. The play would have been ruled dead if he had slid, something he said he would do more often this year.

Because he was going head-first, it became a fumble recovered by the Lions.

"It's the rule. It can be a [bad] rule, but it's still one of the NFL rules, and they said it's a fumble," Griffin said. "So, it's unfortunate, and I've just got to make sure if I dive forward, hold onto the ball. ... It was really unfortunate that we lost the game on two calls, two judgment calls."

On the next play after Griffin's fumble, Johnson started a drive with a tiptoe catch along the sideline, and David Akers ended it with a 28-yard field goal with 11:08 to play to give the Lions the lead for good.

After Robinson's non-catch, Detroit got an insurance touchdown with 3:56 remaining on Stafford's 11-yard pass to Johnson, who had four Redskins around him as he fought his way across the goal line.

Johnson had 115 yards receiving, tying Herman Moore for the franchise record with 34 career 100-yard receiving games.

Burleson had 116 yards receiving, and Stafford completed 25 of 42 passes for 385 yards against a defense ranked by far at the bottom of the NFL after two weeks.

Griffin completed 32 of 50 passes for 326 yards and had his fourth interception of the season, one shy of his total from all of 2012. He's the first player in Redskins history to throw for 300 yards in three straight games, a byproduct of spending most of his time this season playing catch-up.

Griffin said leading up to the game that he would run the ball more to give his team a spark, but he rushed only six times for 37 yards, including his first carry out of the zone read this season.

The Redskins fall to 0-3 for the first time since 2001.

"The food isn't going to taste that good tonight," Washington cornerback DeAngelo Hall said. "Still trying to wrap my head around what we can do to get better."

Game notes: Lions DT Jason Jones ruptured his left patella tendon in the second quarter and is out for the year, and RB Reggie Bush missed the game with a left knee injury. ... Redskins injuries: LB Brandon Jenkins (right ankle), TE Jordan Reed (bruised right knee). ... Washington K John Potter made two field goals subbing for Kai Forbath (groin), TE Fred Davis missed the game with a sprained ankle. ... A moment of silence was held before the game for the victims of last week's Navy Yard shooting. The Navy Yard Ceremonial Honor Guard presented the colors for the national anthem.

Through the first six weeks of the 2016 season, the Redskins have produced yards per play at a near-record pace. Washington's 6.23 yards-per-play average currently sits ahead of the 6.17 mark set by the 2012 Redskins, which led the NFL that season and stands as the team's best average since the 1970 merger.

DIVISION PARITY

Parity has been a topic de jour in the National Football League in recent years, and the league-wide trends provide the evidence.

Each year since the 12-team playoff format was adopted in 1990, at least four teams have qualified for the playoffs after missing the postseason the year before.

No division has seen more turnover at the top in the last four years than the NFC East. Prior to the Redskins' division title in 2015, the NFC East held the distinction as the only division in the NFL to have had all four teams earn a division title in a four-season span from 2011-14. With their division title in 2015, the Redskins became the first NFC East team to win two division titles in the last five years.

TD-FREE DEFENSE

In their Week 6 victory vs. Philadelphia, the Redskins held the Eagles without an offensive touchdown. The performance extended a stretch in which the Redskins' defense had not allowed an offensive touchdown in seven consecutive quarters and allowed only one in its previous 10 quarters of play across Weeks 4-6.

The Redskins have produced 23 performances holding opponents without an offensive touchdown since the turn of the century, including 11 in the last 10 years. Week 6 marked the Redskins' first time accomplishing the feat since Week 11 of the 2012 season.

FUMBLES

En route to every practice, Redskins players pass two tackling dummies. Each dummy has a football attached to its arm via velcro, and each day, Defensive Coordinator Joe Barry commands his players to knock the balls loose before stepping onto the practice field.

The exercise is meant to instill and reinforce a mentality for forcing fumbles, and Washington's performance in that category under Barry appears to support the process.

ICING THE PUNTER

Through the first six weeks of the 2016 season, 41.5 percent of all drives in the NFL have resulted in punts. Meanwhile, Redskins punter Tress Way's season has been almost as notable for his work as a passer (1-for-1, 31 yards) as it has for his work as a punter.

The Redskins have punted only 18 times through the first six weeks of the season on 64 offensive possessions, boasting a league-leading 28.1 percent average.

RETURN OF THE RETURN GAME

The Redskins received limited contributions from their punt return unit in 2015, averaging 4.8 yards per return, the second-fewest in the NFL. It marked the fifth consecutive season the team had ranked in the bottom half of the NFL in punt return average.

Redskins coaches remained steadfast behind returner Jamison Crowder entering 2016, and early returns have justified their faith. The Redskins enter Week 7 this season leading the NFL with an 18.8-yard team average on returns this season. The Redskins have not finished in the Top 5 in the NFL in punt return average since leading the league in the category in 1995.

A NEW BREED

The Redskins' heritage at offensive line runs deep in team lore, dating back to the beloved "Hogs" in the 1980s and 1990s. Their legacy instilled an appreciation for football's oft-anonymous workers in Redskins fans, and since that era of dominant line play, Redskins fans have called for a return of that identity.

Whether the offensive line can or should resurrect the "Hogs" nickname has long been a matter of debate, but what is not up for debate is the team's commitment to trying to create the next era of outstanding offensive line play in Washington.

When General Manager Scot McCloughan joined the Redskins in January 2015, he spoke of a desire to create a football team with a big, physical identity. To that end, McCloughan made two large moves in his first offseason — one in scope and one in size.

The first move may loom largest, as exactly one week after taking the General Manager job, McCloughan named Bill Callahan as Offensive Line Coach. Three months later, McCloughan and Callahan made another big move, drafting behemoth 6-foot-5 Outland Trophy winner Brandon Scherff with the No. 5 overall pick. Scherff, now the starting right guard, pairs with young tackle Morgan Moses to form a right side of the offensive line that the Redskins hope to feature for years to come.

Among the pieces already in place upon Callahan and Scherff's arrival in 2015 was one of the game's elite left tackles — Trent Williams. Williams, a four-time Pro Bowler, has blossomed since being selected with the No. 4 overall pick in the 2010 NFL Draft. The Redskins' offensive captain nicknamed "Silverback" is often described as a freak athlete, an imposing 320-pounder who recorded a 34.5-inch vertical and 4.87 40-yard dash at the 2010 NFL Combine. His breathtaking combination of size, speed and strength often leaves coaches, teammates and observers in awe.

"You can't teach what Trent Williams has," Head Coach Jay Gruden said in 2014. "He's a giant of a man plus he's got the feet of a ballerina, so that is genetics right there at its finest."

Williams has continued a tradition of strong left tackle play in Washington this century. Between Williams (2012-15) and former Redskins great Chris Samuels (2001-02, 05-08), Redskins left tackles have been selected to eight of the last 11 Pro Bowls.

Beyond Williams' immense physical gifts, the cornerstone of the offensive line has matured and developed into an unquestioned team leader. This past July, Williams assembled the offensive line at his training facility in Houston for four days of "Hogs 2.0" training prior to camp. Per the Washington Post, "Williams paid for it all out of pocket, including the flight, lodging, training and matching Hogs 2.0 apparel." Jeff Bostic, a former center who was a founding member of the original Hogs, spoke to the unit at training camp in 2016 and commended the group for aspiring to The Hogs' ideals.

"We're not saying in any way that we're capable of filling those shoes, but we are saying that we want to carry that bond and that type of tenacity they played with," Williams said. "That's why we're saying '2.0' instead just 'the Hogs' because we could never be the original Hogs, but we can try to carry out that demeanor and that camaraderie they played with."

4. 1994 Redskins	21	40	-19
5. 1996 Redskins	22	36	-14

"We're trying to emulate that and trying to carry on that tradition here and trying to live up to the standards that they've established."

- Offensive Line Coach Bill Callahan on The Hogs

BILL CALLAHAN

Bill Callahan knows all about "Boss Hog."

Joe Bugel, known colloquially as "Boss Hog," spent three decades in the NFL helping shape some of the most iconic offensive lines in football, creating Washington's beloved "Hogs" and helping pave the way to glory for the Redskins in the 1980s and 1990s.

It's a legacy that Bill Callahan, already one of the most esteemed offensive line teachers in the game today, admires and hopes to emulate.

"I've always admired what Joe Bugel has done," Callahan said during the offseason. "He had a great reputation then as he does now and he's just been kind of a mentor in a lot of ways watching his film and watching what he's done with players over the years."

In a sense, the identities and legacies of Callahan and the Redskins parallel one another. Both boast impressive histories of strong offensive line play, and both want to take cues from the franchise's past to perpetuate the tradition of great trench play in Washington.

"No single offseason transaction may impact this franchise more than the hiring of Callahan away from the rival Dallas Cowboys," Washington Times columnist Thom Loverro wrote prior to Callahan's debut season in Washington in 2015.

KIRK COUSINS

Kirk Cousins has repeatedly said he knows he has to prove himself in 2016. But for the fifth-year NFL quarterback, having to prove himself is nothing new.

Cousins entered 2016 following a record-setting 2015 campaign. In his first full season as a starter, he set single-season team marks for attempts (543), completions (379), passing yards (4,166) and 300-yard passing games (seven) in leading the Redskins to an NFC East title. Cousins threw a touchdown pass in all 16 regular season games in 2015, becoming the first player in team history to throw a touchdown in all 16 games in a season since the adoption of the 16-game schedule in 1978.

The year was temporary vindication for Cousins, who did not even earn the starting role until Head Coach Jay Gruden said "It's Kirk's team" on Aug. 31 that year.

"He's always in the meetings, he's on time, he's wanting to do extra work, he's studying the film, he's a gym rat, he's a film rat. That's just what you need to be a successful quarterback in this league," Gruden said in training camp in 2016. "The great quarterbacks are that way in their first year and in their 15th year, that's the way you have to be at the position, and he's got the mental makeup to be a great one."

The 2015 season was another opportunity for Cousins to prove himself in a football career defined by those moments. As a prep quarterback at Holland (Mich.) Christian H.S., he was lightly recruited, fielding a small handful of late scholarship offers, primarily from MAC programs. When Michigan State showed late interest, Cousins mentions that he took his official visit to East Lansing hoping to recruit the coaching staff rather than have the coaching staff recruit him.

That lightly regarded recruit would go on to earn Michigan State's starting role as a sophomore, beating out future NFL quarterback Nick Foles in the process. He became only the second player in Spartan history to be named team captain as a sophomore en route to becoming a three-year captain for the program. He set records in virtually every passing category in school history while appearing in 45 games, starting 39 of his last 40 contests.

Cousins once again had to prove himself upon transitioning to the NFL level. He was the second quarterback selected by the Redskins in the 2012 NFL Draft and entered the league having to compete with veteran Rex Grossman for backup duties. Cousins proved himself capable as a rookie that season in a couple of crucial situations, including leading a game-tying drive in an eventual overtime win against the eventual Super Bowl champion Baltimore Ravens in Week 14 and winning his first career start in Cleveland a week later to keep the team alive for its eventual NFC East title that season.

Now in his fifth season with the Redskins, Cousins has appeared in 36 games with 31 starts, completing 766-of-1,176 passes for 8,891 yards with 56 passing touchdowns. He ranks in the Top 10 in team history in completions, passing touchdowns and passing yardage. Cousins has also accrued 14 career 300-yard games, tied for second-most in franchise history.

So while some observers wait for Cousins to prove himself again, the quarterback has already garnered respect around the NFL.

"I don't know what people are looking for. He threw for over 4,000 yards and over 25 touchdowns [in 2015]. The last six games of the season his quarterback rating was over 100," Pittsburgh Steelers Head Coach Mike Tomlin said prior to Week 1 in 2016. "He needs no endorsement from me."

After his breakout campaign as a starter in 2015, the Redskins franchise tagged Cousins for 2016. Playing on the one-year franchise tag doesn't faze Cousins, who has viewed his entire football career as a series of one-day opportunities.

"In this league it's one year at a time - whether you're on a long-term deal, one-year deal or two-year deal. I mean, I had a four-year deal as a rookie but it didn't feel like a four-year deal, it felt like a one-day deal every single day I was here," Cousins said during training camp. "So I don't think things have changed a whole lot in that regard. I have got to go out there and prove myself each and every game of every season. When you do that, I think the rest will take care of itself."

JORDAN REED

Early in his career, Jordan Reed flashed his talent, but a myriad of injuries and other factors limited his productivity in his first two NFL seasons from 2013-14. But since the start of the 2015 season, Reed's ability has been on full display.

- Four-time Pro Bowl tackle Trent Williams on Jordan Reed in 2015, as told to Master Tesfatsion of The Washington Post

Reed led all Redskins players in receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns in 2015, becoming the first Redskins tight end to lead the team in all three categories since Jean Fugett in 1977.

In addition to his 11 regular season receiving touchdowns a year ago, Reed added his first career postseason touchdown in the NFC Wild Card Round last season in the midst of a nine-catch, 120-yard afternoon. Reed's touchdown against Green Bay was his 12th total of the year, as he became the fifth member of the Redskins to record 12 combined receiving touchdowns across a single regular season and postseason (Gary Clark in 1991, Ricky Sanders in 1988, Jerry Smith in 1967, Charley Taylor in 1966 and Hugh Taylor in 1952; all had 12).

DeSEAN JACKSON

There was a familiar feel to the Redskins' pursuit and signing of "surprise" free agent cornerback Josh Norman in the 2016 offseason. Two years earlier, the Redskins made one of the biggest impact signings of the 2014 offseason when electrifying wide receiver DeSean Jackson unexpectedly hit the market and signed with the burgundy and gold.

Though perhaps diminutive in size, there has been nothing small about Jackson's performance in Washington, as the Cal product recorded 86 receptions for 1,697 yards with 10 touchdowns in his first two seasons with the team from 2014-15. His 19.7 yards-per-reception average across 2014-15 ranked first in the NFL among players with at least 40 catches.

Jackson made an instant impact in his first year with the team in 2014, finishing the year with an NFL-best average of 20.9 yards per reception, the fifth-best mark in team history. He became the first member of the Redskins to finish a season as the NFL leader in yards per reception since Henry Ellard (19.5 in 1996) and was the fourth player in team history to accomplish the feat (Ellard in 1996, Jim Podoley in 1957 and Hugh Taylor in 1950).

In 2015, Jackson was limited by injury to nine games but still recorded 30 receptions for 528 yards with four touchdowns. Despite limited opportunities, his explosiveness remained on display, as his four scores covered distances of 56 yards, 63 yards, 28 yards and 77 yards, chronologically. The shortest of the four was a game-tying touchdown in the final minute of the team's Week 13 contest on ESPN's Monday Night Football.

"When that ball is in the air, I'm going to track it down. I've practiced a long time, a lot of hours, many weeks, many days doing that."

- Wide receiver DeSean Jackson

The Redskins knew first-hand what kind of playmaking ability Jackson possessed prior to signing him in 2014. In six years as a Philadelphia Eagle, he caught 32 passes for 572 yards (17.9 avg.) with five receiving touchdowns, his most receiving touchdowns against any opponent, in 11 games against Washington.

"The guy gets downfield and can adjust to the ball like nobody else," Head Coach Jay Gruden said.

Jackson's explosiveness has turned heads since he entered the league in 2008. Jackson leads the NFL in receptions of 50-plus yards (33) and total touchdowns of 50-plus yards (24) in that time-frame.

"I think he's talented tracking the football. When the ball is in the air he does a really good job of tracking it and running underneath it," quarterback Kirk Cousins said. "He's obviously fast. He has a good skill in finding the football and locating it and making the tough catch."

OFFENSIVE PLAYMAKERS

PIERRE GARÇON

When the Redskins signed Pierre Garçon in the first hour of free agency during the 2012 offseason, the Redskins hoped they were getting an ascending 25-year-old talent with a Super Bowl appearance under his belt. What the Redskins have gotten from Garçon in four seasons since has been a reliable target, fierce competitor and tenacious blocker who played a significant role in the Redskins' division titles in 2012 and 2015.

Garçon enters Week 7 having appeared in 64 games with 62 starts for the Redskins since 2012, recording 325 receptions for 3,815 yards and 19 receiving touchdowns in four-plus seasons. His 325 receptions with Washington already rank in the Top 10 in team history.

JAMISON CROWDER

Jamison Crowder entered his rookie season in 2015 with expectations of assuming the team's role at punt returner, but Crowder rapidly exceeded those limits and earned the team's top slot receiver role and became another weapon for the Redskins on third down.

"We had a penciled-in punt returner job for him, but for him to win the starting inside slot receiver is a testament to him and how quickly he picked it up and his production," Head Coach Jay Gruden said. "When you draft guys, you have high hopes for them, but you never expect them to be this much of a factor this early, especially fourth-fifth rounders."

In Week 5 of his sophomore campaign in 2016, Crowder ended the Redskins' 124-game punt return touchdown drought with an 85-yard touchdown at Baltimore. His punt return for touchdown was the Redskins' first since Oct. 26, 2008, when Santana Moss returned a punt 80 yards for a touchdown at Detroit.

At 23 years and 114 days old, Crowder became the youngest member of the Redskins to return a punt for a touchdown since Brian Mitchell (23 years, 35 days) at Cincinnati on Sept. 22, 1991, according to records provided by Pro Football Reference.

"He's one of those kids: You can put him in a phone booth and you probably wouldn't get a hand on him."

- Receivers Coach Ike Hilliard to The Washington Post's Liz Clarke

Last season, Crowder ranked third among NFL rookies in receptions (59) and fourth in receiving yards (604) in 2015.

RYAN KERRIGAN — #HBKERRIGAN

Call him “Heartbreak Kerrigan” (#HBKerrigan on Twitter) or call him “The Showstopper,” either way, Redskins fans can call Ryan Kerrigan their own for the foreseeable future.

On the day Redskins players reported to Richmond, Va., for training camp in 2015, the team announced it had reached a multi-year contract extension to keep the productive, reliable fan favorite in burgundy and gold. The extension came on the heels of a monster year for Kerrigan in 2014, as he started all 16 games for a fourth consecutive season and posted a career-high 13.5 sacks.

“To get to a moment like this where you get a chance to play out the rest of your NFL career with the team that drafted you, the team that you love, the city that you love, it hasn’t really hit me yet, but it’s an awesome feeling,” Kerrigan said on the date of his extension.

If patience is a virtue, the Redskins were virtuous in the first round of the 2011 NFL Draft, as the team opted to trade back from its No. 10 overall selection to the 16th overall pick. With the selection, the Redskins selected Kerrigan, the then-defensive end out of Purdue.

Named to his first career Pro Bowl following the 2012 season, the Muncie, Ind. native registered 8.5 sacks in each of the 2012-13 seasons after posting 7.5 in his rookie season in 2011 and exploded in 2014 with a career-high 13.5 sacks. But his productivity has been matched by his reliability, as he has started all 86 regular season games and two postseason games played by the organization since his selection in 2011. In 2015, he became only the fifth player in NFL history to open a career with at least 7.5 sacks in each of his first five seasons, joining Jared Allen, Derrick Thomas, DeMarcus Ware and Reggie White.

In Week 2 of the 2014 season, Kerrigan launched a simultaneous assault on Jaguars quarterback Chad Henne and the Redskins’ record book, tying a franchise record by becoming the fifth player in team history to record four sacks in a game. But more stunning than Kerrigan’s four-sack outburst was the way the normally subdued man celebrated.

“Will Compton has been kind of getting in my ear for a while to do the Shawn Michaels from wrestling — the HBK,” Kerrigan said of the inspiration for his celebrations. “All he kept saying was, ‘Hit the HBK, hit the HBK.’ Finally, I did right by him and hit the HBK a couple times. On the second and third ones, when I didn’t do it, he was giving me a bunch of hell on the sidelines, like, ‘Why didn’t you do it? You need to trademark it.’ I’m like, ‘Well, I can’t trademark it, it’s HBK,’ But that’s where it came from.”

The gesture resonated with wrestling fans and Redskins fans alike. The celebration was promoted by WWE on Twitter, and Redskins fans immediately began referring to the celebration as the “#HBKerrigan.”

Kerrigan is one of six players selected in the 2011 NFL Draft to have already reached 45 career sacks. Houston’s J.J. Watt (76.0), Denver’s Von Miller (67.5), Kansas City’s Justin Houston (56.0), Los Angeles’ Robert Quinn (52.0), Kerrigan (52.0) and Oakland’s Aldon Smith (47.5) have combined for 351.0 sacks since entering the league together in the 2011 NFL Draft.

The Purdue product ended his college career tied for the Football Bowl Subdivision record with 14 career forced fumbles, and his innate knack for knocking the ball loose has translated to the NFL. Kerrigan has been credited with 18 forced fumbles in his young career, the most by a member of the Redskins since 1994 and tied for the most by any active NFL player since 2011.

Kerrigan’s impact on the Redskins has transcended football, as he was honored with the team’s Walter Payton Man of the Year award in 2015. In addition to participating in numerous events through the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation, Kerrigan welcomed 185 guests to the Grand Hyatt Washington in 2015 for his third Celebrity Waiter Night, raising more than $100,000 for his Blitz for the Better Foundation, which provides support to seriously ill, special needs and physically challenged children throughout the Greater Washington D.C. area.

CORNERBACK CORNER

JOSH NORMAN

When the Carolina Panthers rescinded cornerback Josh Norman's franchise tag and allowed the All-Pro defender to enter unrestricted free agency on April 20, roles instantly became reversed. The 28-year-old lockdown corner became the subject of teams trying to lock down his services.

The Redskins mobilized quickly, dispatching Defensive Coordinator Joe Barry and Defensive Backs Coach Perry Fewell on April 22 to pick up Norman and his family from his Carolina home and bring them to team headquarters. The group arrived back in Ashburn early that afternoon, and after the full press and a family vote, Norman was a member of the Washington Redskins by 9:30 p.m.

"It was an exciting 24 hours there and we're happy as heck to get him," Head Coach Jay Gruden said. "I think he's one of the premier corners in the National Football League. He can matchup with receivers, he can play inside/outside, he's got great ball skills, he's a ball hawk. You can't coach that – you really can't."

1t. Trumaine Johnson	LA	9
1t. Jason McCourty	Ten	9
1t. Marcus Peters	KC	9
5t. Josh Norman	Was	8
5t. Three others tied		8

Norman joined the Redskins having previously appeared in 53 regular season games with 38 starts for Carolina, recording 178 tackles (136 solo), 36 passes defended, seven interceptions (two returned for touchdowns), four forced fumbles and three fumbles recovered from 2012-15.

"I'm very, very fortunate enough to be here with this magnitude of an organization. I can't say enough great things about them. The history here is 84-years-plus, so this is the golden age of football when you come down here to the NFC East. So I'm loving it."

- Cornerback Josh Norman

In 2015, Norman started all 16 regular season games and all three postseason games for the Panthers, recording career highs in interceptions (four), forced fumbles (three) and fumbles recovered (two) in addition to tying for the league lead in interceptions returned for touchdowns (two). His highly decorated 2015 campaign resulted in a myriad of honors, including All-Pro selections from both the Associated Press and Pro Football Writers Association in addition to sharing PFWA Co-Most Improved Player of the Year honors with new teammate Kirk Cousins.

Norman's accolades and productivity speak for themselves, but what kind of person were the Redskins getting? Barry learned immediately.

"Obviously to get a player of his caliber, I think anytime you add that on to your roster it's huge, but to get the type of work ethic, the type of character..." Barry said before transitioning into an anecdote. "The story I always tell people is that we walked out of the building with Josh and his family and all of us at about 10:30 on that Friday night, he was going back to the airport to fly back home and I was like, 'OK, bro, when do you think you're going to make it back?' He looked at me literally like I was crazy. He was like, 'What are you talking about? I will be back Sunday night and I will be in the building at 8:00 Monday morning to work.' So, that to me said a lot."

BASHAUD BREELAND

The Redskins believed they found a gem in the fourth round of the 2014 NFL Draft when they selected cornerback Bashaud Breeland out of Clemson. He rewarded their faith as a rookie in 2014, leading the team with two interceptions and starting 15 games — the third-most by a Redskins rookie cornerback in team history behind only Champ Bailey (16 in 1999) and Pro Football Hall of Famer Darrell Green (16 in 1983).

In 2015, the signing of Chris Culliver and the return of DeAngelo Hall from injury was supposed to allow Breeland to flourish in nickel role, but various injuries to the Redskins' secondary once again thrust him into a starting role. Breeland compiled 81 tackles (59 solo), a team- and career-high 16 passes defended, two interceptions, three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries in 15 games, including a Week 9 contest in which he was limited by injury.

In Week 5 last season, Breeland posted four passes defended and his first interception of the season, playing a key role in helping limit Falcons receiver Julio Jones to only five receptions and no receiving touchdowns. A week later, Breeland turned in a career day, recording an interception, forced fumble and a career-high two fumble recoveries to become only the fifth NFL player since the turn of the century to record two fumble recoveries and an interception in a single game.

With picks in Weeks 5-6 last year, Breeland became the first member of the Redskins to record an interception in consecutive games since London Fletcher did so in three straight games across Weeks 14-16 of the 2012 season.

However, Breeland's biggest play of the 2015 season may not have even ended with the ball in his hands. In Week 7 against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, the Redskins had fought back from a 24-0 deficit to pull within three points. On a first down with slightly more than four minutes remaining, Tampa Bay running back Doug Martin broke free down the right sideline with a clear path to a game-clinching touchdown. Breeland — coming from the opposite side of the field — was able to push Martin out-of-bounds after 49 yards at the Washington 5-yard line for a touchdown-saving stop.

Breeland injured his hamstring with the monstrous effort, but the Redskins' defense responded by holding the Buccaneers to a field goal on the drive, allowing the Washington offense to drive down the field and score a touchdown to complete the largest comeback in franchise history.

After the game, Head Coach Jay Gruden noted the importance of Breeland's stop in the midst of the second-year cornerback's career-high 13-tackle day.

"At the end of the day, they score there, the game's over. That shows what kind of guy he is," Gruden said. "I talk about Breeland being an ultimate competitor. If he takes that one play off, or one instance and they go up by 10, the game's over, most likely. And he hustled, got them down at the five. We got a big stop, held a field goal, we go down and score."

SPOTLIGHT ON SPECIAL TEAMS

KICKER DUSTIN HOPKINS

The Redskins surprised many in Week 2 of the 2015 season when they elected to move on from kicker Kai Forbath, the franchise leader in field goal percentage among players with at least 50 attempts, in favor of signing kicker Dustin Hopkins.

The results were hard to argue with, as Hopkins supplemented his field goal kicking (25-of-28, third-best single-season percentage in team history) with his status as a much-needed weapon in the field position battle.

"You look at the total package of what a kicker needs to bring to your football team and we were looking for a little bit of a stronger leg, especially on kickoffs," Gruden said on the day the team signed Hopkins. "That's the bottom line."

Across the 2013-14 seasons, the Redskins ranked third-to-last in the NFL in touchback percentage, recording touchbacks on only 34.0 percent of kickoffs. In 2015, Hopkins registered touchbacks on 52-of-76 kickoffs (68.4 percent), the ninth-best percentage of any NFL kicker.

Hopkins has opened the 2016 season 14-for-15 on field goal attempts, with his only miss coming on a 56-yard attempt into 30 mph wind gusts at Baltimore. In Week 3, he tied a team record with five field goals in a 5-for-5 performance in a victory as part of an NFC Special Teams Player of the Week and Player of the Month performance.

Beyond Hopkins' ability to boot the ball through the uprights and through the back of the end zone, his ability to get it to stop and turn on a dime after 10 yards was vital to a Redskins' victory against Tampa Bay in Week 7 last season. After facing an early 24-0 deficit, the Redskins scored late in the first half and at the start of the second half to cut the lead to 24-14, at which point Gruden and Special Teams Coordinator Ben Kotwica turned to Hopkins to deliver a surprise onside kick early in the third. Receiver Rashad Ross batted the skidding ball to safety Trenton Robinson, ending a league-wide 0-for-24 skid on onside kick attempts to start the 2015 season. The onside kick helped jumpstart the Redskins en route to recording the largest comeback victory in franchise history.

"His onside kicks, they're like magic balls. I don't know how he keeps them in play."

- Head Coach Jay Gruden

It was only the fourth successful onside kick by the Redskins since 2000 and ended a streak of 18 unsuccessful onside kick attempts by the Redskins over the previous nine seasons.

PUNTER TRESS WAY

Since his arrival in January 2015, General Manager Scot McCloughan has stressed multiple desires. One was to create competition at every position, and another was for the team to reward its own players who performed at high levels.

Punter Tress Way is emblematic of both ideals.

The Redskins spent the majority of the 2014 offseason evaluating a punting battle between newcomers Robert Malone and Blake Clingan, but the race received a darkhorse candidate when the team claimed Way off waivers from Chicago on Aug. 20 that year. Way was given 10 days to stake a claim to the punting job.

Way accomplished the feat and has since posted historically relevant numbers, earned the special teams captaincy in 2015 and been rewarded with a multi-year contract extension in 2016.

In 2014, Way's punting numbers rewarded the coaching staff's faith. Way averaged 47.5 yards per punt, the 35th-best single-season average in NFL history and the highest by a Redskins player since World War II.

Way finished the season averaging 47.5 yards per punt to rank fourth in team history, trailing only Sammy Baugh's full-season NFL record (51.4 yards per punt in 1940) and Baugh's 1941 and 1942 campaigns (48.7 and 48.2). Way became the first member of the Redskins to lead the NFL in punting for a season since Sam Baker in 1958 (45.4). It marked the seventh time a Redskins player had led the league in punting average since 1939.

REDSKINS TO LEAD NFL IN PUNTING SINCE 1939:

Player	Season	Avg.
Tress Way	2014	47.5
Sam Baker	1958	45.4
Sammy Baugh	1945	43.3
Sammy Baugh	1943	45.9
Sammy Baugh	1942	48.2
Sammy Baugh	1941	48.7
Sammy Baugh	1940	51.4

While Way's left leg has been on display since 2014, the Redskins gave their third-year punter a chance to show off his right arm in Week 3 of the 2016 season. Locked in a tight, divisional road game against the New York Giants, Way threw a perfect spiral to cornerback Quinton Dunbar for a 31-yard gain on a fake punt to convert on fourth down. The fake punt was the Redskins' first successful fake kick of any kind since Week 10 of the 2009 season vs. Denver, when punter Hunter Smith connected with fullback Mike Sellers for a 35-yard touchdown.

Though Way was new to Washington in 2014, he was no stranger to playing for the Redskins. The University of Oklahoma product is a native of Tulsa, Okla., where he played his prep career for the Union H.S. Redskins. Part of the school's pregame traditions include chanting "All My Life I Wanted To Be A Redskin."

"I must've got 65, 'All my life I wanted to be a Redskin' texts," Way told multiple news outlets after making the team's roster.

REDSKINS BIOS

JAY GRUDEN

HEAD COACH

13TH NFL SEASON // 3RD WITH REDSKINS

Jay Gruden enters his third season with the Washington Redskins in 2016 after being named the 29th head coach in franchise history on January 9, 2014.

Previously a decorated quarterback in the college and Arena Football League ranks and a successful NFL assistant, Gruden showcased his offensive acumen honed from his diverse football background in his first two years with the Redskins.

In 2015, Gruden led the Redskins to an NFC East Championship, posting a 9-7 record to complete the second “worst-to-first” turnaround in team history. Gruden became the sixth coach in team history to lead the Redskins to a play-off berth within the first two years at the helm, joining Ray Flaherty, Dutch Bergman, Dudley DeGroot, George Allen and Joe Gibbs.

Under Gruden’s guidance, the 2015 Redskins featured one of the most prolific passing attacks in franchise history. Quarterback Kirk Cousins, named the starter in the middle of the preseason, set single-season team records for attempts (543), completions (379), passing yards (4,166) and 300-yard passing games (seven) while throwing 29 touchdown passes, including at least one in all 16 games. Cousins’ success coincided with the emergence of third-year tight end Jordan Reed, who finished the season with 87 receptions for 952 yards (both team records for a tight end) with 11 receiving touchdowns.

Gruden assumed control of the Redskins in 2014 and guided the team through a campaign in which three different quarterbacks (Robert Griffin III, Kirk Cousins and Colt McCoy) recorded victories as starters. He installed an offensive system that produced two Pro Bowlers in his first season as tackle Trent Williams and running back Alfred Morris earned repeat berths.

Excluding interim coaches, Gruden, 46 at the time of his hiring, became the team’s youngest head coaching hire since hiring eventual Pro Football Hall of Famer Joe Gibbs at 40 years of age in 1981. He became the first Redskins head coach hired directly from an offensive coordinator role on another team since Norv Turner in 1994.

Before joining the Redskins, Gruden spent his previous three seasons as offensive coordinator for the Cincinnati Bengals. In his tenure in Cincinnati, the Bengals averaged 10 wins a season, making three consecutive playoff appearances and earning an AFC North championship in 2013. Members of the Bengals’ offense accounted for seven Pro Bowl selections in his three seasons in Cincinnati.

Gruden was tasked with the development of quarterback Andy Dalton, a 2011 second-round pick. In three seasons together, Gruden helped Dalton to a 30-18 regular season record as a starter (.625), as Dalton’s 30 wins in that time frame ranked tied for fifth-most among NFL quarterbacks. Dalton’s 80 passing touchdowns rank third-most in NFL history for a quarterback in his first three seasons, trailing only Dan Marino (98) and Peyton Manning (85).

Prior to joining the Bengals, Gruden served two years with the Florida Tuskers of the United Football League from 2009-10. In 2009, Gruden served as offensive coordinator as the Tuskers compiled a 6-0 regular season record and earned a UFL championship game berth. In 2010, he assumed the roles of head coach and general manager and led the Tuskers to their second consecutive championship game appearance.

Gruden coached for seven seasons (2002-08) with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, earning a Super Bowl championship ring as an offensive assistant in 2002. There he worked under his brother, Jon (then the Bucs’ head coach), and current Redskins President Bruce Allen (the Bucs’ general manager from 2004-08). Gruden helped guide the Buccaneers to the team’s first league championship, a 48-21 victory in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Gruden also ranks among the most outstanding players and coaches in the history of the Arena Football League, having won six combined league championships – four as a quarterback and two as a head coach. Gruden played quarterback (2002-03) and served as head coach (2004-08) of the AFL’s Orlando Predators while simultaneously working as an offensive assistant with the Buccaneers. In all, Gruden served as head coach of the Predators for nine seasons (1998-2001 and 2004-08), leading the Predators to four championship game appearances and two league titles as a coach. During a two-year hiatus from coaching the Predators in 2002-03, he returned to the playing field as Orlando’s quarterback, leading the Predators to playoff appearances in both seasons.

In his eight seasons as a player in the AFL, Gruden completed 1,673-of-2,775 passes (60.3 percent) for 21,578 yards with 398 touchdowns and 99 interceptions. In addition to his time with Orlando, he spent six seasons (1991-96) at quarterback for the Tampa Bay Storm, winning four AFL titles and being named MVP of ArenaBowl VII in 1993. He was also named the 1992 AFL Most Valuable Player and was honored with induction into the AFL Hall of Fame in 1999.

Gruden played quarterback for four seasons for former Redskins draft pick Howard Schnellenberger at the University of Louisville (1985-88) and was a two-time team MVP.

Gruden was born March 4, 1967, in Tiffin, Ohio. He and his wife, Sherry, have three sons – J.J., Joey and Jack – and a grandson, Trey.

2015-Pres.	Defensive Coordinator	Washington Redskins

Joe Barry enters his second season as the Redskins' defensive coordinator in 2016 after being named to the position on January 20, 2015.

Now in his 15th NFL season, including four as a defensive coordinator, Barry has been a member of a defensive staff that has finished in the Top 10 in total defense five times, including No. 1 overall units in 2002 and 2005. Under Barry, Tampa Bay Buccaneers Hall of Fame linebacker Derrick Brooks was named the 2002 NFL Defensive Player of the Year.

Barry's relentless enthusiasm and energy was present in his first season in Washington in 2015, as he and his staff seamlessly integrated draft picks, veteran additions, undrafted rookies and "off-the-street" free agents en route to a 9-7 record and an NFC East championship. Barry's "starters and starters-in-waiting" philosophy was evident during the season as 32 different players logged a defensive snap, 24 of whom started at least one game.

Barry's 2015 Redskins forced 27 takeaways, including 26 in the final 14 weeks of the season to tie for third-most in the NFL in that time frame. He and his staff adapted and thrived despite a rash of injuries throughout the unit, including moving DeAngelo Hall from cornerback to safety, splitting sixth-round pick Kyshoen Jarrett's time between safety and nickelback, getting major contributions from midseason signing Will Blackmon and converting college free agent wide receiver Quinton Dunbar to cornerback during training camp.

Prior to joining the Redskins in 2015, Barry served as linebackers coach for the San Diego Chargers from 2012-14. Prior to his tenure in San Diego, he was the linebackers coach for Southern California from 2010-11. Barry helped mold linebacker Malcolm Smith into a 2011 draft selection who eventually went on to become the MVP of Super Bowl XLVIII.

Barry returned to Tampa Bay for his second stint with the team in 2009, again serving as the team's linebackers coach. During his first tenure with Tampa Bay from 2001-06, the defense allowed the fewest passing yards per game (177.2), the second-fewest yards per game (285.7) and the second-fewest points per game (17.4). In addition, Buccaneers linebackers were named to the Pro Bowl seven times in his first six seasons.

In 2002, Barry helped lead the Buccaneers to their first championship in franchise history with a 48-21 win against the Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII. The title game featured the Buccaneers' top-ranked defense (252.8 yards per game) against the Raiders' top-ranked offense (389.8), but the Bucs' defense limited Oakland to 269 yards. Tampa Bay forced five interceptions, three of which were returned for touchdowns, including a game-sealing 44-yard interception return for touchdown by Brooks in the fourth quarter.

Barry served as the defensive coordinator for the Detroit Lions from 2007-08, where he led units that ranked tied for third in the NFL in takeaways (37) in 2007 and 10th in sacks per pass play in 2008. His NFL coaching career began in San Francisco in 2000, when he served as a defensive quality control coach.

Barry began his prep career at Ames (Iowa) H.S. before finishing at Fairview H.S. in Boulder, Colo. Barry played linebacker at Michigan from 1989-90 before transferring to USC in 1991, earning varsity letters in the 1992 and '93 seasons. He began his coaching career for the Trojans in 1995. In 1996, he joined the Northern Arizona staff, coaching linebackers and defensive ends for three seasons. Barry was then hired to coach linebackers at Nevada-Las Vegas in 1999.

Barry and his wife, Chris, have two daughters, Camryn and Lauren, and twin sons, Nick and Sam.

BEN KOTWICA
SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

10TH NFL SEASON

1993-96	Linebacker	U.S. Military Academy
2005-06	Defensive Coordinator	USMA Prep School
2007-08	Quality Control - Def/ST	New York Jets
2009-12	Asst. Special Teams Coach	New York Jets
2013	Special Teams Coordinator	New York Jets
2014-Pres.	Special Teams Coordinator	Washington Redskins

Ben Kotwica enters his third season as the Redskins' special teams coordinator in 2016 after originally being named to the position on January 15, 2014.

Kotwica, now entering his 10th NFL season, spent the first seven years of his NFL career in various coaching capacities with the New York Jets. Before assuming the role of coordinator for the Jets in 2013, Kotwica assisted with the Jets' special teams in multiple roles across the 2007-12 seasons.

In 2015, Kotwica deftly commanded a unit that used 60 different players in a special teams capacity during the Redskins' 9-7 division-winning campaign. The Redskins allowed only 20.1 yards per kickoff return, the fourth-best average in the NFL. It marked the Redskins' first Top 5 finish in the category since 2011 when the team was in the midst of a stretch of six straight Top 5 seasons from 2006-11. Kotwica's game planning also helped the Redskins recover their first onside kick since 2007, as the Redskins successfully executed a surprise onside kick in the team's record-setting 24-point comeback win against Tampa Bay.

Kotwica's 2015 unit was directly responsible for three touchdowns, including tying a team record with two kickoff return touchdowns and adding a blocked punt recovery for a touchdown. Kotwica and the Redskins also signed kicker Dustin Hopkins in Week 2, and the first-year kicker converted 25-of-28 field goal attempts and posted the third-best field goal percentage in team history (89.3), trailing only Mark Moseley (95.2 in 1982) and Kai Forbath (94.4 in 2012).

In his first season in Washington in 2014, Kotwica's tutelage and eye for talent helped first-year punter Tress Way (47.5 yards per punt) become the first member of the Redskins to lead the NFL in punting for a season since Sam Baker in 1958. Way's average ranked fourth in team history, a feat he accomplished in a season in which he was given 10 days to earn the punting job after being claimed off waivers late in the preseason. Kotwica also helped kicker Kai Forbath successfully convert 24-of-27 field goals (88.9 percent) in

Prior to Kotwica's arrival in Washington, the Jets accounted for 10 combined kick and punt return touchdowns during his time as an assistant in New York, tied for most in the AFC and tied for second-most in the NFL. The Jets averaged a league-best 24.6 yards per kick return in those six seasons and had a kick returner finish in the Top 5 in the NFL in kick return average four times (Joe McKnight, 2011 and 2012; Brad Smith, 2010; and Leon Washington, 2007). Kotwica helped Leon Washington earn his first career Pro Bowl berth as a kick returner following the 2008 season.

In addition to his football career, Kotwica's background includes his time as a decorated officer who spent eight years in the United States Army after graduating from the United States Military Academy at West Point. His military career included operations in Bosnia-Herzegovina, Korea and Iraq.

Kotwica was commissioned as a 2nd Lieutenant in the Aviation Branch of the Army and was selected to fly the AH-64 Apache Longbow, the world's best attack helicopter. He was an Attack Helicopter Platoon Leader in support of the 82nd Airborne Division from 1998-2001, where he was responsible for the health and welfare of 20 soldiers.

In 2000, Kotwica deployed to Bosnia-Herzegovina for eight months before returning to the states to attend the Aviation Captain Career course. He completed the course in the top 10 percent of his class. Two years later, he returned overseas to Camp Page, Korea where he served as a Military Intelligence Officer for six months. In early 2003, he was selected to serve as the Battalion Executive Officer for a unit comprised of more than 300 soldiers, 24 attack helicopters and more than $400 million worth of equipment.

In January 2004, he briefly returned to Fort Hood, Texas, to serve as the Training Officer for the 1st Cavalry Division. Two months later, he deployed in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom II, serving as a Combat Attack Helicopter Commander and flying more than 1,000 combat hours in support of five maneuver brigades within the 1st Cavalry Division. His missions included convoy security operations; VIP escorts for former President George W. Bush, former Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld and former Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice; and search and destroy missions to suppress insurgent activities.

During his service, Kotwica was awarded with the Army Achievement Medal, the Army Commendation Medal, the Meritorious Service Medal and the Bronze Star.

Kotwica played at Army from 1993-96 and was a three-year starter at linebacker. He was the captain of the only 10-win team in Army history, leading the Black Knights to a 10-2 record and the program's most recent Commander-in-Chief's Trophy in 1996.

Kotwica and his wife, Christina, have four children: daughters, Analyssa and Arianna, and sons, Christian and Brayden.

SEAN McVAY
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

8TH NFL SEASON
7TH WITH REDSKINS

2004-07	Wide Receiver	Miami University
2008	Coaching Assistant	Tampa Bay Buccaneers
2009	Tight Ends Coach	Florida Tuskers (UFL)
2010	Offensive Assistant	Washington Redskins
2011-13	Tight Ends Coach	Washington Redskins
2014-Pres.	Offensive Coordinator	Washington Redskins

Sean McVay enters his third season as the Redskins' offensive coordinator in 2016 after initially being promoted to the position on January 15, 2014. Prior to his promotion during the 2014 offseason, McVay spent three seasons as the team's tight ends coach (2011-13) and one as an offensive assistant (2010).

McVay's group posted a breakout campaign in his second year as Offensive Coordinator in 2015, including record-setting performances by quarterback Kirk Cousins and tight end Jordan Reed. McVay's scheme and tutelage helped Cousins break Redskins records for attempts (543), completions (379), passing yards (4,166) and 300-yard passing games (seven) in a single season. Reed has been a direct beneficiary of McVay's work, spending 2013 as a member of his unit during McVay's time as tight ends coach and being a focal point of the offense in 2015, as Reed recorded 87 receptions for 952 yards (both team records for a tight end) with 11 receiving touchdowns (one shy of the team record) in 2015.

Collectively, McVay's 2015 offense recorded Top 10 rankings in third down percentage (43.5, fifth in the NFL), red zone scoring percentage (61.2, eighth), yards per play (5.6, 10th) and points per game (24.3, 10th). The Redskins also led the NFL with a team-record 69.5 completion percentage in 2015, leading the league in the category for the 11th time in team history and the first time since 1970.

In his first season as Offensive Coordinator in 2014, McVay helped the offense to a Top 10 league ranking in yards per play (5.7) despite starting three different quarterbacks. His work with the three passers was instrumental in setting a team record for completion percentage (66.5 percent, later broken in 2015) and helping facilitate the explosive debut season of wide receiver DeSean Jackson. Jackson averaged a league-best 20.9 yards per reception and became only the fourth player in team history to lead the NFL in that category.

In 2013, McVay played a crucial role in Reed's development, as the then-rookie compiled 45 receptions for 499 yards – both Redskins' single-season rookie tight end records – despite Reed playing in only nine games. Under McVay's tutelage, Reed joined Chris Cooley (2004) as the only Redskins tight ends named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team. In addition, McVay helped tight end Logan Paulsen from an undrafted free agent into a 30-game starter from 2010-13, with Paulsen increasing his reception totals each season.

During Washington's NFC East championship season in 2012, McVay's unit produced despite losing starting tight end Fred Davis to a torn Achilles tendon in Week 7. Davis had led the team in both receptions (24) and receiving yards (325) through seven games before being placed on the Reserve/Injured list. McVay guided a unit that provided reliable receiving options on top of contributing significantly as blockers to the Redskins' league-leading 2,709 rushing yards.

In 2011, McVay played an integral role in Davis' emergence, as the then fourth-year tight end surpassed his previous career highs despite playing in only 12 games. Davis caught 59 passes for 796 yards, the second-highest total on the team in both categories. Before missing the final four games of the season, Davis was on pace to set a franchise record in receiving yards by a tight end and was on pace to post the first 1,000-yard receiving season by a tight end in Redskins history.

McVay served as an offensive assistant to the Redskins in 2010 in addition to working with the tight ends during the final four weeks of the season following coach Jon Embree's departure. The Redskins offense ranked eighth in the NFL in passing yards per game (244.6) and tight end Chris Cooley ranked second among NFL tight ends in receptions (77) and third in receiving yards (849). The offensive unit also set a franchise record for completions in a season (349), and registered a touchdown pass in 15 consecutive games for the first time in team history. The Redskins' offense led the NFL with nine completions of at least 50 yards, including one in four consecutive games for the first time since 1987.

McVay joined the Redskins prior to the 2010 season after an undefeated regular season with the Florida Tuskers of the United Football League (UFL). The Tuskers finished a perfect 6-0 before losing in the UFL's inaugural championship game. McVay served as the Tuskers' tight ends coach in addition to working closely with the team's running backs. McVay originally entered the National Football League as an offensive assistant with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2008.

During his time in Tampa Bay, McVay worked closely with wide receiver Antonio Bryant, who recorded career highs in receptions (83), receiving yards (1,248), and touchdowns (seven), en route to winning The Sporting News Comeback Player of the Year Award.

McVay graduated from Miami University (Ohio) where he played wide receiver from 2004-07, earning Miami's Scholar-Athlete Award in 2007. His grandfather, John, served in various roles – including vice president/director of football operations from 1983-94 – for the San Francisco 49ers from 1979-95, overseeing five Super Bowl championship squads and earning induction into the 49ers Hall of Fame in 2013.

2003-06	Defensive Coordinator	Washington State
2007-12	Head Coach	Idaho
2014	Asst. DL Coach	Minnesota Vikings
2015-Pres.	Defensive Line Coach	Washington Redskins

Robb Akey enters his second season as the Redskins' defensive line coach in 2016 after initially being named to the position on February 2, 2015.

Akey oversaw a veteran unit in 2015 that returned 10th-year veteran Jason Hatcher and added strong, vocal presences in previous Super Bowl participants Terrance Knighton and Ricky Jean Francois. Akey's tutelage helped Chris Baker record career highs in games played (16), sacks (6.0), forced fumbles (three) and fumble recoveries (two). The unit was particularly stout when needed most, as the defense finished second in the NFL in opponents' percentage of conversions on third- and/or fourth-and-1 (50.0) in 2015.

Akey joined the Redskins in the 2015 offseason with 26 years of coaching experience, including serving as the assistant defensive line coach for the Minnesota Vikings in 2014. Akey assisted with a Vikings defensive line in 2014 that featured three new starters (defensive end Everson Griffen and defensive tackles Sharrif Floyd and Linval Joseph), helping Griffen post 12.0 sacks and rank second in the NFC and fourth in the NFL among defensive ends in that category. Under Akey's tutelage, Griffen was named NFC Defensive Player of the Month for October after posting an NFC-best six sacks in a four-game span.

Prior to entering the NFL with the Vikings, Akey was the Head Coach at the University of Idaho from 2007-12, leading the Vandals to their second bowl game in school history in 2009. That season, Akey led the second biggest turnaround in college football, improving the Vandals to 8-5 from 2-10 a year earlier. Akey's six-year stay at Idaho is tied for the third-longest tenure in Idaho history. In July 2009, Akey traveled overseas to show support for military installations in the Middle East with four other NCAA head football coaches.

Before his time at Idaho, Akey spent the previous eight seasons at Washington State, where he mentored the defensive line from 1999-2002 and served as Defensive Coordinator from 2003-06. While coaching the Cougars, Akey led defensive tackle Rien Long to 1st-Team All-America honors as well as the Outland Trophy, given annually to the nation's top interior lineman, in 2002. That season, Akey helped the Washington State defense set a school record for sacks with 55.

As the Cougars' defensive coordinator, Akey led one of the best defenses in school history. In 2003, Washington State led the nation in takeaways with 48 in addition to finishing fifth in pass efficiency defense and sixth in rush defense. While at Washington State, Akey helped the Cougars finish with three consecutive 10-win seasons and top-10 finishes from 2001-03, including winning the 2002 PAC-10 Championship and earning a trip to the 2003 Rose Bowl.

Akey spent four seasons (1995-98) at Northern Arizona, starting as Special Teams Coordinator and Linebacker Coach before being promoted to Defensive Coordinator in 1996.

Akey received his first coaching job in 1988 at his alma mater, Weber State. He started as an assistant defensive line coach for one season before being promoted to defensive line coach. Akey coached at Weber State from 1988-94, spending time as the defensive line coach, special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator. From 1984-87, Akey appeared at tight end, outside linebacker and defensive end during his four-year playing career at Weber State. Akey finished his career as the Wildcat leader in sacks and was named first-team All-Big Sky as a senior in 1987 in addition to receiving honorable mention All-American honors.

A native of Colorado Springs, Colo., Akey is a 1984 graduate of Wasson H.S. Akey and wife, Molly, have two sons, Jack and Daniel.

Bradford Banta was named the Redskins' assistant special teams coach on February 4, 2014. He is entering his third season with the team in 2016.

Along with Special Teams Coordinator Ben Kotwica and Special Projects/Assistant Special Teams Coach Bret Munsey, Banta contributed to the Redskins' special teams success in 2015 despite the unit having to use 60 different players (tied for seventh-most in the NFL) during its NFC East championship season. The unit posted a Top 5 ranking in kickoff coverage (20.1 yards allowed per return) and contributed three special teams touchdowns, including a team-record-tying two kickoff returns for touchdowns and a blocked punt recovery for a touchdown.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Banta spent six seasons with the Detroit Lions in various coaching capacities. From 2012-13, Banta served as the Lions' assistant linebackers coach. Under his guidance in 2012, the Lions linebacker corps of Stephen Tulloch, Justin Durant and DeAndre Levy led the Lions in total tackles, finishing with 112, 103 and 81, respectively. In 2013, he contributed to a breakout season for Levy, who led all NFL linebackers with six interceptions.

Banta served as the Lions' assistant special teams coach for four seasons from 2008-11. He helped John Wendling tie for first in the NFL in special teams tackles (51) across the 2010-12 seasons. Under Banta in 2011, kicker Jason Hanson finished with 126 points, the fourth-best single-season total in Lions history, and Hanson's five 50-yard field goals made him the first player in NFL history to kick 50 50-yard field goals in his career.

In 2010, the Lions' kick return unit was the third-most improved unit in the NFL in kickoff return average with 3.5 more yards per return than in 2009. Detroit also had the NFL's 10th-most significant improvement in punt return average in 2010 (8.8 avg. in 2009, 12.1 avg. in 2010). Detroit had the fourth-most improved kickoff coverage unit, allowing an average of 2.7 less yards per each kick return in 2010.

Before joining the Lions as a coach in 2008, Banta spent the 2007 season as a tight ends coach for the University of Tennessee-Chattanooga.

After being drafted by the Indianapolis Colts in the fourth round of the 1994 NFL Draft, Banta spent six seasons with the Colts and established himself as one of the league's best long snappers. He joined the New York Jets for the 2000 season before playing three seasons with the Detroit Lions from 2001-03. He finished his 11-year playing career with Buffalo in 2004.

Banta was a two-year starter at tight end at the University of Southern California (1989-93) as well as a four-time letter winner. He earned Honorable Mention All-Pac 10 Conference honors as a junior and senior and received his bachelor's degree in communications with a minor in sociology in 1993.

A native of Baton Rouge, La., Banta was a Parade All-American as a senior at University High School and helped them to the state championship (1988) while playing tight end and linebacker. He and his wife, Amy, have three children.

Bill Callahan enters his second season as the Redskins' offensive line coach in 2016 after initially being named to the position on January 15, 2015.

Callahan is entering his 18th NFL season in 2015 as part of a career that includes head coaching stints at both the pro and collegiate levels as well as the 2002 AFC Championship with the Oakland Raiders. Entering 2016, Callahan has been a member of an offensive staff that has finished in the Top 5 in the NFL in rushing or passing 10 times, including a No. 1 overall finish in rushing twice (2000, 2009) and passing once (2002). Callahan has had 11 offensive linemen combine for 23 Pro Bowl selections during his career.

In his first year in Washington in 2015, Callahan was frequently credited for the largest year-over-year decline in sacks allowed in team history. A year after allowing 58 sacks in 2014, in Callahan's debut campaign the Redskins held opponents to 27 sacks in 2015. The 31-sack turnaround was the largest in team history since the NFL began recognizing sacks as an official statistic in 1982, surpassing the 30-sack decrease between the 1998-99 seasons. The performance of the line as a unit helped garner individual honors for Pro Bowl tackle Trent Williams and PFWA All-Rookie guard Brandon Scherff.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Callahan served as offensive coordinator/offensive line coach for the Dallas Cowboys from 2012-14 and helped guide the franchise to its first NFC East title since 2009 in his final season. In 2014, the Cowboys finished second in the NFL in rushing (1471) with running back DeMarco Murray leading the league in rushing and setting a Dallas franchise record with 1,845 yards. Callahan had two offensive linemen named to The Associated Press' 2014 All-Pro team (tackle Tyron Smith and guard Zack Martin) and had another (center Travis Frederick) selected with Smith and Martin to the Pro Bowl.

Callahan served as assistant head coach/offensive line coach of the New York Jets from 2008-11. During his four-year tenure with the Jets, the offense ranked second in the NFL in rushing yards per game (137.9) across those four seasons and appeared in two consecutive AFC Championship games (2009-10). In his four seasons, Callahan coached three offensive linemen to nine Pro Bowl appearances (Nick Mangold, 4; D'Brickashaw Ferguson, 3; and Alan Faneca, 2) and helped Mangold earn AP All-Pro honors in the 2009-10 seasons.

Prior to his time in New York, Callahan served as head coach at the University of Nebraska from 2004-07, leading the Cornhuskers to a Big 12 Conference Championship Game appearance in 2006 and two bowl invitations in his four seasons.

Callahan spent six seasons with the Oakland Raiders from 1998-2003, serving as offensive coordinator for four years before becoming the 13th head coach in Raiders history from 2001-02. In 2002, Oakland's offense set a team record for total offense with an NFL-best 6,237 yards and led the NFL in passing yards (4,689) en route to an appearance in Super Bowl XXXVII. He became the fourth rookie head coach in NFL history to earn a Super Bowl berth.

Before joining the Raiders, Callahan coached the offensive line for the Philadelphia Eagles from 1995-97. His unit helped the Eagles rank second in the NFC in passing, fifth in rushing and third in total offense in 1997. Prior to joining the Eagles, Callahan accrued 15 seasons of coaching experience in various capacities at Illinois (1980-86), Northern Arizona (1987-88), Southern Illinois (1989) and Wisconsin (1990-94).

Callahan started at quarterback for three seasons (1975-77) at Illinois Benedictine (Iisle, Ill.) where he earned honorable-mention All-America honors in 1976 and 1977 and graduated with a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1978. In 2004, he was inducted into the Benedictine University Athletics Hall of Fame.

Callahan was born in Chicago, where he attended Mendel Catholic H.S. He and his wife, Valerie, have four children: daughters Cathryn and Jaclyn, and sons Brian and Daniel. His son, Brian, now serves as the quarterbacks coach for the Detroit Lions.

His NFL background also includes 14 combined seasons as a quarterback for the New England Patriots, San Francisco 49ers, Philadelphia Eagles and New York Giants from 1978-91.

Cavanaugh made an immediate impact in his first season in Washington in 2015, helping guide quarterback Kirk Cousins to single-season team records in attempts (543), completions (379), passing yards (4,166) and 300-yard passing games (seven) despite not being named the starter until midway through the preseason. Cavanaugh's coaching helped Cousins post an interception percentage of 2.0, the second-lowest by a Redskins quarterback with at least 400 attempts in a season all-time. After the season, quarterback Colt McCoy called Cavanaugh the team's "MVP" for his work with Cousins in 2015.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Cavanaugh served as quarterbacks coach of the Chicago Bears from 2013-14. In 2013, under Cavanaugh's tutelage, the Bears' quarterbacks rewrote the franchise single-season record books setting team records in passer rating (96.9), passing yards (4,450), passing touchdowns (32) and completion percentage (64.4). It was his second stint in Chicago after having served as the team's offensive coordinator from 1997-98.

Cavanaugh spent four seasons working with quarterbacks for the New York Jets from 2009-12. During those four seasons, the Jets made two AFC Championship game appearances.

Cavanaugh joined the Jets after four seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at his alma mater, the University of Pittsburgh, from 2005-08. It was his second stint at Pitt after making his coaching debut in 1993 working with the Panthers' tight ends. As offensive coordinator, Cavanaugh helped tutor future NFL running backs LeSean McCoy and LaRod Stephens-Howling.

Cavanaugh served as the Baltimore Ravens' offensive coordinator from 1999-2004, a tenure that included the franchise's 34-7 Super Bowl XXXV victory in 2000. During that season, the Ravens ground game churned out a franchise-record 2,199 yards, fifth most in the NFL.

Prior to his first tenure in Chicago from 1997-98, Cavanaugh served as quarterbacks coach for the San Francisco 49ers in 1996, helping Steve Young lead the NFL in passer rating (97.2) and completion percentage (67.7). He got his first taste of NFL coaching in 1994, working as the quarterbacks coach of the Arizona Cardinals, a position he held for two years.

Cavanaugh won two Super Bowl titles as a backup quarterback with the New York Giants (Super Bowl XXV) and the 49ers (Super Bowl XIX). He was a second-round selection (50th overall) of the Patriots in 1978 NFL Draft, spending five seasons with New England (1978-82) before stints with the 49ers (1983-85), Eagles (1986-89) and Giants (1990-91). Served as Interim Head Coach for final seven games of 2009*

Perry Fewell enters his second season as the Redskins' defensive backs coach after initially being named to the position on January 27, 2015.

In his first season in Washington in 2015, Fewell skillfully guided a constantly changing unit that was besieged by injuries for most of the season. Fewell lost presumptive starting cornerbacks Chris Culliver and DeAngelo Hall for long stretches of the season but coached second-year corner Bashaud Breeland and midseason signing Will Blackmon to career years. He fostered the development of rookie Quinton Dunbar, a college free agent wide receiver who moved to cornerback out of a team necessity in training camp. He also developed rookie sixth-round pick Kyshoen Jarrett into a dual contributor at safety and nickelback and facilitated Hall's transition from corner to safety once he returned from injury late in the season.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Fewell spent the previous five seasons as defensive coordinator of the New York Giants, a stint that included a 21-17 victory over the New England Patriots in Super Bowl XLVI. In Fewell's five seasons in New York from 2010-14, his unit amassed 160 takeaways, second-most in the NFC and third-most in the NFL.

During the team's Super Bowl campaign in 2011, the Giants were fourth in the NFL in both takeaways (35) and turnover differential (plus-14). In four postseason victories that year, the Giants allowed an average of 14.0 points per game, joining the 2000 Baltimore Ravens as the only team since the turn of the century to allow 14 or fewer points per game in a postseason run requiring all four rounds.

Prior to joining the Giants, Fewell spent four seasons as the Buffalo Bills' defensive coordinator from 2006-09. He was the team's interim head coach for the final seven games of the 2009 season, earning three wins. In 2009, his guidance helped rookie safety Jairus Byrd tie for the NFL lead with nine interceptions in only 14 games and helped Byrd become the first Bills rookie to be selected to the Pro Bowl since Greg Bell in 1984.

Fewell coached defensive backs for the Chicago Bears in 2005 when the Bears led the NFC with 24 interceptions and cornerback Nathan Vasher and safety Mike Brown were both selected to the Pro Bowl. Fewell had previously served as secondary coach of the St. Louis Rams from 2003-04.

Fewell entered the NFL as the defensive backs coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars in 1998, a position he held through the 2002 season. Jacksonville's pass defense ranked third in the NFL during a 14-2 season in 1999.

Prior to entering the NFL, Fewell spent 13 years coaching at the collegiate level. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of North Carolina from 1985-86. He was the defensive backs coach at Army in 1987, and the following year, he began a four-year stint as the wide receivers coach at Kent State. In 1992, he returned to West Point, where he spent three seasons as the defensive line coach. Fewell's final college job was at Vanderbilt where he coached the secondary from 1995-97 and was also assistant head coach in his final season there.

STAFF BIOS

Fewell lettered as a defensive back at Lenoir-Rhyne (N.C.) from 1980-83 and was part of the university's Hall of Fame class in 2011. A native of Gastonia, N.C., he was on the football and track teams at South Point H.S. in Belmont, N.C., and was inducted into the Belmont Sports Hall of Fame in 2001. He also earned induction into the Gaston County, N.C. Hall of Fame in June 2012.

Chad Grimm enters his second season as a defensive quality control coach for the Redskins in 2016 after initially being named to the position on January 29, 2015.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Grimm spent two years in the same capacity with the San Diego Chargers. Grimm spent his first four NFL seasons with the Arizona Cardinals after entering the league in 2009 as an offensive quality control coach.

Grimm comes from a football pedigree. He is the son of Russ Grimm, a Pro Football Hall of Famer and three-time Super Bowl champion who stands as one of the most decorated players in Redskins history. His brother, Cody, played at Virginia Tech, was a seventh-round draft pick by Tampa Bay in 2010 and played safety for the Buccaneers from 2010-12.

Ike Hilliard returned for his second stint as the Redskins' wide receivers coach on January 20, 2014.

During the Redskins' NFC East championship season in 2015, Hilliard coached a group that prominently featured two prolific veterans (Pierre Garçon and DeSean Jackson) and two young players in their first or second NFL seasons (Jamison Crowder and Ryan Grant, respectively). Garçon posted 72 receptions, the second-highest total of his career, while Jackson recorded 528 receiving yards and four touchdowns despite being limited by injury to nine games. Hilliard's guidance also helped Crowder to a Redskins-rookie-record 59 receptions in 2015.

In his return to Washington in 2014, Hilliard oversaw the incorporation of Jackson into the team's offense after joining the team as a free agent. Jackson led the Redskins with 1,169 receiving yards on 56 receptions, becoming the fifth member of the Redskins to post 1,000 receiving yards in his first season in Washington (Bobby Mitchell in 1962, Henry Ellard in 1994, Laveranues Coles in 2003 and Santana Moss in 2005). Jackson averaged an NFL-best 20.9 yards per reception and was the first member of the Redskins to finish a season as the NFL leader in yards per reception since Henry Ellard (19.5 in 1996).

Hilliard served as wide receivers coach for the Buffalo Bills in 2013, helping mold a young group that included rookie second-round pick Robert Woods (40 receptions for 587 yards with three touchdowns) and rookie third-round pick Marquise Goodwin (17 receptions for 283 yards with three touchdowns).

In his first stint with the Redskins in 2012, Hilliard guided the team's receivers to the franchise's first division title since 1999. He incorporated free agents Pierre Garçon and Joshua Morgan into the offense, helping Garçon lead the team in receiving yards (633 in only 10 games) and helping Morgan lead the Redskins in receptions (48). Hilliard also oversaw the resurgence of veteran slot receiver Santana Moss, who caught 41 passes for 573 yards and eight touchdowns, his most since recording nine receiving touchdowns in his first season in Washington in 2005. The group's toughness on the perimeter also helped the offense rush for a league-best 2,709 yards, a franchise record.

In 2011, Hilliard served as the assistant wide receivers coach for the Miami Dolphins. He helped in the development of wide receiver Brandon Marshall, who was selected for his third Pro Bowl and first as a member of the Dolphins. Additionally, Marshall finished third in the AFC in receiving yards with 1,214 and recorded his fifth-consecutive 1,000-plus yard season.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Hilliard spent two seasons coaching for the Florida Tuskers of the United Football League. Hilliard worked as a volunteer coach with the Tuskers in 2009 and was elevated to the position of Receivers Coach for 2010 under current Redskins Head Coach Jay Gruden.

As a player, Hilliard was a first-round selection in the 1997 NFL Draft (No. 7 overall). He played 12 seasons, eight with the New York Giants (1997-2004) and four with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2005-08). In 161 career games (106 starts), Hilliard caught 546 passes for 6,397 yards and 35 touchdowns.

Hilliard played collegiately at the University of Florida from 1994-96, catching 126 passes for 2,214 yards and 26 touchdowns. He earned first-team All-SEC and All-American honors as a junior and, in the final game of the season, finished with seven catches for 150 yards and three touchdowns in leading the Gators to a 52-20 Sugar Bowl win to secure the school's first national championship.

Hilliard is a native of Patterson, La.

2008-11	Running Backs Coach	Texas A&M
2012-13	Running Backs Coach	North Carolina
2014-Pres.	Running Backs Coach	Washington Redskins

Randy Jordan enters his third season as the Redskins' running back coach in 2016 after initially being named to the position on January 26, 2014.

Jordan is a veteran of nine NFL seasons as a player from 1993-2002, appearing in 122 career games with the Raiders and Jaguars. He was the recipient of the NFL Unsung Hero Award and the Ed Block Courage Award in 2001 and served as special teams captain for the Raiders' AFC Championship team in 2002.

In 2015, Jordan oversaw a rotating stable of backs that included workhorse Alfred Morris (202 carries for 751 yards with one touchdown), third-round pick Matt Jones (144 carries for 490 yards with three touchdowns) and third-down back Chris Thompson (gained 6.2 yards per carry on 35 attempts). The group also contributed heavily in pass protection, helping the Redskins decrease their sack total from 58 in 2014 to 27 in 2015.

In his first season in Washington in 2014, Jordan helped Morris earn his second consecutive Pro Bowl berth, making Morris the first Redskins running back selected to consecutive Pro Bowls since Stephen Davis in 1999-2000. Morris joined Davis as the only backs in team history to record three consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons. Jordan's work was also evident in the play of fullback Darrel Young, who matched his career highs in rushing touchdowns (three) and receiving touchdowns (two) en route to a career-high five total touchdowns in 2014.

Before joining the Redskins, Jordan spent two years as the running backs coach at the University of North Carolina. In his first season with UNC in 2012, Jordan's Tar Heels averaged 193.8 rushing yards per game, third-most in the Atlantic Coast Conference and the program's highest average since 1994. That season, he tutored tailback Giovani Bernard – who played for current Redskins Head Coach Jay Gruden in Cincinnati in 2013 – to one of the best seasons in UNC history, helping Bernard average 122.8 rushing yards per game, most in the ACC and 11th in the nation.

Jordan was part of an offensive staff that helped Carolina set more than 35 school records, including total points, points per game and total offense.

Jordan coached running backs at Texas A&M for four seasons from 2008-11. In 2011, the Aggies averaged 199.1 rushing yards per game, fourth-most in the Big 12 Conference, and had two different backs – Cyrus Gray and Christine Michael – finish among the top five in the conference in rushing yards per game. Under Jordan's tutelage, Gray was a three-time All-Big 12 performer and exited ranked third in conference history in all-purpose yards.

Jordan left for Aggieland from the University of Nebraska where he served as the running backs coach for the Cornhuskers from 2004-07. Jordan helped shape the I-back position, coaching two 1,000-yard rushers in Cody Ross in 2004 and Marlon Lucky in 2007. He oversaw a committee of backs in 2006 that produced nearly 2,400 rushing yards and 26 rushing touchdowns, as an improved effort on the ground helped NU move from 107th in 2005 to 23rd nationally in rushing offense in 2006.

Jordan began his coaching career with the Oakland Raiders as a special teams assistant midway through the 2003 season. He played nine years in the NFL as a running back, playing in 122 career games from 1993 through 2002. He began his career with the Los Angeles Raiders before joining the expansion Jacksonville Jaguars in 1995 and playing three seasons. Jordan holds the distinction of scoring the very first touchdown for the Jacksonville club, a 71-yard reception against Cincinnati in 1995.

After the 1997 season, Jordan rejoined the Raiders' organization where he played five more seasons. In 1998, Jordan rushed for 159 yards for the Raiders. He had a career-high 213 yards rushing and three touchdowns in helping the Raiders reach the AFC Championship Game in 2000. He also caught 27 passes for 299 yards and a touchdown that same season.

Jordan finished his career with 574 yards rushing and seven touchdowns, while making 58 catches for 596 yards and two touchdowns. Jordan was also a standout special teams player. He finished his career with 801 yards on 38 career kick returns, including a season best of 553 yards on 26 returns for Jacksonville in 1996. He also recorded 64 career tackles on special teams.

Jordan played for the University of North Carolina under coach Mack Brown from 1989-92. He earned three letters for the Tar Heels rushing for 1,134 yards and nine touchdowns in his career, including 618 yards and seven touchdowns in 1991.

Jordan earned his bachelor's degree in speech communication from North Carolina in 1993. He was born in Manson, N.C. Jordan and his wife, Romonda, have a daughter, Raven, and two sons, Jalen and Justin.

2012-15	Defensive Coordinator	Indianapolis Colts
2016-Pres.	Outside Linebackers Coach	Washington Redskins

Greg Manusky returns to the Redskins in 2016 for his fifth season with the organization including his second as a coach after being hired as the team's outside linebackers coach on January 22, 2016.

Manusky returned to the Redskins with 27 previous combined seasons of NFL experience, including 15 as a coach and 12 as a player. He entered the coaching ranks full-time with the Redskins in 2001 as the team's linebackers coach. During his 15 previous seasons as an NFL coach entering 2016, 11 different players earned a total of 17 Pro Bowl selections under his tutelage.

Prior to his second coaching stint in Washington, Manusky served nine seasons as a defensive coordinator with the Indianapolis Colts (2012-15), San Diego Chargers (2011) and San Francisco 49ers (2007-10). The Colts won at least eight games in all four of Manusky's seasons in Indianapolis, earning three postseason berths including an AFC Championship appearance in 2014. The Colts recorded 10 interception returns for touchdowns during Manusky's four-year tenure, tied for second-most in the AFC and tied for fifth-most in the NFL in that time frame.

In 2014, Manusky guided a defense that helped record the team's third straight 11-5 regular season record and second consecutive AFC South Division Championship. From Weeks 4 through 7, the Colts only allowed one third down conversion in four straight games, marking the longest such streak by an NFL team since 1970. Safety Mike Adams, cornerback Vontae Davis and inside linebacker D'Qwell Jackson comprised the three defensive players to earn their first career Pro Bowl selection during the year.

Manusky spent the 2011 campaign as the defensive coordinator of the San Diego Chargers. Under his direction, the defense allowed an average of 224.4 net passing yards per game, and safety Eric Weddle tied for the NFL lead with seven interceptions and earned a trip to the 2012 Pro Bowl. Prior to joining the Chargers, Manusky spent four seasons (2007-10) as defensive coordinator of the San Francisco 49ers. His 2009 unit did not allow a touchdown in five separate games while forcing an NFL-best 21 fumbles, allowing just 3.6 yards per rush and recording 44.0 sacks.

Manusky's first tenure with the Chargers lasted four seasons (2002-06), during which time he served as the linebackers coach. In the 2006 campaign, San Diego linebackers accounted for 42.5 of the team's 61.0 regular season sacks. That season, linebacker Shawne Merriman tied the Chargers' franchise record with 17.0 sacks, becoming the first Charger to lead the league in sacks.

Manusky started his coaching career in 2000, working as a volunteer linebackers and special teams coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers during training camp. He then joined the Redskins staff in 2001 as the team's linebackers coach, helping guide LaVar Arrington to his first career Pro Bowl selection.

Throughout his career, Manusky has coached an impressive list of Pro Bowl players, including D'Qwell Jackson, Vontae Davis, Mike Adams and Robert Mathis with the Colts; Eric Weddle, Shawne Merriman, Junior Seau and Donnie Edwards with the Chargers; Justin Smith and Patrick Willis with the 49ers and LaVar Arrington with the Redskins.

Manusky was a linebacker and special teams standout during his 12-year NFL playing career in Washington, Minnesota and Kansas City, recording a stretch in which he participated in 113 consecutive games. Manusky earned All-Madden Team honors in 1991 and retired from the NFL in 2000.

A native of Wyoming, Pa., Manusky attended Dallas (Pa.) H.S. before moving on to Colgate University, where he was a four-year letterman and an All-Colonial League selection. As a senior in 1987, Manusky was named the Colonial League's Defensive Player of the Year. He graduated with degrees in education and geology.

Manusky and his wife, Laurie, have two sons, Colton and Jake, and two daughters, Logan and Chandler.

2014-Pres.	Inside Linebackers Coach	Washington Redskins

Kirk Olivadotti enters his 14th NFL season – all with the Redskins – in 2016 after returning for his second stint with the team on January 16, 2014.

Olivadotti returned to the Redskins – with whom he spent 11 NFL seasons in various capacities from 2000-10 – in 2014 after three years coaching inside linebackers at the University of Georgia from 2011-13. Olivadotti is one of 11 members of the Redskins' assistant coach honor roll, which recognizes coaches with at least 10 seasons of service as an assistant in Washington.

In 2015, Olivadotti successfully coached a unit that helped guide the Redskins to a 9-7 record and an NFC East championship despite featuring a rotating cast of players as the result of injuries. The Redskins began the year with Keenan Robinson and Perry Riley, Jr. patrolling the inside linebacker positions, with the duo recording an interception off of former Super Bowl MVPs Tom Brady and Eli Manning, respectively. Olivadotti groomed and developed former 2013 college free agent Will Compton into a reliable starter during the team's season-ending four-game winning streak and effectively integrated midseason acquisition Mason Foster into the spot opposite Compton.

In his first season back in Washington in 2014, Olivadotti's tutelage helped Robinson blossom in his first season as a starter. Despite missing three games, Robinson led the Redskins with 108 total tackles (according to STATS, LLC), including a 14-tackle performance in a win vs. Tennessee in which Robinson earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors.

At Georgia, Olivadotti coached a linebacker corps that produced NFL draft picks Jarvis Jones and Alec Ogletree. The Bulldogs averaged 10 wins a season in Olivadotti's three years, including ending the 2012 season with a 12-2 record and a No. 5 national ranking.

During Olivadotti's initial 11-season stint with the Redskins, Washington finished in the top 10 in the NFL in overall defense on eight occasions. The Redskins allowed an average of 313.1 yards per game in Olivadotti's 11 years on staff, fourth-fewest in the NFC and seventh-fewest in the NFL in that time frame.

In 2009, he tutored a pair of linebackers to their first Pro Bowl in London Fletcher, who earned his initial trip in his 12th season, and Brian Drakpo, who was one of four NFL rookies selected. Fletcher led the Redskins in tackles with 172 and added two sacks, one interception and 10 passes defended. He eclipsed the 100-tackle mark for the 11th consecutive season.

Drakpo became the first Redskins defensive rookie to make the Pro Bowl since the 1970 merger. He is only the second Redskins rookie to be chosen, joining kick returner Tony Green (1978). Orakpo finished with 60 tackles, including three for loss, 11 sacks for 76 yards lost, one forced fumble and two passes defended. He led all rookies in sacks and tied for most among NFC linebackers with Dallas' DeMarcus Ware. Orakpo's 11 sacks finished tied for seventh in the NFL and fourth in the NFC, and set the franchise rookie record, surpassing the previous mark of six by Dean Hamel (1985) and Andre Collins (1990).

In 2008, Olivadotti's linebackers played a pivotal role in Washington ranking fourth overall in yards allowed per game (288.8), sixth in points allowed per game (18.5) and eighth in rushing yards allowed per game (95.4 yards).

The previous year, in Olivadotti's first season as linebackers coach, Washington finished eighth in the NFL in overall defense (305.3 yards per game) and fourth in the league in rush defense (91.3 yards per game). The tandem of Fletcher (156 tackles) and Rocky McIntosh (105 tackles) finished as the team's top tacklers.

Throughout his NFL coaching career, Olivadotti has worked with some of the best defensive minds in the NFL, including Ray Rhodes, Marvin Lewis, Gregg Williams, Greg Blache and Jim Haslett. Olivadotti began his NFL coaching career with the Redskins in 2000 as a defensive quality control coach. He served in that role for four seasons and also helped coach the defensive backs.

He continued as quality control coach in 2004, but also took on a role assisting the Redskins' special teams units. In 2006, Olivadotti's role expanded to working with the Redskins' defensive line.

Olivadotti began his coaching career on the college level, working with wide receivers and tight ends at Maine Maritime for one season (1997). He moved to Indiana State as an assistant coach for two years (1998-99) before making the transition to Washington and the NFL.

Olivadotti was a four-year letter winner as a wide receiver at Purdue from 1993-96. He earned his bachelor's degree in education and his master's degree in education administration, both from Purdue. He is the son of Tom Olivadotti, a long-time defensive coach in the NFL with the Browns, Dolphins, Vikings, Giants and Texans. Kirk and his wife, Keely, have a daughter, Kasyn, and a son, Kruz.

2011-12	Asst. Offensive Line Coach	Dallas Cowboys
2013	Tight Ends Coach	Dallas Cowboys
2014-Pres.	Tight Ends Coach	Washington Redskins

Wes Phillips enters his third season as the Redskins' tight ends coach after initially being named to the position on January 17, 2014.

In 2015, Phillips presided over arguably the most prolific season by a tight end in Redskins history, as third-year pro Jordan Reed shattered team records for receptions (87) and receiving yards (952) by a tight end. Including a 24-yard touchdown reception in the NFC Wild Card Round vs. Green Bay, Reed tied a team record for combined regular season and postseason receiving touchdowns (12) in a single year.

Reed's breakout campaign was supplemented by a rotating cast of tight ends, as Phillips effectively integrated preseason trade acquisition Derek Carrier, midseason signings Anthony McCoy and Alex Smith, waiver addition Marcel Jensen, first-year player Je'Ron Hamm and eligible-tackle Tom Compton after the unit lost two presumptive contributors (Niles Paul and Logan Paulsen) to injury in the preseason.

In his first season in Washington in 2014, Phillips guided Paul to a breakout campaign, as the special teams stand-out shattered career highs in receptions (39) and receiving yards (507) after entering the season with 14 career catches and 228 career receiving yards to his credit in his first three years in the league. Phillips also oversaw the development of Reed, who finished third on the team with a then-career-high 50 receptions in his sophomore campaign.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Phillips spent seven seasons in various capacities with the Dallas Cowboys. He joined Dallas in 2007 as the club's quality control/offensive assistant coach before relinquishing his role as a quality control coach in 2011 to become the club's assistant offensive line coach in addition to continuing to assist special teams. In 2013, Phillips was named the tight ends coach, helping Jason Witten post the second-most touchdowns in a season in his career (eight).

In 2012, Phillips assisted with an offensive line that helped the Cowboys finish with 5,994 net yards, the third-most in a season in franchise history, and set a single-season club record with 4,729 passing yards despite having Phil Costa, the team's starting center, for only three games. In 2011, the unit integrated new starters at four of the five positions, helping Tony Romo post his third career 4,000-yard season while rookie running back DeMarco Murray established a single-game team rushing record with a 253-yard performance against St. Louis.

In Phillips' four seasons as Dallas' quality control/offensive assistant coach from 2007-10, the Cowboys' offense posted total yardage numbers ranking in the Top 10 in team history three times, including setting single-season club records in 2010 that included 6,390 yards of total offense – marking the first time a Cowboys team topped 6,000 yards in a season in team history – and 4,287 passing yards. The offense as a whole finished second in the league in total offense, averaging 399.4 yards per game.

Before landing in Dallas, Phillips coached quarterbacks at Baylor in 2006. His work with quarterback Shawn Bell paid dividends as Bell established school single-season records despite missing the final three games with a knee injury.

Prior to his one-year stint at Baylor, Phillips spent two seasons as the quarterbacks coach at West Texas A&M University. The Buffaloes celebrated their most successful season in almost 55 years in 2005, finishing 10-2 to post their first winning season since 1998 and the program's first 10-win season since 1950.

WTAMU won the Lone Star Conference with an 8-1 record, its first league title since 1986 and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA D-II Playoffs for the first time in school history. The school led the 2005 Division II ranks in passing offense, racking up 363.8 yards per game. He tutored quarterback Dalton Bell, a finalist for the Harlon Hill Trophy, which goes to the top Division II player.

Prior to joining the WTAMU staff, Phillips spent one season as a student assistant coach at his alma mater, UTEP, and played two seasons at quarterback for the San Diego Riptide of the af2.

A three-year letter winner at UTEP (1999-2001), Phillips was a member of the 2000 Miners team that shared the WAC title, posted the school's highest win total in more than a decade and played in the Humanitarian Bowl. Phillips left the collegiate ranks among the school's single-season leaders in both pass efficiency (ninth – 120.0 in 2001) and completion percentage (eighth – 55.6 in 2001).

Aubrey Pleasant is entering his fourth season with the Redskins in 2016. He served as an offensive assistant in his first season in Washington in 2013 before transitioning to the defensive side of the ball prior to the 2014 season and working extensively with the team's defensive backs.

In 2015, Pleasant played a pivotal role in assisting Defensive Backs Coach Perry Fewell with a secondary that was besieged by injuries throughout the season. Pleasant aided in the transition of Quinton Dunbar, who joined the Redskins as a college free agent wide receiver before switching to cornerback in the middle of training camp. Dunbar played in 11 games, making one start and intercepting Giants quarterback Eli Manning in a crucial Week 12 victory during the Redskins' NFC East championship season. Pleasant also assisted in the midseason transition of 12-year NFL veteran DeAngelo Hall from cornerback to safety and the rapid development of sixth-round pick Kyshoen Jarrett, a safety who also contributed significantly at nickel after volunteering for the role in camp.

Pleasant transitioned to the defensive side of the ball in 2014 after spending his first season with the Redskins as an offensive assistant. In 2014, he assisted Defensive Backs Coach Raheem Morris and played a significant role in the development of fourth-round pick Bashaud Breeland. With Pleasant's guidance, Breeland started 15 games – third-most by a rookie cornerback in Redskins history behind only Champ Bailey (16 in 1999) and Pro Football Hall of Famer Darrell Green (16 in 1983) – and tied for the NFL rookie lead in passes defended (14).

Pleasant was an offensive staff/head coach intern for the Cleveland Browns before joining the Redskins. Prior to his time in Cleveland, he spent two years with the University of Michigan as a defensive graduate assistant, helping the team appear in back-to-back bowl games. With Pleasant working specifically with the defensive backs in 2011, Michigan allowed 190.5 yards passing per game and 17.4 points per game, ranking No. 16 and sixth in the nation, respectively. Michigan's total defense improved to No. 17 in the nation (322.2 ypg.) after ranking No. 110 (450.8 ypg.) in the year prior to Pleasant's arrival. Michigan's defense allowed only 12 touchdown passes, led the Big Ten with 29 takeaways and tied for first in Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) with 20 fumble recoveries.

In 2012, Pleasant was promoted to Assistant Defensive Backs Coach, helping Michigan's total defense (320.0 ypg.) and passing yards allowed (169.5 ypg.) improve to No. 13 and No. 5 in the country, respectively. Following Michigan's 2012 season, Pleasant was one of 30 coaches nationwide invited to the NCAA Future Football Coaches Academy in San Antonio.

Pleasant coached defensive backs at Grand Blanc (Mich.) H.S. in 2010 and was a behavioral specialist/special needs teacher in the Flint (Mich.) Community School District. His duties included working directly with cognitively-impaired and academically-neglected adult students to help educate them within the Flint school district.

Pleasant was a three-year letterman at Wisconsin from 2005-08, appearing in 41 career games with 14 starts at safety. He finished his collegiate career with 80 tackles, 4.5 tackles for loss, two sacks, one forced fumble and appeared in four consecutive bowl games: Capital One (2005 and 2006), Outback (2007) and Champs Sports (2008). Pleasant received a master's degree in education while coaching at Michigan and earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from Wisconsin in 2009.

Pleasant is a native of Flint, Mich., where he graduated from the city's Montrose H.S., receiving Class B all-state honorable mention honor at safety his senior year. He attended Flint Northern H.S. and earned all-city running back honors as a sophomore.

STEELERS 38, REDSKINS 16

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins fell to the Pittsburgh Steelers, 38-16, in front of an announced crowd of 79,124 people at FedExField in Week 1.

The Redskins opened the season on Monday Night Football for the 11th time since the introduction of the broadcast package in 1970. It was also the team's third straight opener against an AFC opponent, marking the first time the team opened with AFC opponents in three straight seasons since the formation of conferences following the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.

Washington ran out to an early 6-0 lead on two field goals by kicker Dustin Hopkins in the first quarter. Facing a fourth-and-1 at the Washington 29-yard line early in the second quarter, Steelers Head Coach Mike Tomlin opted to go for it, as quarterback Ben Roethlisberger connected with Antonio Brown for a 29-yard score to take the lead.

The Steelers added two more passing touchdowns and a field goal before the Redskins responded with 10 points on a Hopkins field goal and a one-yard Chris Thompson touchdown run in the second half to cut the Steelers' lead to eight points. However, the Steelers put the game away with two fourth quarter drives culminating in rushing touchdowns by running back DeAngelo Williams.

The game marked the end of a couple of noteworthy streaks for quarterback Kirk Cousins. With a third quarter interception on his 21st pass attempt of the game, Cousins snapped a streak of 252 consecutive regular season pass attempts at FedExField without an interception, dating back to Week 1 of the 2015 season. The streak – which extends to 298 consecutive attempts when including postseason play – was the longest streak of consecutive home pass attempts without an interception in team history.

The game was also Cousins' first without a passing touchdown since assuming the starting role prior to the 2015 season. His streak of consecutive games with a touchdown pass ended at 17, including postseason play, which ranked as the second-longest in team history [23, Sonny Jurgensen].

COWBOYS 27, REDSKINS 23

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins fell to the Dallas Cowboys, 27-23, in front of an announced crowd of 80,612 people at FedExField in Week 2.

After facing an early 10-0 deficit, the Redskins rallied back to take a 17-13 lead on the first drive of the third quarter when quarterback Kirk Cousins connected with wide receiver Jamison Crowder for an 11-yard touchdown. This score was the first of four lead changes in the second half.

The Cowboys responded with a six-yard touchdown run by quarterback Dak Prescott to take a 20-17 lead, but kicker Dustin Hopkins responded with two field goals in the third quarter to give Washington a 23-20 lead entering the fourth quarter. However, the Cowboys retook the lead for good on an 11-play, 80-yard drive culminating in a touchdown by former Redskins running back Alfred Morris.

For the game, Cousins completed 28-of-46 passes for 364 yards with one touchdown and one interception. The 300-yard game was the 14th of Cousins' career, including postseason play, tying him with Joe Theismann (14) for second-most in team history. The game snapped Cousins' streak of nine consecutive regular season games with a completion percentage of 65.0 or better, dating back to 2015. The streak was tied for the second-longest in the NFL since 1960, trailing only Joe Montana (10 in 1989).

Running back Matt Jones recorded his first rushing touchdown of the season, the fourth of his career, on a 14-yard run in the second quarter. The rushing touchdown was his first since Week 5 of the 2015 season at Atlanta.

The contest was safety DeAngelo Hall's 100th career regular season game with the Redskins, joining Darrell Green (295), Brig Owens (158), Pat Fischer (126), Ken Houston (112), Mark Murphy (109), Reed Doughty (107), Fred Smoot (101) and Todd Bowles (100) as the only defensive backs to play 100 regular season games for the team.

GAME 3

REDSKINS 29, GIANTS 27

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. – The Washington Redskins earned their first victory of the 2016 season with a 29-27 win against the New York Giants in front of an announced crowd of 78,368 people at MetLife Stadium in Week 3.

The back-and-forth affair featured six lead changes, including five in the second half alone. The Giants stormed out to a 14-3 first quarter lead, but three Dustin Hopkins field goals and a 44-yard touchdown pass from Kirk Cousins to DeSean Jackson allowed the Redskins to cut the score to 21-16 at halftime. On his touchdown reception, Jackson surpassed 8,000 career receiving yards in regular season play, becoming the ninth active player to reach the mark.

The Redskins took their first lead of the game in the third quarter when wide receiver Jamison Crowder took a screen pass 55 yards for a touchdown on third-and-15. On the play, Pro Bowl left tackle Trent Williams – who spent the majority of the second half at left guard following a rash of injuries to the Redskins' offensive line – erased two Giants defenders with a single block. As the two teams traded field goals and exchanged the lead, the Redskins made a number of key momentum-shifting plays in the second half.

Punter Tress Way hit cornerback Quinton Dunbar for a 31-yard gain on a fake punt on fourth-and-12, leading to a Hopkins field goal. Early in the fourth quarter, Dunbar later came up with a highlight reel, one-handed interception in the red zone to deny the Giants points. In doing so, Dunbar became the first member of the Redskins to record a reception and an interception in the same game since cornerback Champ Bailey on Dec. 24, 2000, vs. Arizona.

Trailing by one in the fourth quarter, the Redskins engineered a 10-play, 56-yard scoring drive featuring eight runs and culminating in a 37-yard go-ahead field goal by Hopkins, his team-record-tying fifth of the day. On the Giants' final possession, Su'a Cravens picked off Eli Manning, securing the win for Washington.

REDSKINS 31, BROWNS 20

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins defeated the Cleveland Browns, 31-20, and earned their first home win of the season in front of an announced crowd of 76,249 people at FedExField in Week 4.

The Redskins shot out to an early 14-0 lead, capping each of the team's first two offensive possessions with touchdown passes to tight end Jordan Reed. The first touchdown pass of the game, an eight-yard pass from quarterback Kirk Cousins to Reed, came on Reed's 200th career reception. With the catch, Reed became the fastest tight end in NFL history to reach 200 career receptions, reaching the milestone in 38 career games and surpassing the mark set by Pro Football Hall of Famer Kellen Winslow, who did so in 39 career games.

The Browns responded in the second quarter, tying the game at 14-14 with a rushing touchdown by running back Isaiah Crowell and a passing touchdown from quarterback Cody Kessler to wide receiver Terrelle Pryor Sr. Kickers Dustin Hopkins and Cody Parkey traded field goals at the end of the second quarter, evening the score at 17-17 at the half.

The Redskins defense responded in the second half with three takeaways, the franchise's first three-takeaway second half since forcing four turnovers at Denver on Oct. 27, 2013. The Redskins trailed 20-17 entering the fourth quarter, but running back Chris Thompson scored on a five-yard reception and running Matt Jones capped a 117-yard rushing day with a one-yard touchdown plunge.

With the comeback, the Redskins recorded come-from-behind victories in the fourth quarter in consecutive games for the first time since Weeks 13-14 of the 2012 season.

With the victory, the Redskins improved to 3-2 on the season and earned their first regular season win in the city of Baltimore since defeating the Baltimore Colts, 14-13, at Memorial Stadium on Oct. 23, 1955.

The Ravens opened the game with a nine-play, 75-yard touchdown drive to take a 7-0 lead less than five minutes into the contest. However, the Redskins' defense would stiffen the rest of way, holding the Ravens to 10 points during the contest, the Redskins' fewest points allowed since Week 2 of the 2015 season.

Wide receiver Jamison Crowder scored his first career punt return for touchdown on an 85-yard return in the first quarter. The punt return for touchdown was the Redskins' first since Oct. 26, 2008, when Santana Moss returned a punt 80 yards for a touchdown at Detroit. Crowder's touchdown snapped a streak of 124 regular season games without a punt return for touchdown for the Redskins, which had been the longest active streak in the NFL. However, swirling winds resulted in a missed PAT, leaving the score at 7-6 in favor of the Ravens.

After a 21-yard touchdown pass from Kirk Cousins to Pierre Garçon gave the Redskins the lead early in the second half, the game swung in later in the third quarter when Ravens linebacker C.J. Mosley intercepted a pass by quarterback Kirk Cousins and raced toward the end zone, only to fumble the ball for a touchback at the goal line. The Redskins responded with an 11-play field goal drive to pushed their lead to six.

The Ravens mounted a final drive that appeared to end with receiver Breshad Perriman hauling in a 23-yard touchdown pass with 30 seconds remaining. However, an official review revealed that Perriman's second foot landed out of bounds, erasing the score and allowing the Redskins to force a game-winning turnover on downs three plays later.

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

REDSKINS 27, EAGLES 20

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins earned their fourth consecutive victory with a 27-20 win against the Philadelphia Eagles in front of an announced crowd of 78,934 people at FedExField in Week 6. With the victory, the Redskins improved to 4-2 through six games for the first time since 2008.

The Redskins dominated the Eagles in total yardage, 493-239. The Redskins took an early 14-0 lead on touchdown passes from Kirk Cousins to Jamison Crowder and Kirk Cousins. However, the Eagles tied the game at 14-14 without the benefit of an offensive play, scoring on an 86-yard kickoff return for touchdown by Wendell Smallwood and a 64-yard interception return for touchdown by Malcolm Jenkins.

The two Philadelphia scores led to an odd stretch in which the Redskins ran 39 consecutive plays from scrimmage across the second and third quarters without Philadelphia running an offensive play (excluding a kneel down to end the first half). According to the Elias Sports Bureau, it was the first such streak of 35-plus plays (excluding kneel downs) in the last 25 years. One hour and 16 minutes of real time elapsed between offensive snaps for Philadelphia.

The Redskins asserted their will offensively throughout the contest. Washington gained a season-high 493 yards, the team's most since accruing 510 yards vs. New Orleans in Week 10 of the 2015 season. The team tallied 230 rushing yards, its largest rushing total since Week 17 of the 2012 season vs. Dallas (274). Running back Matt Jones recorded a career-high 135 yards on 16 carries with one touchdown, sealing the victory with a career-long 57-yard run on the game's final drive.

Washington got to Eagles rookie quarterback Carson Wentz early and often, sacking him on the game's first offensive play as part of the team's five sacks on the day. In total, the Redskins held the Eagles to 239 yards, the fewest allowed by the Redskins since holding St. Louis to 213 yards in Week 2 of the 2015 season. The Redskins also held the Eagles to 94 rushing yards, snapping a streak of five consecutive games allowing 100-plus rushing yards this season.

With the win, the Redskins earned a fourth consecutive victory against the Eagles, their first four-game winning streak in the series since the 1985-87 seasons. They also secured their first three-game home winning streak vs. Philadelphia since the 1997-99 seasons.
