REGULAR SEASON - WEEK 14

WASHINGTON REDSKINS (5-7) AT LOS ANGELES CHARGERS (6-6)

Sunday, Dec. 10 | 4:05 p.m. ET
StubHub Center (30,000) | Carson, Calif.

REDSKINS HEAD WEST TO FACE CHARGERS IN WEEK 14

The Washington Redskins will travel across the country this week for their third West Coast game of the season when the team faces the Los Angeles Chargers in Week 14. Kickoff at the StubHub Center is scheduled for 4:05 p.m. ET.

The West Coast has been kind to the Redskins thus far in 2017. The Redskins are 2-0 in the Pacific Time Zone this year, including a 27-20 road win against the Los Angeles Rams in Week 2 and a 17-14 road win against the Seattle Seahawks in Week 9. Additionally, the Redskins won both home games this season against teams that call the Pacific Time Zone home, including a Week 3 win against the Oakland Raiders and a Week 6 win against the San Francisco 49ers, giving the Redskins a perfect 4-0 mark against teams from the nation's western-most time zone this year.

The Redskins are in the midst of their first and only two-game road swing of the 2017 regular season. After playing road contests in Weeks 13-14, the team will return to FedExField for its only two-game homestand of the season in Weeks 15-16.

ALUMNI CENTER

Formally organized in 1958, the Washington Redskins Alumni Association was the first organization of its kind in the country. The organization spearheaded the alumni movement among former professional football players and was the model for other alumni groups that later formed in all NFL cities. Now entering its 59th year, the Alumni Association continues to celebrate those who have contributed to more than eight decades of Redskins football dating back to the team's inception in 1932.

The primary objectives of the Redskins Alumni are promoting a continuing interest in current and past players of the Washington Redskins, as well as promoting and fostering interest and funding for charitable purposes. With respect to the latter, the alumni conduct fundraising events to raise money that can be donated to charitable organizations or used in other ways to help improve the quality of life for youth in the Greater Washington community.

Today, Redskins alumni continue to make their presence known throughout the community. As a very active chapter of the NFL Alumni Association, their motto is "Caring for Kids." In addition to the numerous events and appearances Redskins Alumni participate in throughout the year, they hold two major fundraising events of their own — the Redskins Alumni Charity Golf Classic, in its 39th year in 2017, and the annual Washington Redskins Welcome Home Luncheon, which marked its 56th year in 2017.

The alumni have an office at Inova Sports Performance Center at Redskins Park and can be reached at 703-726-7488. Since his arrival in Washington in December of 2009, President Bruce Allen has made it a priority to build a bridge to the franchise's historic past. Throughout the 2012 offseason, the Redskins traversed the Washington D.C./Maryland/Virginia area as part of the team's 'Thank You Tour,' which brought players, coaches, alumni, cheerleaders, team officials and more to fans throughout the entire region to help celebrate the team's historic heritage. The team will be celebrating its 85th anniversary in 2017, including the establishment of the "Hall of Fans" that will include a documentary film highlighting the loyalty and passion of Redskins fans over the years.

The Redskins and their alumni boast a storied tradition of both team and individual success. As of the start of the 2017 season, 116 different members of the burgundy and gold have accounted for 239 total Pro Bowl selections since the game's inception following the 1950 campaign. Those honored members were parts of Redskins teams that have helped the organization become one of only five NFL franchises to record 600 all-time victories, including postseason play. The organization has won five World Championships, including three Super Bowl titles in which Pro Football Hall of Famer Joe Gibbs became the only head coach in NFL history to win three Super Bowls with three different starting quarterbacks (Joe Theismann, Doug Williams and Mark Rypien. In total, the Redskins' legacy includes 19 members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame plus 11 others who spent time with the organization, as well as four AP NFL Coaches of the Year honors for three different coaches since the award began in 1957 (George Allen, 1971; Jack Pardee, 1979; Joe Gibbs, 1982-83).

On Wednesday, Aug. 30, the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation and Redskins Alumni Association once again honored the franchise's past and present, hosting the 56th annual Welcome Home Luncheon at the Hilton McLean in Tyson's Corner. The annual event celebrates the burgundy and gold and kicks off each football season with Redskins players, coaches and alumni.

The Redskins Welcome Home Luncheon is typically the only annual event where fans and corporate partners have the chance to spend time with the entire Redskins team. Each table is usually guaranteed at least one player or coach seated with the attendees. Proceeds from the event benefit the youth programs of the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation and Redskins Alumni Association.

This year, the Redskins used the event to honor their players for contributions both on and off the field. Quarterback Kirk Cousins earned 2016 Bobby Mitchell Offensive Player of the Year honors presented by MGM, linebacker Ryan Kerrigan earned 2016 Sam Huff Defensive Player of the Year honors presented by WashingtonFirst Bank and punt returner Jamison Crowder received 2016 Mark Moseley Special Teams Player of the Year Award presented by Five Guys. Other presented awards included the Redskins Salute Award presented to tight end Vernon Davis by The GCO Consulting Group for his efforts with the military.

Also among the Redskins Alumni Association's premier events is the team's annual Alumni Homecoming celebration, which the Redskins hosted against the Dallas Cowboys in Week 8. Not including staff and coaches, players in attendance during various parts of the weekend's festivities represented more than 560 combined seasons of Redskins playing experience, 102 combined Super Bowl appearances and 65 combined Super Bowl titles, including 30 members of the 80 Greatest Redskins, 20 members of the Redskins Ring of Fame and four members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

A year ago, the Redskins used their 2016 Alumni Homecoming weekend to honor former General Manager Bobby Beathard with induction in the Ring of Fame. The honor was announced by President Bruce Allen during training camp at the Bon Secours Washington Redskins Training Center in Richmond.

Beathard's illustrious career as an NFL executive included 11 seasons as General Manager of the Redskins from 1978-88. After taking the job on Feb. 24, 1978, Beathard guided the organization to three Super Bowl appearances, including victories in Super Bowls XVII and XXII. Many of the players he acquired remained on the roster for the team's Super Bowl XXVI victory as well.

In Beathard's 11 seasons as General Manager, the Redskins averaged 9.5 wins a year. The team posted a regular season winning percentage of .625 (105-63) in that time frame, best in the NFC and second-best in the NFL. No team in that time frame posted a better postseason winning percentage than the Redskins, who went 11-3 in postseason play in his tenure for a winning percentage of .786.

"This is a wonderful occasion for us, and a real honor to be brought back here by Bruce and Dan," Beathard said in August. "Of all the years I was in the NFL, this organization has been the most supportive and the most fun. I've never been with an organization who has done this much for the people in it at present and the people who were in it in the past."

HEAD COACH JAY GRUDEN

Jay Gruden enters his fourth season with the Washington Redskins in 2017 after being named the 29th head coach in franchise history on January 9, 2014.

Previously a decorated quarterback in the college and Arena Football League ranks and a successful NFL assistant, Gruden has showcased his offensive acumen honed from his diverse football background throughout his tenure with the Redskins.

In 2016, Gruden guided the Redskins to an 8-7-1 record, giving the franchise back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 1996-97. The team was led by Gruden's record-shattering offense, which posted team records in total net yards (6,545), net passing yards (4,758) and yards per play (6.40), ranking in the Top 3 in the NFL in all three categories.

Gruden's offense — once called “easily one of the three or four best designed offenses in the NFL” by Andy Benoit of The MMQB — was more than just historically efficient and explosive that season. The distribution of the offensive contributions allowed eight Redskins players (DeSean Jackson, Pierre Garçon, Jamison Crowder, Rob Kelley, Chris Thompson, Jordan Reed, Vernon Davis and Matt Jones) to finish the season with at least 500 yards from scrimmage, tying the 2011 New Orleans Saints for the most in a single season in NFL history.

A year earlier, Gruden led the Redskins to an NFC East Championship in 2015, posting a 9-7 record to complete the second “worst-to-first” turnaround in team history. Gruden became the sixth coach in team history to lead the Redskins to a playoff berth within the first two years at the helm, joining Ray Flaherty, Dutch Bergman, Dudley DeGroot, George Allen and Joe Gibbs.

Under Gruden's guidance, the 2015 Redskins featured what was at the time the most prolific passing attack in franchise history. Quarterback Kirk Cousins, named the starter in the middle of the preseason, set then-single-season team records for attempts (543), completions (379), passing yards (4,166) and 300-yard passing games (seven) while throwing 29 touchdown passes, including at least one in all 16 games. Cousins' success coincided with the emergence of tight end Jordan Reed, who finished the season with 87 receptions for 952 yards (both team records for a tight end) with 11 receiving touchdowns.

Gruden assumed control of the Redskins in 2014 and guided the team through a campaign in which three different quarterbacks (Robert Griffin III, Kirk Cousins and Colt McCoy) recorded victories as starters. He installed an offensive system that produced two Pro Bowlers in his first season (tackle Trent Williams and running back Alfred Morris).

Excluding interim coaches, Gruden, 46 at the time of his hiring, became the team's youngest head coaching hire since hiring eventual Pro Football Hall of Famer Joe Gibbs at 40 years of age in 1981. He became the first Redskins head coach hired directly from an offensive coordinator role on another team since Norv Turner in 1994.

Before joining the Redskins, Gruden spent his previous three seasons as offensive coordinator for the Cincinnati Bengals. In his tenure in Cincinnati, the Bengals averaged 10 wins a season, making three consecutive playoff appearances and earning an AFC North championship in 2013. Members of the Bengals' offense accounted for seven Pro Bowl selections in his three seasons in Cincinnati.

Gruden was tasked with the development of quarterback Andy Dalton, a 2011 second-round pick. In three seasons together, Gruden helped Dalton to a 30-18 regular season record as a starter (.625), as Dalton's 30 wins in that time frame ranked tied for fifth-most among NFL quarterbacks. Dalton's 80 passing touchdowns ranked third-most in NFL history for a quarterback in his first three seasons, trailing only Dan Marino (98) and Peyton Manning (85).

Prior to joining the Bengals, Gruden served two years with the Florida Tuskers of the United Football League from 2009-10. In 2009, Gruden served as offensive coordinator as the Tuskers compiled a 6-0 regular season record and earned a UFL championship game berth. In 2010, he assumed the roles of head coach and general manager and led the Tuskers to their second consecutive championship game appearance.

Gruden coached for seven seasons (2002-08) with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, earning a Super Bowl championship ring as an offensive assistant in 2002. There he worked under his brother, Jon (then the Bucs' head coach), and current Redskins President Bruce Allen (the Bucs' general manager from 2004-08). Gruden helped guide the Buccaneers to the team's first championship, a 48-21 victory in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Gruden also ranks among the most outstanding players and coaches in the history of the Arena Football League, having won six combined league championships — four as a quarterback and two as a head coach. Gruden played quarterback (2002-03) and served as head coach (2004-08) of the AFL's Orlando Predators while simultaneously working as an offensive assistant with the Buccaneers. In all, Gruden served as head coach of the Predators for nine seasons (1998-2001 and 2004-08), leading the Predators to four championship game appearances and two league titles as a coach. During a two-year hiatus from coaching the Predators in 2002-03, he returned to the playing field as Orlando's quarterback, leading the Predators to playoff appearances in both seasons.

In his eight seasons as a player in the AFL, Gruden completed 1,673-of-2,775 passes (60.3 percent) for 21,578 yards with 398 touchdowns and 99 interceptions. In addition to his time with Orlando, he spent six seasons (1991-96) at quarterback for the Tampa Bay Storm, winning four AFL titles and being named MVP of ArenaBowl VII in 1993. He was also named the 1992 AFL Most Valuable Player and was honored with induction into the AFL Hall of Fame in 1999.

Gruden played quarterback for four seasons for former Redskins draft pick Howard Schnellenberger at the University of Louisville (1985-88) and was a two-time team MVP.

Gruden was born March 4, 1967, in Tiffin, Ohio. He and his wife, Sherry, have three sons — J.J., Joey and Jack — and a grandson, Trey.

» The Redskins held the Cowboys to 93 net passing yards and have now allowed fewer than 100 net passing yards in back-to-back games for the first time since Weeks 5-6 of the 2004 season.

» Quarterback Kirk Cousins completed 26-of-37 passes for 251 yards with two touchdowns and two interceptions for a passer rating of 84.4.

» With two touchdown passes, Cousins pushed his passing touchdown total this season to 21, making him the first quarterback in Redskins history to record three consecutive 20-touchdown seasons.

» Cousins started his 44th consecutive regular season game for the Redskins, adding to the second-longest streak by a Redskins quarterback since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, trailing only Joe Theismann [60 from 1980-84].

» Wide receiver Ryan Grant recorded a career-high 76 receiving yards on a career-high-tying five receptions. His previous single-game career high in receiving yards was 61, set against Philadelphia in Week 1.

» Grant caught a 20-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter.

» The touchdown reception was Grant's fourth of the season, adding to his existing career high.

» Grant's four touchdown receptions are now tied with Chris Thompson for second-most by a member of the Redskins this season.

ANTHONY LYNN

On Jan. 13, 2017, the Los Angeles Chargers made their first official transaction, naming Anthony Lynn the 16th head coach in franchise history and the first African-American head coach in team annals.

The 48-year-old Lynn joined the Chargers after spending the last two seasons (2015-16) as the assistant head coach and running backs coach for the Buffalo Bills.

A native of Celina, Texas, Lynn was an All-Southwest Conference running back as a collegian at Texas Tech, where he rushed for 1,911 yards and 17 touchdowns on 481 carries.

That helped him earn a ticket to the NFL where he signed with the New York Giants as an undrafted free agent in 1992. After being released by the Giants, Lynn signed with Denver in 1993 and appeared in 13 games for the Broncos. In 1994, he suffered a broken leg and spent the year on injured reserve. Lynn moved on to the Bay Area in 1995, spending two seasons with the San Francisco 49ers (1995-96) before concluding his career in Denver (1997-99) where he won back-to-back Super Bowl championships (XXXII and XXXIII) with the Broncos.

Lynn jumped right into the coaching ranks in 2000, spending three seasons (2000-02) with the Broncos as an offensive assistant and assistant to special teams. In 2003, he landed his first full-time position gig as the running backs coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars (2003-04). That was followed by similar positions with the Dallas Cowboys (2005-06), Cleveland Browns (2007-08), New York Jets (2009-14) and Bills (2015-16). Lynn carried the additional title of assistant head coach in New York in 2014 and with the Bills for his two seasons there.

Lynn spent the last two seasons (2015-16) with the Bills, including the final 14 games of the 2016 season as their offensive coordinator and the final game of the year as their interim head coach. The Bills led the NFL in both of Lynn's seasons in both rushing yards (2,630 in 2016 and 2,432 in 2015) and rushing touchdowns (29 in 2016 and 19, tie in 2015). The Bills also led the League in average yards per carry (5.3 in 2016 and 4.8, tie in 2015) in each of his two seasons there. At his last two coaching stops (New York and Buffalo), his teams combined to rush for 18,218 yards during that span (2009-16), the most combined yards in the NFL over that time period.

The fact that Lynn is coaching today is a miracle in and of itself. Back in 2005, early in Lynn's first season with the Cowboys, he was hit by a drunk driver while crossing a street. The impact was so violent that it's a miracle he survived. The damage tally was extensive – two collapsed lungs, three broken ribs, major facial and shoulder damage that required four surgeries and temporary paralysis – yet despite it all, Lynn walked out of the hospital in less than two weeks.

Lynn was raised in Texas by a single mom, Betty Jackson, a former all-state basketball player who had coaching aspirations herself. Lynn's maternal grandfather, helped raise Anthony.

Lynn is married to Stacey Bell Lynn. He has two children, son, D'Anton, and daughter, Danielle.

SERIES HISTORY

Sunday's matchup between the Redskins and Chargers is the 11th all-time meeting between the two franchises dating back to their first meeting on Sept. 16, 1973. The Redskins maintain a 7-3 record against the Chargers all-time, with all 10 meetings coming in regular season play.

The Redskins opened the series with six consecutive wins, starting with a 38-0 drubbing by Head Coach George Allen's Redskins in 1973. The team would also earn wins against the Chargers in 1980, 1983, 1986, 1989 and 1998 before the Chargers finally got their first win in the series in 2001.

The Redskins won a tightly contested game in the teams' last meeting in 2013. After the Redskins held the Chargers to a field goal on a goal line stand inside the one-yard line in the final minute of regulation, the Redskins drove the ball 78 yards in 10 plays in overtime, ending the game with fullback Darrel Young's team-record-tying third rushing touchdown of the day (pictured below).

FROM SUPER BOWL MVP TO SENIOR VP

Doug Williams came full circle on June 13 when the Washington Redskins announced that Williams had been promoted to Senior Vice President of Player Personnel, another step in a journey that already includes some of the franchise's most iconic moments.

Williams is a veteran of 20 NFL seasons, including nine as a player and 11 in scouting/personnel roles. A member of the 80 Greatest Redskins and a Redskins Ring of Famer, Williams played with the Redskins from 1986-89 and led Washington to a Super Bowl XXII title, a 42-10 rout of the Denver Broncos. Williams, the first African-American quarterback to play in a Super Bowl, completed 18-of-29 passes for 340 yards with four touchdown passes to earn Super Bowl XXII MVP honors.

"Standing here today, I'm a real humble individual, and I'm going to say something my college coach used to always say to me. He 'had to be the luckiest man in the world,' and that's how I feel this morning to be in this position proudly," Williams said following the announcement. "I'm humbled this morning, but it's my job to lead the personnel department and we're going to do that with all the continuity that we have back there."

Williams, a first-round pick by Tampa Bay in the 1978 NFL Draft (No. 17 overall), led the Buccaneers to the first three playoff appearances in team history. In 1986, the Redskins traded for Williams' rights following two seasons with the USFL's Oklahoma Outlaws. In Williams' Super Bowl XXII MVP performance following the 1987 season, he set or tied several Super Bowl passing records, including most TD passes (four), most yards passing (340), longest pass completion (80 yards) and longest TD pass (80 yards).

Williams joined the Buccaneers' front office in 2004 following a successful tenure as head coach at his alma mater, Grambling State University, and one of the most storied playing careers in league and team history.

In six seasons during his first tenure (1998-2003) at Grambling State, Williams brought one of the most storied programs in college football history back to prominence, compiling a 52-18 record as head coach after succeeding the legendary Eddie Robinson, who was at the helm for 57 years from 1941-97 and re-wrote the record books as the winningest coach in the history of college football with 408 career wins.

Williams led the Tigers to three consecutive Southwestern Athletic Conference titles from 2000-02 as they were named National Black College Champions during the same three-year span. He was also named SWAC Coach of the Year in each of those three seasons. Williams was a two-time finalist for The Sports Network Eddie Robinson (Division I-AA) National Coach of the Year. He rejoined the program for three seasons from 2011-13, including earning the SWAC title in his first season back in 2011.

Williams started his college head coaching career at Morehouse College in 1997. He also has previous NFL experience as a scout for the Jacksonville Jaguars in 1995 and as offensive coordinator for the Scottish Claymores of the World League in 1995 and tutoring running backs for Navy in 1994. Williams also excelled on the high school level as head coach and athletic director at Point Coupee H.S. in New Roads, La., in 1991. In 1993, he was head coach at Northeast H.S. in his hometown of Zachary, La., where he guided the team to a 13-1 record and the state semifinals, including a win over Peyton Manning's Isidore Newman squad in the 1993 state quarterfinals.

As Grambling's quarterback from 1974-77, Williams had a spectacular college career, passing for more than 8,000 yards and 93 touchdowns, leading the Tigers to three National Black College National Championships and two SWAC titles. He posted a 35-5 record as a starter and finished fourth in voting for the 1977 Heisman Trophy.

In 2005, Williams and Shack Harris established The Shack Harris & Doug Williams Foundation with the function of providing grants for after-school initiatives, leadership development, mentoring programs and minority higher education assistance for economically disadvantaged youth. In 2010, the foundation established the Black College Football Hall of Fame, which will move to its new home in Canton, Ohio in 2018.

TOUCHDOWN STREAK

Since being held without a touchdown in a shutout loss to the St. Louis Rams on Dec. 7, 2014, the Redskins have embarked upon one of their most prolific touchdown streaks in team history.

The Redskins have scored a touchdown in 48 consecutive games, including postseason play, the fourth-longest streak in franchise history. It's the NFL's third-longest active streak.

OFFENSIVE THREE-AND-OUTS

After recording three-and-outs on 22.9 percent of offensive possessions in Head Coach Jay Gruden's first two seasons from 2014-15, the Redskins have been one of the NFL's best at avoiding those momentum-killing drives in the last few seasons.

This year, the Redskins have been held to three-and-outs on only 29 of their 139 offensive possessions. Their three-and-out percentage of 20.9 percent ranks 10th in the NFL.

DIVISION PARITY

Parity has been a topic de jour in the National Football League in recent years, and the league-wide trends provide the evidence. Each year since the 12-team playoff format was adopted in 1990, at least four teams have qualified for the playoffs after missing the postseason the year before.

No division has seen more turnover at the top in recent years than the NFC East, which is only division to have all four teams win at least one division title within the last six seasons.

12 YEARS, NO NFC EAST REPEATS

While there's little common ground among fans of the Redskins, Giants and Eagles, they'll all enter 2017 with the common goal of having their teams dethrone the 2016 division champion Cowboys. No division has been more hotly contested than the NFC East in recent years, as no team has been able to repeat as division champion in the last 12 seasons.

From Weeks 2-8, the Redskins scored points on their first possession of six consecutive games for the first time since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. The Redskins rank tied for third in the NFL in points scored on opening possessions.

Conversely, the Redskins' defense has surrendered only 14 points on teams' opening drives this season. In Week 10, the Redskins allowed a touchdown on Minnesota's opening drive, snapping a streak of seven straight games without allowing any opening-possession points, the team's longest since the final seven games of the 2007 season. Prior to the drive, Washington had not surrendered any opening-drive points to opponents since allowing an opening drive touchdown in Week 1.

Below is a breakdown of how opponents have fared against Washington on their opening possessions in 2017 by game. The Redskins rank tied for first in the NFL in number of scoring drives allowed on opponents' first possessions (two).

FLIGHT MARSHALS

In 2016, the Redskins made a major splash in their secondary, adding free agent Josh Norman to the group. A year later, the unit found additional leadership in both the coaching and player ranks.

In January, the Redskins named Torrian Gray as the team's Defensive Backs Coach after he spent the last 11 seasons producing NFL defensive backs at Virginia Tech (2006-15) and Florida (2016). Two months later, the Redskins signed safety D.J. Swearingen on the first day of unrestricted free agency. Swearingen's swagger and Gray's emphasis on technique have brought new life to a unit that has dubbed itself the "Flight Marshals."

"We control everything in the air, man," Swearingen told The Washington Post. "Like we say, man, we're going to get on this flight, it's going to be a long flight, we're going to keep everybody in their seat belts and we're going to keep the red light on. The wide receivers, you gotta stay in your seat belt."

The unit's signature celebration was on display against the 49ers in Week 6. After cornerback Kendall Fuller pulled in a game-sealing interception with three seconds remaining, Swearingen and his Flight Marshal teammates surrounded Fuller and mimed a security screening/frisking.

No matter the nickname, Swearingen's impact has been immediately felt by Redskins coaches and players. He was named the team's defensive captain prior to ever stepping foot on the field for the Redskins in a regular season game. It was proof that Swearingen's teammates believed he could back up his reputation for trash talk with a reputation for stellar play.

"It's one thing being a vocal guy, but you have to back it up with production and sound play and know what you are talking about. I've had guys before that are talkers that don't know what they are doing, but he brings both," Head Coach Jay Gruden said. "He brings an edge to him that rubs off on people. Not to say we didn't have that before, but it is just an added dimension with him being here. He also has a great knowledge of our system already and he can communicate that well with the other safeties, young safeties, the linebackers... and the corners."

While Swearingen and Norman — former high school teammates in Greenwood, S.C. — account for most of the spotlight and the volume among the group, the Redskins have already had a number of young players make important contributions in the secondary this season. Receiver-convert Quinton Dunbar was called upon to start in place of an injured Norman and registered a couple of critical passes defended in a win over San Francisco in Week 6. Rookie safety Montae Nicholson announced his presence in a big way in Week 3, intercepting Raiders quarterback Derek Carr on the game's first possession and later leveling and knocking wide receiver Michael Crabtree out of the game with a legal hit. Even Bashaud Breeland — now one of the veterans of the group in his fourth year — has rebounded from a difficult 2016 campaign to earn plaudits for his play early in 2017.

Collectively, the unit is attempting to help Washington finish in the top half of the NFL in opponent passer rating for the first time in a decade.

WEEK 3: RAIDER ROUT

Prior to their meeting with the Redskins on Sunday Night Football in Week 3, the Oakland Raiders had been one of the toasts of the NFL through two weeks. They entered the contest ranked first in the NFL in points per game, second in yards per play, third in third down percentage and fourth in yards per game. They entered the day as one of eight undefeated teams in the NFL.

The Redskins categorically and systematically dismantled the Raiders, earning a 27-10 victory in front of the nation's eyes. The Redskins outgained the Raiders, 472-128. Washington's 344-yard differential was its largest in regular season play since a 385-yard advantage against the Chicago Bears on Dec. 15, 1974, a span of 660 regular season games.

Included below are the Redskins' largest single-game yardage differentials in records available dating back to 1950:

The Redskins held the Raiders to 128 total yards. It was Washington's fifth game allowing 130 or fewer net yards since the 1970 merger and its first since 1992.

The Redskins threw for 356 net passing yards in the contest, 150 of which were caught by running back Chris Thompson. Thompson, whom Head Coach Jay Gruden calls the best third-down back in the NFL, surpassed the 140 receiving yards accrued by running back Dick James in a 1962 contest against the Pittsburgh Steelers.

WEEK 2: GROUND AND POUND

Following a season debut in which the Philadelphia Eagles limited the Redskins to 64 rushing yards on 17 carries, the Redskins' offense entered Week 2 with something prove about its running game.

One win and 229 rushing yards later, consider the Redskins' performance against the Los Angeles Rams a subtle statement. The team recorded its first 200-yard rushing effort since Week 16 of the 2016 season at Chicago, and the 229 yards were the second-most by the Redskins under Head Coach Jay Gruden, trailing only Week 6 of the 2016 season vs. Philadelphia (230).

The game was the Redskins' 21st 200-yard rushing game since 2000:

KIRK COUSINS

Kirk Cousins repeatedly said he knew he had to prove himself in 2016. But for Cousins, having to prove himself was nothing new.

Cousins entered 2016 following a record-setting 2015 campaign. In his first full season as a starter, he set single-season team marks for attempts (543), completions (379), passing yards (4,166) and 300-yard passing games (seven) in leading the Redskins to an NFC East title. Cousins threw a touchdown pass in all 16 regular season games in 2015, becoming the first player in team history to throw a touchdown in all 16 games in a season since the adoption of the 16-game schedule in 1978.

The year was temporary vindication for Cousins, who did not even earn the starting role until Head Coach Jay Gruden said "It's Kirk's team" on Aug. 31 that year.

"He's always in the meetings, he's on time, he's wanting to do extra work, he's studying the film, he's a gym rat, he's a film rat. That's just what you need to be a successful quarterback in this league," Gruden said in training camp in 2016. "The great quarterbacks are that way in their first year and in their 15th year, that's the way you have to be at the position, and he's got the mental makeup to be a great one."

The 2015 season was another opportunity for Cousins to prove himself in a football career defined by those moments. As a prep quarterback at Holland (Mich.) Christian H.S., he was lightly recruited, fielding a small handful of late scholarship offers, primarily from MAC programs. When Michigan State showed late interest, Cousins mentions that he took his official visit to East Lansing hoping to recruit the coaching staff rather than have the coaching staff recruit him.

That lightly regarded recruit would go on to earn Michigan State's starting role as a sophomore, beating out future NFL quarterback Nick Foles in the process. He became only the second player in Spartan history to be named team captain as a sophomore en route to becoming a three-year captain for the program. He set records in virtually every passing category in school history while appearing in 45 games, starting 39 of his last 40 contests.

Cousins once again had to prove himself upon transitioning to the NFL level. He was the second quarterback selected by the Redskins in the 2012 NFL Draft and entered the league having to compete with veteran Rex Grossman for backup duties. Cousins proved himself capable as a rookie that season in a couple of crucial situations, including leading a game-tying drive in an eventual overtime win against the eventual Super Bowl champion Baltimore Ravens in Week 14 and winning his first career start in Cleveland a week later to keep the team alive for its eventual AFC East title that season.

In six seasons with the Redskins, Cousins has appeared in 58 games with 53 starts, completing 1,300-of-1,969 passes for 15,402 yards with 93 passing touchdowns. He ranks in the Top 10 in team history in completions, passing touchdowns and passing yardage. Cousins has also accrued 24 career 300-yard games (including 23 in the regular season), the most in franchise history.

So while some observers wait for Cousins to prove himself again, the quarterback has already garnered respect around the NFL.

"I don't know what people are looking for. He threw for over 4,000 yards and over 25 touchdowns [in 2015]. The last six games of the season his quarterback rating was over 100," Pittsburgh Steelers Head Coach Mike Tomlin said prior to Week 1 in 2016. "He needs no endorsement from me."

The widespread discussions about his contract status haven't fazed Cousins, who has viewed his entire football career as a series of one-day opportunities.

"In this league it's one year at a time – whether you're on a long-term deal, one-year deal or two-year deal. I mean, I had a four-year deal as a rookie but it didn't feel like a four-year deal, it felt like a one-day deal every single day I was here," Cousins said. "So I don't think things have changed a whole lot in that regard. I have got to go out there and prove myself each and every game of every season. When you do that, I think the rest will take care of itself."

JORDAN REED

In recent seasons, Redskins players have often extolled the ability of tight end Jordan Reed to anyone who will listen.

"As I've said before and said every week, I don't know anybody who can guard that young man. When he's on, he's on, and it's tough to stop. He's the best receiving tight end in the NFL, hands down."

- Five-time Pro Bowl tackle Trent Williams on Jordan Reed in 2015, as told to Master Tesfatsion of The Washington Post

After a career year in 2015 and another strong campaign in 2016, the entire NFL has now taken notice.

Reed earned his first career Pro Bowl selection in 2016, the first by a Redskins tight end since Chris Cooley in 2008. Reed joined Cooley (2007-08), Stephen Alexander (2000), Jean Fugett (1977) and Jerry Smith (1967 and 1969) as the only Redskins tight ends to earn Pro Bowl honors since the game's inception in 1950.

Despite being limited by injury to only 12 games with eight starts in 2016, the ex-college-quarterback recorded 66 receptions for 686 yards with six receiving touchdowns. A year earlier, he compiled arguably the greatest season by a tight end in franchise history. During the 2015 regular season, Reed recorded 87 receptions for 952 yards (both team records for a tight end) with 11 receiving touchdowns, becoming the first tight end to lead the Redskins in all three categories since Fugett in 1977.

"He was a puppy when he came in here physically; now he's filling out and he's a bigger guy. He's playing with a ton of confidence," Head Coach Jay Gruden said in 2016. "We can move him around and do a lot of different things with him. He's a smart player. He can see coverages, he can work off leverage of the defenders, he's got big strong hands and he's excellent after the catch. Really, the sky is the limit for Jordan. I have all of the confidence in the world that when the ball is thrown to him, he's going to be in the right spot and make the catch. And he can beat a lot of people. He's getting better and better, more and more confident and he's blocking better, too. He's a heck of a player, no doubt."

In 52 career games with 27 starts for Washington, Reed has compiled 275 career receptions for 2,813 yards with 22 receiving touchdowns. In Week 4 of the 2016 season against Cleveland, Reed recorded his 200th career reception in his 38th career game, becoming the fastest tight end to reach 200 career receptions in NFL history, surpassing Pro Football Hall of Famer Kellen Winslow.

While various injuries limited Reed to 9, 11, 14 and 12 games in each of his first four NFL seasons, Reed's per-game productivity ranks among the league's best. Reed ranks first among all NFL tight ends in receptions per game since entering the league in 2013.

| 5. Jimmy Graham       | 336        | 71        | 4.7        |

Since his breakout campaign in 2015, Reed has ranked among the leaders at his position in receptions, touchdowns and first downs despite playing fewer games than anyone in the Top 10.

JAMISON CROWDER

Thirty-four wide receivers were drafted in the 2015 NFL Draft. Entering the 2017 season, 30 of them had appeared in NFL game action. Thirteen of those players were drafted ahead of the moment when the Washington Redskins selected Jamison Crowder with the No. 105 overall selection in the fourth round.

However, only two of Crowder's classmates (Oakland's Amari Cooper and Minnesota's Stefon Diggs) have recorded more career receptions than the Duke product, who has placed himself on the NFL radar with 177 receptions for 2,079 yards and 10 receiving touchdowns in his young career.

Crowder entered his rookie season in 2015 with expectations of assuming the team's role at punt returner, but Crowder rapidly exceeded those limits and earned the team's top slot receiver role and became another weapon for the Redskins on third down.

"We had a penciled-in punt returner job for him, but for him to win the starting inside slot receiver is a testament to him and how quickly he picked it up and his production," Head Coach Jay Gruden said. "When you draft guys, you have high hopes for them, but you never expect them to be this much of a factor this early, especially fourth-fifth rounders."

"He's one of those kids: You can put him in a phone booth and you probably wouldn't get a hand on him."

- Receivers Coach Ike Hilliard to The Washington Post's Liz Clarke

In Week 5 of his sophomore campaign in 2016, Crowder ended the Redskins' 124-game punt return touchdown drought with an 85-yard touchdown at Baltimore. His punt return for touchdown was the Redskins' first since Oct. 26, 2008, when Santana Moss returned a punt 80 yards for a touchdown at Detroit.

At 23 years and 114 days old, Crowder became the youngest member of the Redskins to return a punt for a touchdown since Brian Mitchell (23 years, 35 days) at Cincinnati on Sept. 22, 1991, according to records provided by Pro Football Reference.

Crowder finished the 2016 season with a 12.1-yard punt return average, the best by a member of the Redskins since 2001. His fourth-place ranking in the NFL in punt return average was the best by a member of the Redskins since Brian Mitchell's second-place finish in 1995. The dual threat was the only player in the NFL in 2016 to catch at least 65 passes and average at least 11.0 yards per return.

On offense, Crowder's 126 receptions from 2015-16 were the second-most by a member of the Redskins in the first two years of an NFL career.

CHRIS THOMPSON

Late in the 2017 preseason, Head Coach Jay Gruden was asked about running back Chris Thompson's value to the Washington offense.

"He's a very valuable commodity to our football team, both in pass protection and getting out on the routes," Gruden said. "I mean, the thought of him not being around scares the heck out of me."

Though an injury has sidelined Thompson for the final six games of the regular season, Gruden can worry no more as it pertains to Thompson's contract. The Redskins signed Thompson to a multi-year contract extension in Week 1 of the 2017 season, locking up the third-down back that Gruden considers the best in the NFL.

"When you're talking about third downs, that's the most important down in football. There's nobody better as a third-down back in my opinion than Chris."

- Head Coach Jay Gruden on RB Chris Thompson

Dubbed the "Chris Army Knife" by some fans for his ability to run, catch and block, Thompson's story has been one of perseverance. At Florida State, two broken vetebrae ended his 2011 season and a knee injury ended his 2012 campaign. Shoulder surgery cut his 2013 rookie season in Washington short, and he spent the majority of the 2014 season on the team's practice squad.

But Thompson's role has blossomed in recent years. Early in 2017, Thompson has picked up where he left off in 2016. He scored the Redskins' first offensive points of the season in Week 1, pinballing off Philadelphia defenders for a 29-yard receiving touchdown. He followed that performance up with a career day in Los Angeles, rushing three times and posting career highs in rushing yards (77) and rushing touchdowns (two, including a 61-yarder) against the Rams. His 25.7-yard rushing average in the contest was the best by a member of the Redskins with at least three carries in a game in records available dating back to 1960.

One week later, Thompson was the focal point of the Redskins' aerial assault in a 27-10 drubbing of the Oakland Raiders, gaining 150 yards on six receptions and contributing another 38 yards on eight rushing attempts. His 188 yards from scrimmage were the most by any member of the Redskins since Alfred Morris on Dec. 30, 2012 vs. Dallas (212, including 200 rushing and 12 receiving). In Week 6, he became only the second Redskins running back since 1960 to record multiple 100-yard games through the air in a single season (Dick James, 1962).

"It's great that you see the hard work pay off for somebody like Chris," Gruden said. "He's such a great kid off the field. You want to see him succeed in the worst way because he does everything exactly right the way you ask him. In practice, he takes all the reps, he works hard, never takes a play off. He's never been late one time to a meeting or a workout. He's a coach's dream, quite frankly."

Though the team often rations his touches, Thompson has become one of the most efficient running backs in the NFL with the ball in his hands. Thompson's 6.7 yards per touch rank second among active NFL running backs with at least 200 career offensive touches.

VERNON DAVIS

Washington, D.C. native Vernon Davis came home in free agency in 2016, and while the Redskins may not have known exactly what they were getting from the veteran addition, Davis delivered with 44 receptions for 583 yards with two touchdowns.

"I have been actually surprised at the impact he's had on this football team both on and off the field," Gruden said. "He's a great guy, he works hard, he's good in the running game, he pays attention in meetings. He's obviously got the speed and skillset that you need at the tight end position. So I think he's been just awesome as far as his contributions."

Davis now ranks in or near the Top 10 in NFL history in career receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns by a tight end.

RYAN KERRIGAN

With a wrestling-inspired sack celebration, linebacker Ryan Kerrigan has earned the moniker "The Showstopper" since joining the Redskins in 2011. But while it might not have the same cachet, calling the two-time Pro Bowler "Mr. Reliable" might be just as apt.

If patience is a virtue, the Redskins were virtuous in the first round of the 2011 NFL Draft, as the team opted to trade back from its No. 10 overall selection to the 16th overall pick. With the selection, the Redskins selected Kerrigan, the then-defensive end out of Purdue.

Kerrigan has started all 108 regular season games played by the Redskins since he entered the league in 2011, the longest active streak of consecutive starts by any NFL linebacker. In 2016, Kerrigan became the first member of the Redskins to start all 16 games in each of the first six seasons of an NFL career since the adoption of the 16-game schedule in 1978. In Week 4 of the 2017 season, Kerrigan became the first member of the Redskins since at least 1970 to open a career with 100 consecutive regular season starts.

The Muncie, Ind. native is only the fifth player in NFL history to open a career with at least 7.5 sacks in each of his first seven seasons, joining Jared Allen, Derrick Thomas, DeMarcus Ware and Reggie White. He also became only the fifth member of the Redskins to post multiple 10-sack seasons since 1982 (Dexter Manley, 4; Charles Mann, 4; Andre Carter, 2; Brian Orakpo, 2). He's also displayed aptitude with the ball in hands, as he has returned all three of his career interceptions for touchdowns, joining Julius Peppers and Pro Football Hall of Famer Jason Taylor as the only players in league history with 60+ sacks and three or more interception return touchdowns.

Kerrigan's productivity has provided a number of opportunities for him to showcase his co-opted celebration.

"Will Compton has been kind of getting in my ear for a while to do the Shawn Michaels from wrestling — the HBK," Kerrigan said in 2014 of the inspiration for his celebrations. "All he kept saying was, 'Hit the HBK, hit the HBK.' Finally, I did right by him and hit the HBK a couple times. On the second and third ones, when I didn't do it, he was giving me a bunch of hell on the sidelines, like, 'Why didn't you do it? You need to trademark it.' I'm like, 'Well, I can't trademark it, it's HBK.' But that's where it came from."

The gesture resonated with wrestling fans and Redskins fans alike. The celebration was promoted by WWE on Twitter, and Redskins fans immediately began referring to the celebration as the "Heartbreak Kerrigan," or #HBKerrigan in hashtag form.

The Purdue product ended his college career tied for the Football Bowl Subdivision record with 14 career forced fumbles, and his innate knack for knocking the ball loose has translated to the NFL. Kerrigan has been credited with 21 forced fumbles in his career, the most by a member of the Redskins since 1994 and among the most by any NFL player since 2011.

Kerrigan's impact on the Redskins has transcended football, as he was honored with the team's Walter Payton Man of the Year award in 2015. In addition to participating in numerous events through the Washington Redskins Charitable Foundation, Kerrigan welcomed 185 guests to the Grand Hyatt Washington in 2015 for his third Celebrity Waiter Night, raising more than $100,000 for his Blitz for the Better Foundation, which provides support to seriously ill, special needs and physically challenged children throughout the Greater Washington D.C. area.

In training camp in 2016, the question was posed to Head Coach Jay Gruden: Is there a better example for young players than Kerrigan?

"Not really, no," Gruden said. "He's very humble, number one. Keeps to himself and does exactly what's asked of him in practice. He practices hard; in fact, we have to pull him back a little bit because he practices so hard and we want to keep him healthy for the 16-week grind. He's a top-notch guy, on and off the field, character-wise. He's what you're looking for."

CORNERBACK CORNER

JOSH NORMAN

When the Carolina Panthers rescinded cornerback Josh Norman's franchise tag and allowed the All-Pro defender to enter unrestricted free agency on April 20, roles instantly became reversed. The then-28-year-old lockdown corner became the subject of teams trying to lock down his services.

The Redskins mobilized quickly, dispatching members of the Redskins' coaching staff on April 22 to pick up Norman and his family from his Carolina home and bring them to team headquarters. The group arrived back in Ashburn early that afternoon, and after the full press and a family vote, Norman was a member of the Washington Redskins by 9:30 p.m.

"It was an exciting 24 hours there and we're happy as heck to get him," Head Coach Jay Gruden said. "I think he's one of the premier corners in the National Football League."

Norman joined the Redskins having previously appeared in 53 regular season games with 38 starts for Carolina, recording 178 tackles (136 solo), 36 passes defended, seven interceptions (two returned for touchdowns), four forced fumbles and three fumbles recovered from 2012-15.

In 2015, Norman started all 16 regular season games and all three postseason games for the Panthers, recording career highs in interceptions (four), forced fumbles (three) and fumbles recovered (two) in addition to tying for the league lead in interceptions returned for touchdowns (two). His highly decorated 2015 campaign resulted in a myriad of honors, including All-Pro selections from both the Associated Press and Pro Football Writers Association in addition to sharing PFWA Co-Most Improved Player of the Year honors with new teammate Kirk Cousins.

Since that breakout campaign in 2015, few defensive backs have been as disruptive as the man known colloquially as "J-No."

| 7. Josh Norman | 43 |

Norman's accolades and productivity speak for themselves, but what kind of person were the Redskins getting? Gruden and the Redskins learned early in 2016.

"I've been very impressed with Josh from the day that he got here," Gruden said. "He works extremely hard. He's got a great energy every single time that he walks out onto the field, and he's the last one off the field. He's attentive at meetings - he's excellent. As far as his off-the-field 'antics' or on-the-field penalties that he's gotten, he's a physical football player. He's in your face and he's very competitive. You don't want to change that about him at all; that's what makes him, him. Obviously we might have to work on his hand placement in bump-and-run so he doesn't hit the receiver in the head, but his aggression, his competitive style, that's what drew us to him in the first place. We would never change that."

BASHAUD BREELAND

The Redskins believed they found a gem in the fourth round of the 2014 NFL Draft when they selected cornerback Bashaud Breeland out of Clemson. He rewarded their faith as a rookie in 2014, leading the team with two interceptions and starting 15 games — the third-most by a Redskins rookie cornerback in team history behind only Champ Bailey (16 in 1999) and Pro Football Hall of Famer Darrell Green (16 in 1983).

In 2015, the signing of Chris Culliver and the return of DeAngelo Hall from injury was supposed to allow Breeland to flourish in nickel role, but various injuries to the Redskins' secondary once again thrust him into a starting role. Breeland compiled 81 tackles (59 solo), a team- and career-high 16 passes defended, two interceptions, three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries in 15 games, including a Week 9 contest in which he was limited by injury.

In Week 5 of the 2015 season, Breeland posted four passes defended and his first interception of the season, playing a key role in helping limit Falcons receiver Julio Jones to only five receptions and no receiving touchdowns. A week later, Breeland turned in a career day, recording an interception, forced fumble and a career-high two fumble recoveries to become only the fifth NFL player since the turn of the century to record two fumble recoveries and an interception in a single game.

*Accomplished feat in first half

With picks in Weeks 5-6 that season, Breeland became the first member of the Redskins to record an interception in consecutive games since London Fletcher did so in three straight games across Weeks 14-16 of the 2012 season.

However, Breeland's biggest play of the 2015 season may not have even ended with the ball in his hands. In Week 7 against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, the Redskins had fought back from a 24-0 deficit to pull within three points. On a first down with slightly more than four minutes remaining, Tampa Bay running back Doug Martin broke free down the right sideline with a clear path to a game-clinching touchdown. Breeland — coming from the opposite side of the field — was able to push Martin out-of-bounds after 49 yards at the Washington 5-yard line for a touchdown-saving stop.

Breeland injured his hamstring with the monstrous effort, but the Redskins' defense responded by holding the Buccaneers to a field goal on the drive, allowing the Washington offense to drive down the field and score a touchdown to complete the largest comeback in franchise history.

After the game, Head Coach Jay Gruden noted the importance of Breeland's stop in the midst of the second-year cornerback's career-high 13-tackle day.

"At the end of the day, they score there, the game's over. That shows what kind of guy he is," Gruden said. "I talk about Breeland being an ultimate competitor. If he takes that one play off, or one instance and they go up by 10, the game's over, most likely. And he hustled, got them down at the five. We got a big stop, held a field goal, we go down and score."

JAY GRUDEN

HEAD COACH

14TH NFL SEASON // 4TH WITH REDSKINS

Jay Gruden enters his fourth season with the Washington Redskins in 2017 after being named the 29th head coach in franchise history on January 9, 2014.

Previously a decorated quarterback in the college and Arena Football League ranks and a successful NFL assistant, Gruden has showcased his offensive acumen honed from his diverse football background throughout his tenure with the Redskins.

In 2016, Gruden guided the Redskins to an 8-7-1 record, giving the franchise back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 1996-97. The team was led by Gruden's record-shattering offense, which posted team records in total net yards [6,545], net passing yards [4,758] and yards per play [6.40], ranking in the Top 3 in the NFL in all three categories.

Gruden's offense — once called "easily one of the three or four best designed offenses in the NFL" by Andy Benoit of The MMQB — was more than just historically efficient and explosive that season. The distribution of the offensive contributions allowed eight Redskins players (DeSean Jackson, Pierre Garçon, Jamison Crowder, Rob Kelley, Chris Thompson, Jordan Reed, Vernon Davis and Matt Jones) to finish the season with at least 500 yards from scrimmage, tying the 2011 New Orleans Saints for the most in a single season in NFL history.

A year earlier, Gruden led the Redskins to an NFC East Championship in 2015, posting a 9-7 record to complete the second "worst-to-first" turnaround in team history. Gruden became the sixth coach in team history to lead the Redskins to a playoff berth within the first two years at the helm, joining Ray Flaherty, Dutch Bergman, Dudley DeGroot, George Allen and Joe Gibbs.

Under Gruden's guidance, the 2015 Redskins featured what was at the time the most prolific passing attack in franchise history. Quarterback Kirk Cousins, named the starter in the middle of the preseason, set then-single-season team records for attempts [543], completions [379], passing yards [4,166] and 300-yard passing games (seven) while throwing 29 touchdown passes, including at least one in all 16 games. Cousins' success coincided with the emergence of tight end Jordan Reed, who finished the season with 87 receptions for 952 yards [both team records for a tight end] with 11 receiving touchdowns.

Gruden assumed control of the Redskins in 2014 and guided the team through a campaign in which three different quarterbacks (Robert Griffin III, Kirk Cousins and Colt McCoy) recorded victories as starters. He installed an offensive system that produced two Pro Bowlers in his first season (tackle Trent Williams and running back Alfred Morris).

Excluding interim coaches, Gruden, 46 at the time of his hiring, became the team's youngest head coaching hire since hiring eventual Pro Football Hall of Famer Joe Gibbs at 40 years of age in 1981. He became the first Redskins head coach hired directly from an offensive coordinator role on another team since Norv Turner in 1994.

Before joining the Redskins, Gruden spent his previous three seasons as offensive coordinator for the Cincinnati Bengals. In his tenure in Cincinnati, the Bengals averaged 10 wins a season, making three consecutive playoff appearances and earning an AFC North championship in 2013. Members of the Bengals' offense accounted for seven Pro Bowl selections in his three seasons in Cincinnati.

Gruden was tasked with the development of quarterback Andy Dalton, a 2011 second-round pick. In three seasons together, Gruden helped Dalton to a 30-18 regular season record as a starter (.625), as Dalton's 30 wins in that time frame ranked tied for fifth-most among NFL quarterbacks. Dalton's 80 passing touchdowns ranked third-most in NFL history for a quarterback in his first three seasons, trailing only Dan Marino [98] and Peyton Manning [85].

Prior to joining the Bengals, Gruden served two years with the Florida Tuskers of the United Football League from 2009-10. In 2009, Gruden served as offensive coordinator as the Tuskers compiled a 6-0 regular season record and earned a UFL championship game berth. In 2010, he assumed the roles of head coach and general manager and led the Tuskers to their second consecutive championship game appearance.

Gruden coached for seven seasons (2002-08) with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, earning a Super Bowl championship ring as an offensive assistant in 2002. There he worked under his brother, Jon (then the Bucs' head coach), and current Redskins President Bruce Allen (the Bucs' general manager from 2004-08). Gruden helped guide the Buccaneers to the team's first championship, a 48-21 victory in Super Bowl XXX-VII.

Gruden also ranks among the most outstanding players and coaches in the history of the Arena Football League, having won six combined league championships — four as a quarterback and two as a head coach. Gruden played quarterback (2002-03) and served as head coach (2004-08) of the AFL's Orlando Predators while simultaneously working as an offensive assistant with the Buccaneers. In all, Gruden served as head coach of the Predators for nine seasons (1998-2001 and 2004-08), leading the Predators to four championship game appearances and two league titles as a coach. During a two-year hiatus from coaching the Predators in 2002-03, he returned to the playing field as Orlando's quarterback, leading the Predators to playoff appearances in both seasons.

In his eight seasons as a player in the AFL, Gruden completed 1,673-of-2,775 passes (60.3 percent) for 21,578 yards with 398 touchdowns and 99 interceptions. In addition to his time with Orlando, he spent six seasons (1991-96) at quarterback for the Tampa Bay Storm, winning four AFL titles and being named MVP of ArenaBowl VII in 1993. He was also named the 1992 AFL Most Valuable Player and was honored with induction into the AFL Hall of Fame in 1999.

Gruden played quarterback for four seasons for former Redskins draft pick Howard Schnellenberger at the University of Louisville (1985-88) and was a two-time team MVP.

Gruden was born March 4, 1967, in Tiffin, Ohio. He and his wife, Sherry, have three sons — J.J., Joey and Jack — and a grandson, Trey.

Bill Callahan enters his third season with the Redskins in 2017 after initially joining the organization as the team's offensive line coach on January 15, 2015.

Callahan is entering his 19th NFL season in 2017 as part of a career that includes head coaching stints at both the pro and collegiate levels as well as the 2002 AFC Championship with the Oakland Raiders. Entering 2017, Callahan has been a member of an offensive staff that finished in the Top 5 in the NFL in rushing or passing 11 times, including a No. 1 overall finish in rushing twice (2000, 2009) and passing once (2002). Callahan has had 12 offensive linemen combine for 25 Pro Bowl selections during his career.

In the team's first two seasons under Callahan from 2015-16, the Redskins allowed 50 total sacks after allowing 58 sacks in the 2014 season alone.

Callahan's unit helped guide the Redskins to a record-setting offensive campaign in 2016. Powered in part by Callahan's offensive line, the Redskins set single-season team records in yards per game (403.4), yards per play (6.40), net passing yards (4,758), completions (407), passing first downs (226) and 500-yard games (three). The blocking and protection afforded by the unit allowed eight different Redskins players to finish the season with at least 500 yards from scrimmage, tying the 2011 New Orleans Saints for the most in a single season in NFL history.

The Redskins allowed 23 sacks in 2016, fourth-fewest in the NFL and tied for the seventh-fewest in team history since the league adopted sacks as an official statistic in 1982. The 2016 season also resulted in the fifth consecutive Pro Bowl selection for tackle Trent Williams and the first career Pro Bowl nod for guard Brandon Scherff. The dual selections marked the first time the Redskins had multiple offensive linemen selected to the Pro Bowl in the same season since 1991 (tackle Jim Lachey and guard Mark Schlereth).

In his first year in Washington in 2015, Callahan was frequently credited for the largest year-over-year decline in sacks allowed in team history. A year after allowing 58 sacks in 2014, the Redskins held opponents to 27 sacks in Callahan's debut campaign in 2015. The 31-sack turnaround was the largest in team history since the NFL began recognizing sacks as an official statistic in 1982, surpassing the 30-sack decrease between the 1998-99 seasons. The performance of the line as a unit helped garner Pro Bowl honors for Williams and PFWA All-Rookie honors for Scherff.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Callahan served as offensive coordinator/offensive line coach for the Dallas Cowboys from 2012-14 and helped guide the franchise to its first NFC East title since 2009 in his final season. In 2014, the Cowboys finished second in the NFL in rushing (147.1) with running back DeMarco Murray leading the league in rushing and setting a Dallas franchise record with 1,845 yards. Callahan had two offensive linemen named to The Associated Press' 2014 All-Pro team (tackle Tyron Smith and guard Zack Martin) and had another (center Travis Frederick) selected with Smith and Martin to the Pro Bowl.

Callahan served as assistant head coach/offensive line coach of the New York Jets from 2008-11. During his four-year tenure with the Jets, the offense ranked second in the NFL in rushing yards per game (137.9) across those four seasons and appeared in two consecutive AFC Championship games (2009-10). In his four seasons, Callahan coached three offensive linemen to nine Pro Bowl appearances (Nick Mangold, 4; D'Brickashaw Ferguson, 3; and Alan Faneca, 2) and helped Mangold earn AP All-Pro honors in the 2009-10 seasons.

Prior to his time in New York, Callahan served as head coach at the University of Nebraska from 2004-07, leading the Cornhuskers to a Big 12 Conference Championship Game appearance in 2006 and two bowl invitations in his four seasons.

Callahan spent six seasons with the Oakland Raiders from 1998-2003, serving as offensive coordinator for four years before becoming the 13th head coach in Raiders history from 2001-02. In 2002, Oakland's offense set a team record for total offense with an NFL-best 6,237 yards and led the NFL in passing yards (4,689) en route to an appearance in Super Bowl XXXVII. He became the fourth rookie head coach in NFL history to earn a Super Bowl berth.

Before joining the Raiders, Callahan coached the offensive line for the Philadelphia Eagles from 1995-97. His unit helped the Eagles rank second in the NFC in passing, fifth in rushing and third in total offense in 1997. Prior to joining the Eagles, Callahan accrued 15 seasons of coaching experience in various capacities at Illinois (1980-86), Northern Arizona (1987-88), Southern Illinois (1989) and Wisconsin (1990-94).

Callahan started at quarterback for three seasons (1975-77) at Illinois Benedictine (Iisle, Ill.) where he earned honorable-mention All-America honors in 1976 and 1977 and graduated with a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1978. In 2004, he was inducted into the Benedictine University Athletics Hall of Fame.

Callahan was born in Chicago, where he attended Mendel Catholic H.S. He and his wife, Valerie, have four children: daughters Cathryn and Jaclyn, and sons Brian and Daniel. His son, Brian, now serves as the quarterbacks coach for the Detroit Lions.

Matt Cavanaugh enters his third season with the Redskins and his first as the team's offensive coordinator in 2017 after initially joining the organization as quarterbacks coach on January 28, 2015.

Cavanaugh boasts 24 seasons of previous coaching experience across the professional and collegiate levels. His NFL background also includes 14 combined seasons as a quarterback for the New England Patriots, San Francisco 49ers, Philadelphia Eagles and New York Giants from 1978-91.

Cavanaugh's tutelage of quarterback Kirk Cousins was critical to a record-setting season for both the team as a whole and for Cousins in 2016. Quarterback play was a key element in the Redskins setting single-season team records in yards per game (403.4), yards per play (6.40), net passing yards (4,758), completions (407), passing first downs (226) and 500-yard games (three). Meanwhile, Cousins finished the year with single-season team records in attempts (606), completions (406) and passing yards (4,917) and matched his team record for 300-yard passing games (seven). Cousins' 4,917 passing yards ranked third in the NFL in 2016 and were the 15th-most in a season in NFL history.

Cavanaugh made an immediate impact in his first season in Washington in 2015, helping guide Cousins to single-season team records in attempts (543), completions (379), passing yards (4,166) and 300-yard passing games (seven) despite not being named the starter until midway through the preseason. Cavanaugh's coaching helped Cousins post an interception percentage of 2.0, the second-lowest by a Redskins quarterback with at least 400 attempts in a season all-time. After the season, quarterback Colt McCoy called Cavanaugh the team's "MVP" for his work with Cousins in 2015.

Under Cavanaugh's guidance, Cousins posted the first back-to-back 4,000-yard seasons in team history and became the second quarterback in NFL history to record 4,000 passing yards and four rushing touchdowns in consecutive seasons (Aaron Rodgers, 2008-09).

Prior to joining the Redskins, Cavanaugh served as quarterbacks coach of the Chicago Bears from 2013-14. In 2013, under Cavanaugh's tutelage, the Bears' quarterbacks re-wrote the franchise single-season record books setting team records in passer rating (96.9), passing yards (4,450), passing touchdowns (32) and completion percentage (64.4). It was his second stint in Chicago after having served as the team's offensive coordinator from 1997-98.

Cavanaugh spent four seasons working with quarterbacks for the New York Jets from 2009-12. During those four seasons, the Jets made two AFC Championship game appearances.

Cavanaugh joined the Jets after four seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at his alma mater, the University of Pittsburgh, from 2005-08. It was his second stint at Pitt after making his coaching debut in 1993 working with the Panthers' tight ends. As offensive coordinator, Cavanaugh helped tutor future NFL running backs LeSean McCoy and LaRod Stephens-Howling.

Cavanaugh served as the Baltimore Ravens' offensive coordinator from 1999-2004, a tenure that included the franchise's 34-7 Super Bowl XXXV victory in 2000. During that season, the Ravens ground game churned out a franchise-record 2,199 yards, fifth most in the NFL.

Prior to his first tenure in Chicago from 1997-98, Cavanaugh served as quarterbacks coach for the San Francisco 49ers in 1996, helping Steve Young lead the NFL in passer rating (97.2) and completion percentage (67.7). He got his first taste of NFL coaching in 1994, working as the quarterbacks coach of the Arizona Cardinals, a position he held for two years.

Cavanaugh won two Super Bowl titles as a backup quarterback with the New York Giants (Super Bowl XXV) and the 49ers (Super Bowl XIX). He was a second-round selection (50th overall) of the Patriots in 1978 NFL Draft, spending five seasons with New England (1978-82) before stints with the 49ers (1983-85), Eagles (1986-89) and Giants (1990-91). He appeared in 112 career contests with 19 starts, completing 305-of-579 passes for 4,332 yards and 28 touchdowns.

As a collegiate quarterback, Cavanaugh guided Pitt to the 1976 National Championship and was named the Sugar Bowl MVP after a 27-3 victory over Georgia. He earned All-America honors as a senior in 1977. Cavanaugh earned his bachelor's degree from Pitt in administration of justice.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, Cavanaugh attended Chaney H.S. He is married to his wife, Maria, and has three children: Amy, Andrew and Mollie.

| 2014-Pres. | Special Teams Coordinator | Washington Redskins   |

Ben Kotwica enters his fourth season as the Redskins' special teams coordinator in 2017 after originally being named to the position on January 15, 2014.

Kotwica, now entering his 11th NFL season, spent the first seven years of his NFL career in various coaching capacities with the New York Jets. Before assuming the role of coordinator for the Jets in 2013, Kotwica assisted with the Jets' special teams in multiple roles across the 2007-12 seasons.

Kotwica oversaw a historic campaign in 2016, as kicker Dustin Hopkins converted 34-of-42 on field goal attempts, breaking the team record of 33 field goals set by Mark Moseley during the 1983 season. Hopkins tied a single-game team record and was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week with a 5-for-5 effort in a Week 3 win against the

New York Giants.

Two weeks later, Kotwica's unit produced another NFC Special Teams Player of the Week at Baltimore, as returner Jamison Crowder scored on an 85-yard punt return for a touchdown, the Redskins' first since Oct. 26, 2008, a 124-game drought. The dual honors marked the first time two different members of the Redskins earned NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors in the same season since returner Santana Moss and punter Ryan Plackemeier each earned awards in Weeks 8 and 16 of the 2008 season, respectively.

In 2015, Kotwica deftly commanded a unit that used 60 different players in a special teams capacity during the Redskins' 9-7 division-winning campaign. The Redskins allowed only 20.1 yards per kickoff return, the fourth-best average in the NFL. It marked the Redskins' first Top 5 finish in the category since 2011 when the team was in the midst of a stretch of six straight Top 5 seasons from 2006-11. Kotwica's game planning also helped the Redskins recover their first onside kick since 2007, as the Redskins successfully executed a surprise onside kick in the team's record-setting 24-point comeback win against Tampa Bay.

Kotwica's 2015 unit was directly responsible for three touchdowns, including a team-record-tying two kickoff return touchdowns and a blocked punt recovery for a touchdown. Kotwica and the Redskins also signed kicker Dustin Hopkins in Week 2, and the first-year kicker converted 25-of-28 field goal attempts and posted the third-best field goal percentage in team history (89.3), trailing only Mark Moseley (95.2 in 1982) and Kai Forbath (94.4 in 2012).

In his first season in Washington in 2014, Kotwica's tutelage and eye for talent helped first-year punter Tress Way (47.5 yards per punt) become the first member of the Redskins to lead the NFL in punting for a season since Sam Baker in 1958. Way's average ranked fourth in team history, a feat he accomplished in a season in which he was given 10 days to earn the punting job after being claimed off waivers late in the preseason. Kotwica also helped kicker Kai Forbath successfully convert 24-of-27 field goals (88.9 percent) in 2014.

Prior to Kotwica's arrival in Washington, the Jets accounted for 10 combined kick and punt return touchdowns during his time as an assistant in New York, tied for most in the AFC and tied for second-most in the NFL. The Jets averaged a league-best 24.6 yards per kick return in those six seasons and had a kick returner finish in the Top 5 in the NFL in kick return average four times (Joe McKnight, 2011 and 2012; Brad Smith, 2010; and Leon Washington, 2007). Kotwica helped Leon Washington earn his first career Pro Bowl berth as a kick returner following the 2008 season.

In addition to his football career, Kotwica's background includes his time as a decorated officer who spent eight years in the United States Army after graduating from the United States Military Academy at West Point. His military career included operations in Bosnia-Herzegovina, Korea and Iraq.

Kotwica was commissioned as a 2nd Lieutenant in the Aviation Branch of the Army and was selected to fly the AH-64 Apache Longbow, the world's best attack helicopter. He was an Attack Helicopter Platoon Leader in support of the 82nd Airborne Division from 1998-2001, where he was responsible for the health and welfare of 20 soldiers.

In 2000, Kotwica deployed to Bosnia-Herzegovina for eight months before returning to the states to attend the Aviation Captain Career course. He completed the course in the top 10 percent of his class. Two years later, he returned overseas to Camp Page, Korea where he served as a Military Intelligence Officer for six months. In early 2003, he was selected to serve as the Battalion Executive Officer for a unit comprised of more than 300 soldiers, 24 attack helicopters and more than $400 million worth of equipment.

In January 2004, he briefly returned to Fort Hood, Texas, to serve as the Training Officer for the 1st Cavalry Division. Two months later, he deployed in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom II, serving as a Combat Attack Helicopter Commander and flying more than 1,000 combat hours in support of five maneuver brigades within the 1st Cavalry Division. His missions included convoy security operations; VIP escorts for former President George W. Bush, former Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld and former Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice; and search and destroy missions to suppress insurgent activities.

During his service, Kotwica was awarded with the Army Achievement Medal, the Army Commendation Medal, the Meritorious Service Medal and the Bronze Star.

Kotwica played at Army from 1993-96 and was a three-year starter at linebacker. He was the captain of the only 10-win team in Army history, leading the Black Knights to a 10-2 record and the program's most recent Commander-in-Chief's Trophy in 1996.

Kotwica and his wife, Christina, have four children: daughters, Analyssa and Arianna, and sons, Christian and Brayden.

Greg Manusky is entering his sixth combined season as a player or coach with the Redskins in 2017 after returning to the organization as the team's outside linebackers coach on January 22, 2016. He was named the team's defensive coordinator on January 23, 2017.

Manusky returned to the Redskins in 2016 with 27 previous combined seasons of NFL experience, including 15 as a coach and 12 as a player. He entered the coaching ranks full-time with the Redskins in 2001 as the team's linebackers coach. During his 16 seasons as an NFL coach entering 2017, 12 different players have earned a total of 18 Pro Bowl selections under his tutelage.

In 2016, Manusky helped guide linebacker Ryan Kerrigan to his second career Pro Bowl selection. Kerrigan posted 11.0 sacks, becoming only the fifth player in team history to record multiple 10-sack seasons. Manusky's contributions were also key to linebacker Trent Murphy's breakout campaign in 2016, a year in which the third-year pro recorded 9.0 sacks after totaling 6.0 across his first two NFL seasons in 2014-15. Manusky's duo became the first pair to record at least nine sacks each in a single season for the Redskins since Andre Carter and Brian Orakpo in 2009.

Prior to his second coaching stint in Washington, Manusky served nine seasons as the defensive coordinator of the Indianapolis Colts (2012-15), San Diego Chargers (2011) and San Francisco 49ers (2007-10). The Colts won at least eight games in all four of Manusky's seasons in Indianapolis, earning three postseason berths including an AFC Championship appearance in 2014. The Colts recorded 10 interception returns for touchdowns during Manuskay's four-year tenure, tied for second-most in the AFC and tied for fifth-most in the NFL in that time frame.

In 2014, Manuskay guided a defense that helped record the team's third straight 11-5 regular season record and second consecutive AFC South Division Championship. From Weeks 4 through 7, the Colts only allowed one third down conversion in four straight games, marking the longest such streak by an NFL team since 1970. Safety Mike Adams, cornerback Vontae Davis and inside linebacker D'Qwell Jackson comprised the three defensive players to earn their first career Pro Bowl selection during the year.

Manuskay spent the 2011 campaign as the defensive coordinator of the San Diego Chargers. Under his direction, the defense allowed an average of 224.4 net passing yards per game, and safety Eric Weddle tied for the NFL lead with seven interceptions and earned a trip to the 2012 Pro Bowl. Prior to joining the Chargers, Manuskay spent four seasons (2007-10) as defensive coordinator of the San Francisco 49ers. His 2009 unit did not allow a touchdown in five separate games while forcing an NFL-best 21 fumbles, allowing just 3.6 yards per rush and recording 44.0 sacks.

Manuskay's first tenure with the Chargers lasted four seasons (2002-06), during which time he served as the linebackers coach. In the 2006 campaign, San Diego linebackers accounted for 42.5 of the team's 61.0 regular season sacks. That season, linebacker Shawne Merriman tied the Chargers' franchise record with 17.0 sacks, becoming the first Charger to lead the league in sacks.

Manuskay started his coaching career in 2000, working as a volunteer linebackers and special teams coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers during training camp. He then joined the Redskins staff in 2001 as the team's linebackers coach, helping guide LaVar Arrington to his first career Pro Bowl selection.

Throughout his career, Manuskay has coached an impressive list of Pro Bowl players, including D'Qwell Jackson, Vontae Davis, Mike Adams and Robert Mathis with the Colts; Eric Weddle, Shawne Merriman, Junior Seau and Donnie Edwards with the Chargers; Justin Smith and Patrick Willis with the 49ers and LaVar Arrington with the Redskins.

Manuskay was a linebacker and special teams standout during his 12-year NFL playing career in Washington, Minnesota and Kansas City, recording a stretch in which he participated in 113 consecutive games. Manuskay earned All-Madden Team honors in 1991 and retired from the NFL in 2000.

A native of Wyoming, Pa., Manuskay attended Dallas [Pa.] H.S. before moving on to Colgate University, where he was a four-year letterman and an All-Colonial League selection. As a senior in 1987, Manuskay was named the Colonial League's Defensive Player of the Year. He graduated with degrees in education and geology.

Manuskay and his wife, Laurie, have two sons, Colton and Jake, and two daughters, Logan and Chandler.

Trent Williams and guard Brandon Scherff) for the Redskins for the first time since 1991 (tackle Jim Lachey and guard Mark Schlereth). The unit helped power the Redskins to the third-ranked offense in the NFL, allowing the team to average more than 400 yards per game for the first time in team history while allowing only 23 sacks and ranking fourth in the NFL in sacks allowed per pass attempt.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Carberry spent the 2014-15 seasons as an offensive assistant for the Dallas Cowboys. He also oversaw the development of two Redskins draft picks, defensive back Kyshoen Jarrett (2015) and cornerback Kendall Fuller (2016).

In 2016, Gray served as the defensive backs coach at the University of Florida. Under Gray's guidance, cornerback Teez Tabor earned first-team All-SEC honors from both the Associated Press and the league's coaches while also garnering second-team All-American honors from numerous outlets. Gray also helped guide defensive back Quincy Wilson to second-team All-SEC honors.

Prior to his time at Florida, Gray spent 10 seasons coaching defensive backs at his alma mater, Virginia Tech. In his 10 seasons in Blacksburg, his unit allowed just 185.0 passing yards per game and a 106.5 opponent passer rating – both ranked second in the nation over that span. Opposing quarterbacks completed just 50.4 percent of their passes in those 10 seasons, the lowest percentage against any defense in the nation.

During Gray's tenure, a total of 11 Hokie defensive backs were selected in the NFL Draft, including Aaron Rouse (2007, Round 3), Brandon Flowers (2008, Round 2), Victor "Macho" Harris (2009, Round 5), Cody Grimm (2010, Round 7), Kam Chancellor (2010, Round 5), Roc Carmichael (2011, Round 4), Jayron Hosley (2012, Round 3), Antone Exum (2014, Round 6), Kyle Fuller (2014, Round 1), Kyshoen Jarrett (2015, Round 6) and Kendall Fuller (2016, Round 3).

Before returning to Virginia Tech, Gray spent two seasons in the NFL as assistant defensive backs coach for the Chicago Bears from 2004-05. In 2005, Gray's unit helped the Bears rank fifth in the NFL in passing defense and finished tied for second in interceptions (24) as defensive backs Nathan Vasher and Mike Brown both earned Pro Bowl selections.

Gray began his coaching career at the University of Maine, serving as defensive backs coach for two seasons from 2000-01. He then spent the 2002-03 seasons as defensive backs coach at the University of Connecticut. During his time with the Huskies, he coached cornerback Justin Perkins, helping him to two all-conference selections and 12 career interceptions.

Following a standout career at Kathleen H.S. in Lakeland, Fla., Gray played collegiately at Virginia Tech and became a three-time all-conference selection. He helped lead the Hokies to a pair of conference titles and was drafted by the Minnesota Vikings in the second round (49th overall) of the 1997 NFL Draft. He spent three seasons with the Vikings before retiring with a career-ending knee injury in the spring of 2000.

A native of Lakeland, Fla., Gray was born March 18, 1974. He has two daughters, Tori and Lexi.

Chad Grimm enters his third season with the Redskins and his first as the team's outside linebackers coach in 2017 after initially joining the team in a defensive quality control role on January 29, 2015.

Grimm spent his first two seasons in Washington serving in a defensive quality control capacity while also assisting the team's outside linebackers. In 2015, Grimm helped Preston Smith lead all NFL rookies with 8.0 sacks, and a year later, Grimm and Greg Manusky helped Ryan Kerrigan and Trent Murphy become the first pair to record at least nine sacks each in a single season for the Redskins since Andre Carter and Brian Orakpo in 2009.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Grimm spent two years in the same capacity with the San Diego Chargers. Grimm spent his first four NFL seasons with the Arizona Cardinals after entering the league in 2009 as an offensive quality control coach.

Grimm comes from a football pedigree. He is the son of Russ Grimm, a Pro Football Hall of Famer and three-time Super Bowl champion who stands as one of the most decorated players in Redskins history. Russ – a founding member of the franchise's famed "Hogs" – played 11 seasons in Washington from 1981-91 and served in various assistant roles for the team from 1992-2000. His brother, Cody, played at Ike Hilliard is entering his fifth season as the Redskins' wide receivers coach in 2017 after returning for his second stint with the team on January 20, 2014.

Hilliard's group played a major role in the Redskins' record-setting offense in 2016, a unit that set single-season team records in yards per game (403.4), yards per play (6.40), net passing yards (4,758), completions (407), passing first downs (226) and 500-yard games (three). Veteran wideouts Pierre Garçon (1,041) and DeSean Jackson (1,005) both eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark on the season, representing the first time the Redskins featured multiple

1,000-yard receivers since 1999 [Albert Connell and Michael Westbrook]. Meanwhile, second-year slot receiver Jamison Crowder took another step as one of the league's most underrated threats, leading the Redskins with seven touchdown receptions while contributing 847 receiving yards on 67 receptions.

During the Redskins' NFC East championship season in 2015, Hilliard coached a group that prominently featured two prolific veterans [Garçon and Jackson] and two young players in their first or second NFL seasons [Crowder and Ryan Grant, respectively]. Garçon posted 72 receptions, the second-highest total of his career, while Jackson recorded 528 receiving yards and four touchdowns despite being limited by injury to nine games. Hilliard's guidance also helped Crowder to a Redskins-rookie-record 59 receptions in 2015.

In his return to Washington in 2014, Hilliard oversaw the incorporation of Jackson into the team's offense after joining the team as a free agent. Jackson led the Redskins with 1,169 receiving yards on 56 receptions, becoming the fifth member of the Redskins to post 1,000 receiving yards in his first season in Washington [Bobby Mitchell in 1962, Henry Ellard in 1994, Laveranues Coles in 2003 and Santana Moss in 2005]. Jackson averaged an NFL-best 20.9 yards per reception and was the first member of the Redskins to finish a season as the NFL leader in yards per reception since Henry Ellard (19.5 in 1996).

Hilliard served as wide receivers coach for the Buffalo Bills in 2013, helping mold a young group that included rookie second-round pick Robert Woods (40 receptions for 587 yards with three touchdowns) and rookie third-round pick Marquise Goodwin (17 receptions for 283 yards with three touchdowns).

In his first stint with the Redskins in 2012, Hilliard guided the team's receivers to the franchise's first division title since 1999. He incorporated free agents Pierre Garçon and Joshua Morgan into the offense, helping Garçon lead the team in receiving yards (633 in only 10 games) and helping Morgan lead the Redskins in receptions (48). Hilliard also oversaw the resurgence of veteran slot receiver Santana Moss, who caught 41 passes for 573 yards and eight touchdowns, his most since recording nine receiving touchdowns in his first season in Washington in 2005. The group's toughness on the perimeter also helped the offense rush for a league-best 2,709 yards, a franchise record.

In 2011, Hilliard served as the assistant wide receivers coach for the Miami Dolphins. He helped in the development of wide receiver Brandon Marshall, who was selected for his third Pro Bowl and first as a member of the Dolphins. Additionally, Marshall finished third in the AFC in receiving yards with 1,214 and recorded his fifth-consecutive 1,000-plus yard season.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Hilliard spent two seasons coaching for the Florida Tuskers of the United Football League. Hilliard worked as a volunteer coach with the Tuskers in 2009 and was elevated to the position of Receivers Coach for 2010 under current Redskins Head Coach Jay Gruden.

As a player, Hilliard was a first-round selection in the 1997 NFL Draft (No. 7 overall). He played 12 seasons, eight with the New York Giants (1997-2004) and four with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2005-08). In 161 career games (106 starts), Hilliard caught 546 passes for 6,397 yards and 35 touchdowns.

Hilliard played collegiately at the University of Florida from 1994-96, catching 126 passes for 2,214 yards and 26 touchdowns. He earned first-team All-SEC and All-American honors as a junior. In the final game that season, he recorded seven catches for 150 yards and three touchdowns to help lead the Gators to a 52-20 Sugar Bowl win to secure the school's first national championship.

Hilliard is a native of Patterson, La.

Randy Jordan enters his fourth season as the Redskins' running back coach in 2017 after initially being named to the position on January 26, 2014.

A nine-year NFL veteran as a player from 1993-2002, Jordan appeared in 122 career games with the Raiders and Jaguars. He was the recipient of the NFL Unsung Hero Award and the Ed Block Courage Award in 2001 and served as special teams captain for the Raiders' AFC Championship team in 2002.

Jordan's hard-nosed approach to the position was evident in the team's running backs in 2016, a year in which the Redskins gained 1,058 of their rushing yards after contact, second-most in the NFL. Jordan oversaw the development of rookie free agent Rob Kelley, who ascended to the starting role mid-year and finished the season as the team's leader in rushing attempts (168), rushing yards (704) and rushing touchdowns (six). Jordan also helped Chris Thompson finish the season with career highs in rushing yards (356), carries (68), receiving yards (349), receptions (49) and total touchdowns (five). Thompson became the first member of the Redskins to record at least 325 rushing yards and 325 receiving yards in a single season since Roy Helu Jr. in 2011, all while serving as a critical component in pass protection to the team's record-setting aerial attack despite standing 5-foot-8 and 195 pounds.

In 2015, Jordan oversaw a rotating stable of backs that included workhorse Alfred Morris (202 carries for 751 yards with one touchdown), third-round pick Matt Jones (144 carries for 490 yards with three touchdowns) and third-down back Chris Thompson (gained 6.2 yards per carry on 35 attempts). The group also contributed heavily in pass protection, helping the Redskins decrease their sack total from 58 in 2014 to 27 in 2015.

In his first season in Washington in 2014, Jordan helped Morris earn his second consecutive Pro Bowl berth, making Morris the first Redskins running back selected to consecutive Pro Bowls since Stephen Davis in 1999-2000. Morris joined Davis as the only backs in team history to record three consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons. Jordan's work was also evident in the play of fullback Darrel Young, who matched his career highs in rushing touchdowns (three) and receiving touchdowns (two) en route to a career-high five total touchdowns in 2014.

Before joining the Redskins, Jordan spent two years as the running backs coach at the University of North Carolina. In his first season with UNC in 2012, Jordan's Tar Heels averaged 193.8 rushing yards per game, third-most in the Atlantic Coast Conference and the program's highest average since 1994. That season, he tutored tailback Giovani Bernard - who played for current Redskins Head Coach Jay Gruden in Cincinnati in 2013 – to one of the best seasons in UNC history, helping Bernard average 122.8 rushing yards per game, most in the ACC and 11th in the nation.

STAFF BIOS

Jordan was part of an offensive staff that helped Carolina set more than 35 school records, including total points, points per game and total offense.

Jordan coached running backs at Texas A&M for four seasons from 2008-11. In 2011, the Aggies averaged 199.1 rushing yards per game, fourth-most in the Big 12 Conference, and had two different backs – Cyrus Gray and Christine Michael – finish among the top five in the conference in rushing yards per game. Under Jordan's tutelage, Gray was a three-time All-Big 12 performer and exited ranked third in conference history in all-purpose yards.

Jordan left for Aggieland from the University of Nebraska where he served as the running backs coach for the Cornhuskers from 2004-07. Jordan helped shape the I-back position, coaching two 1,000-yard rushers in Cody Ross in 2004 and Marlon Lucky in 2007. He oversaw a committee of backs in 2006 that produced nearly 2,400 rushing yards and 26 rushing touchdowns, as an improved effort on the ground helped NU move from 107th in 2005 to 23rd nationally in rushing offense in 2006.

Jordan began his coaching career with the Oakland Raiders as a special teams assistant midway through the 2003 season. He played nine years in the NFL as a running back, playing in 122 career games from 1993 through 2002. He began his career with the Los Angeles Raiders before joining the expansion Jacksonville Jaguars in 1995 and playing three seasons. Jordan holds the distinction of scoring the very first touchdown for the Jacksonville club, a 71-yard reception against Cincinnati in 1995.

After the 1997 season, Jordan rejoined the Raiders' organization where he played five more seasons. In 1998, Jordan rushed for 159 yards for the Raiders. He had a career-high 213 yards rushing and three touchdowns in helping the Raiders reach the AFC Championship Game in 2000. He also caught 27 passes for 299 yards and a touchdown that same season.

Jordan finished his career with 574 yards rushing and seven touchdowns, while making 58 catches for 596 yards and two touchdowns. Jordan was also a standout special teams player. He finished his career with 801 yards on 38 career kick returns, including a season best of 553 yards on 26 returns for Jacksonville in 1996. He also recorded 64 career tackles on special teams.

Jordan played for the University of North Carolina under coach Mack Brown from 1989-92. He earned three letters for the Tar Heels rushing for 1,134 yards and nine touchdowns in his career, including 618 yards and seven touchdowns in 1991.

Jordan earned his bachelor's degree in speech communication from North Carolina in 1993. He was born in Manson, N.C. Jordan and his wife, Romonda, have a daughter, Raven – a volleyball player at the University at Buffalo – and two sons, Jalen and Justin.

Cannon Matthews enters his ninth NFL season and his first with the Redskins after being named as defensive quality control on February 13, 2017.

Matthews joined the Redskins in 2017 with eight years of previous NFL coaching experience. Before coming to Washington, he served as the assistant defensive backs coach for the Cleveland Browns in 2016, helping guide a unit that recorded all 10 of the team's interceptions that season. The stint was his second with the Browns, including a defensive coaching internship during the 2013 season in which Cleveland jumped from 23rd to ninth in the NFL in total defense.

From 2014-15, Matthews held the defensive quality control role for the Tennessee Titans, assisting with the team's linebackers. In his first season with the Titans in 2014, the team recorded at least one sack by 18 different players, a team record and the most in the NFL. A year later, the Titans finished sixth in the NFL in sacks per pass play, seventh in passing yards allowed and eighth in opponent rushing average.

Matthews spent one season as the running backs coach at Kentucky Christian University in 2012, helping the Knights to a 7-4 record and top-25 ranking during the first winning season in school history.

Prior to his time at the collegiate level, Matthews spent four years with the Buffalo Bills. He served as a defensive and special teams coaching assistant from 2008-09 before transitioning to the offensive side of the ball for the 2010-11 seasons. Bret Munsey enters his fourth season with the Redskins in 2017 after initially joining the team during the 2014 off-season.

Along with Special Teams Coordinator Ben Kotwica, Munsey helped a number of Redskins special teamers turn in notable performances in 2016. With 34 field goals on the year, kicker Dustin Hopkins broke Mark Moseley's team record of 33 field goals set in 1983. Meanwhile, returner Jamison Crowder ended the team's 124-game drought without a punt return for touchdown in Week 5 at Baltimore, returning a punt 85 yards for a touchdown in an eventual six-point win. The Redskins finished the season with an 11.9-yard punt return average, fourth-best in the NFL, marking the Redskins' first finish in the Top 5 in punt return average since leading the league in the category in 1995.

Munsey contributed to the Redskins' special teams success in 2015 despite the unit having to use 60 different players (tied for seventh-most in the NFL) during its NFC East championship season. The unit posted a Top 5 ranking in kickoff coverage (20.1 yards allowed per return) and contributed three special teams touchdowns, including a team-record-tying two kickoff returns for touchdowns and a blocked punt recovery for a touchdown.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Munsey served as a national scout for the Philadelphia Eagles during the 2013 season. He spent the 2012 season as the head coach of the Orlando Predators of the Arena Football League. Prior to his stint in Orlando, he served two seasons as the director of player personnel for the Florida Tuskers of the UFL (2009-10), working with current Redskins head coach Jay Gruden. In 2011, the team moved to Virginia Beach, and as Director of Personnel, Munsey helped guide the Virginia Destroyers to the 2011 UFL Championship.

From 2006-08, Munsey served as head coach of the AFL's Philadelphia Soul. Munsey finished with a 35-20 overall record, including a 16-3 record and Arena Bowl title in 2008. In his first season with the Soul, Munsey led the team to their first postseason appearance in franchise history, finishing with a 9-7 record.

From 2003-05, Munsey served as the secondary coach and director of player personnel for the Predators in his first stint in Orlando, working alongside Gruden, who was the team's head coach at the time. In 2002, Munsey was the head coach of the Tennessee Valley Vipers in the af2 league, where he was named the league's coach of the year. He spent one season with the Carolina Cobras of the AFL in 2001, after beginning his coaching career in 2000 as the defensive coordinator of the Augusta Stallions of af2.

A native of Winter Park, Fla., Munsey was a three-sport star at Winter Park H.S. He played collegiately at Concord University (W.Va.) and played professionally for the Predators from 1991-95.

Kevin O'Connell enters his first season as the Redskins' quarterbacks coach in 2017 after being named to the position on January 23, 2017.

O'Connell joined the Redskins after spending the 2016 season overseeing special projects for the San Francisco 49ers. A year earlier in 2015, O'Connell served as quarterbacks coach for the Cleveland Browns. There he worked with Josh McCown, who became the first player in Browns franchise history to throw for 300-or-more yards in three consecutive games, as he eclipsed the mark in each game from Week 3 to Week 5 that season. Under O'Connell, McCown also set a career high and Browns single-game record with 457 passing yards at Baltimore.

Originally a third-round pick (94th overall) by the New England Patriots in the 2008 NFL Draft, O'Connell spent time with the Patriots, Lions, Jets, Dolphins and Chargers during his five-year playing career (2008-12).

A four-year team captain at San Diego State (2004-07), O'Connell appeared in 40 games and finished his collegiate career ranked third in school history in completions (664), fourth in passing yards (7,689) and fifth in passing touchdowns (46). He also finished his career holding school records for career rushing yards by a quarterback (1,312), career rushing touchdowns by a quarterback (19) and single-season rushing touchdowns by a quarterback (11). In 2007, O'Connell became the first player in San Diego State history to lead the team in both passing (3,063) and rushing yards (408) in the same season. He earned his bachelor's degree in political science in 2007.

Born in Knoxville, Tenn., O'Connell attended La Costa Canyon H.S. in Carlsbad, Calif. He and his wife, Leah, have a son, Kaden, and a daughter, Quinn.

O'Hara joined the Redskins after having spent the previous three seasons as an offensive coaching associate with the Jacksonville Jaguars. In 2015, the Jaguars' offense accounted for 35 touchdown passes, shattering the previous team record of 28 set in 2007.

Before entering the NFL ranks, O'Hara spent three seasons coaching on the defensive side of the ball at the University of Miami from 2011-13, including one season as a graduate assistant and two as a student assistant. In his final season with the Hurricanes, O'Hara and the Miami defense ranked third in the ACC with 27 takeaways and helped propel linebacker Denzel Perryman to first-team all-conference honors.

Prior to working at Miami, O'Hara spent two seasons at Temple University, serving as a student assistant with the school's football team.

Kirk Olivadotti enters his 15th NFL season – all with the Redskins – in 2017 after returning for his second stint with the team on January 16, 2014.

Olivadotti returned to the Redskins – with whom he spent 11 NFL seasons in various capacities from 2000-10 – in 2014 after three years coaching inside linebackers at the University of Georgia from 2011-13. Olivadotti is one of 11 members of the Redskins' assistant coach honor roll, which recognizes coaches with at least 10 seasons of service as an assistant in Washington.

Olivadotti's linebackers contributed heavily to the team's 986 total tackles in 2016, third-most in the NFL. He helped further develop fourth-year pro Will Compton, who completed his journey from practice squad player [2013] to special teamer [2014] to spot starter [2015] to defensive captain [2016]. He also created an effective platoon at the opposite linebacker spot, helping Mason Foster to a team-high 123 tackles (88 solo) on primarily early downs while integrating hybrid rookie weapon Su'a Cravens in that role in passing situations. Olivadotti's teaching helped Cravens become the second-youngest player to play in a season opener for the Redskins (21 years and 67 days old).

In 2015, Olivadotti successfully coached a unit that helped guide the Redskins to a 9-7 record and an NFC East championship despite featuring a rotating cast of players as the result of injuries. The Redskins began the year with Keenan Robinson and Perry Riley, Jr. patrolling the inside linebacker positions, with the duo recording an interception off of former Super Bowl MVPs Tom Brady and Eli Manning, respectively. Olivadotti groomed and developed Compton into a reliable starter during the team's season-ending four-game winning streak and effectively integrated Foster, a midseason acquisition, into the spot opposite Compton.

In his first season back in Washington in 2014, Olivadotti's tutelage helped Robinson blossom in his first season as a starter. Despite missing three games, Robinson led the Redskins with 108 total tackles, including a 14-tackle performance in a win vs. Tennessee in which Robinson earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors.

At Georgia, Olivadotti coached a linebacker corps that produced NFL draft picks Jarvis Jones and Alec Ogletree. The Bulldogs averaged 10 wins a season in Olivadotti's three years, including ending the 2012 season with a 12-2 record and a No. 5 national ranking.

During Olivadotti's initial 11-season stint with the Redskins, Washington finished in the top 10 in the NFL in overall defense on eight occasions. The Redskins allowed an average of 313.1 yards per game in Olivadotti's 11 years on staff, fourth-fewest in the NFC and seventh-fewest in the NFL in that time frame.

In 2009, he tutored a pair of linebackers to their first Pro Bowl: London Fletcher, who earned his initial trip in his 12th season, and Brian Orakpo, who was one of four NFL rookies selected. Fletcher led the Redskins in tackles with 172 and added two sacks, one interception and 10 passes defended. He eclipsed the 100-tackle mark for the 11th consecutive season.

Orakpo became the first Redskins defensive rookie to make the Pro Bowl since the 1970 merger. He is only the second Redskins rookie to be chosen, joining kick returner Tony Green (1978). Orakpo finished with 60 tackles, including three for loss, 11 sacks for 76 yards lost, one forced fumble and two passes defended. He led all rookies in sacks and tied for most among NFC linebackers with Dallas' DeMarcus Ware. Orakpo's 11 sacks finished tied for seventh in the NFL and fourth in the NFC, and set the franchise rookie record, surpassing the previous mark of six by Dean Hamel (1985) and Andre Collins (1990).

In 2008, Olivadotti's linebackers played a pivotal role in Washington ranking fourth overall in yards allowed per game (288.8), sixth in points allowed per game (18.5) and eighth in rushing yards allowed per game (95.4 yards).

The previous year, in Olivadotti's first season as linebackers coach, Washington finished eighth in the NFL in overall defense (305.3 yards per game) and fourth in the league in rush defense (91.3 yards per game). The tandem of Fletcher (156 tackles) and Rocky McIntosh (105 tackles) finished as the team's top tacklers.

Throughout his NFL coaching career, Olivadotti has worked with some of the best defensive minds in the NFL, including Ray Rhodes, Marvin Lewis, Gregg Williams, Greg Blache and Jim Haslett. Olivadotti began his NFL coaching career with the Redskins in 2000 as a defensive quality control coach. He served in that role for four seasons and also helped coach the defensive backs.

He continued as quality control coach in 2004, but also took on a role assisting the Redskins' special teams units. In 2006, Olivadotti's role expanded to working with the Redskins' defensive line.

Olivadotti began his coaching career on the college level, working with wide receivers and tight ends at Maine Maritime for one season (1997). He moved to Indiana State as an assistant coach for two years (1998-99) before making the transition to Washington and the NFL.

Olivadotti was a four-year letter winner as a wide receiver at Purdue from 1993-96. He earned his bachelor's degree in education and his master's degree in education administration, both from Purdue. He is the son of Tom Olivadotti, a long-time defensive coach in the NFL with the Browns, Dolphins, Vikings, Giants and Texans. Kirk and his wife, Keely, have a daughter, Kasyn, and a son, Kruz.

Wes Phillips enters his fourth season as the Redskins' tight ends coach in 2017 after initially being named to the position on January 17, 2014.

In 2016, Phillips oversaw one of the league's most productive duos, further developing one of the game's emerging threats while integrating one of its most productive veterans. Fourth-year pro Jordan Reed earned his first Pro Bowl nod in 2016 after catching 66 passes for 686 yards with six receiving touchdowns in only 12 games with eight starts. During the year, Reed became the fastest tight end in NFL history to reach 200 career receptions, reaching the milestone in 38 career games and surpassing the mark set by Pro Football Hall of Famer Kellen Winslow (39 career games). Phillips also helped guide veteran free agent addition Vernon Davis to a 44-catch, 583-yard campaign, as Washington finished the year as one of only two teams to have multiple tight ends record at least 40 receptions during the season (Houston).

Phillips presided over arguably the most prolific season by a tight end in Redskins history in 2015, as Reed shattered team records for receptions (87) and receiving yards (952) by a tight end. Including a 24-yard touchdown reception in the NFC Wild Card Round vs. Green Bay, Reed tied a team record for combined regular season and postseason receiving touchdowns (12) in a single year. Reed's breakout campaign was supplemented by a rotating cast of tight ends, as Phillips effectively integrated preseason trade acquisition Derek Carrier, midseason signings Anthony McCoy and Alex Smith, waiver addition Marcel Jensen, first-year player Je'Ron Hamm and eligible-tackle Tom Compton after the unit lost two presumptive contributors (Niles Paul and Logan Paulsen) to injury in the preseason.

In his first season in Washington in 2014, Phillips guided

STAFF BIOS

Paul to a breakout campaign, as the special teams stand-out shattered career highs in receptions (39) and receiving yards (507) after entering the season with 14 career catches and 228 career receiving yards to his credit in his first three years in the league. Phillips also oversaw the development of Reed, who finished third on the team with a then-career-high 50 receptions in his sophomore campaign.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Phillips spent seven seasons in various capacities with the Dallas Cowboys. He joined Dallas in 2007 as the club's quality control/offensive assistant coach before relinquishing his role as a quality control coach in 2011 to become the club's assistant offensive line coach in addition to continuing to assist special teams. In 2013, Phillips was named the tight ends coach, helping Jason Witten post the second-most touchdowns in a season in his career (eight).

In 2012, Phillips assisted with an offensive line that helped the Cowboys finish with 5,994 net yards, the third-most in a season in franchise history, and set a single-season club record with 4,729 passing yards despite having Phil Costa, the team's starting center, for only three games. In 2011, the unit integrated new starters at four of the five positions, helping Tony Romo post his third career 4,000-yard season while rookie running back DeMarco Murray established a single-game team rushing record with a 253-yard performance against St. Louis.

In Phillips' four seasons as Dallas' quality control/offensive assistant coach from 2007-10, the Cowboys' offense posted total yardage numbers ranking in the Top 10 in team history three times, including setting single-season club records in 2010 that included 6,390 yards of total offense – marking the first time a Cowboys team topped 6,000 yards in a season in team history – and 4,287 passing yards. The offense as a whole finished second in the league in total offense, averaging 399.4 yards per game.

Before landing in Dallas, Phillips coached quarterbacks at Baylor in 2006. His work with quarterback Shawn Bell paid dividends as Bell established school single-season records despite missing the final three games with a knee injury.

Prior to his one-year stint at Baylor, Phillips spent two seasons as the quarterbacks coach at West Texas A&M University. The Buffaloes celebrated their most successful season in almost 55 years in 2005, finishing 10-2 to post their first winning season since 1998 and the program's first 10-win season since 1950.

WTAMU won the Lone Star Conference with an 8-1 record, its first league title since 1986 and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA D-II Playoffs for the first time in school history. The school led the 2005 Division II ranks in passing offense, racking up 363.8 yards per game. He tutored quarterback Dalton Bell, a finalist for the Harlon Hill Trophy, which goes to the top Division II player.

Prior to joining the WTAMU staff, Phillips spent one season as a student assistant coach at his alma mater, UTEP, and played two seasons at quarterback for the San Diego Riptide of the af2.

A three-year letter winner at UTEP (1999-2001), Phillips was a member of the 2000 Miners team that shared the WAC title, posted the school's highest win total in more than a decade and played in the Humanitarian Bowl. Phillips left the collegiate ranks among the school's single-season leaders in both pass efficiency (ninth – 120.0 in 2001) and completion percentage (eighth – 55.6 in 2001).

Phillips received his bachelor's degree in philosophy from UTEP in 2001. Phillips and his wife, Anna, were married in 2009 and have two daughters, Ivy and Minnie, and a son, Mac.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Rowe served as Defensive Coordinator at Valdosta State, helping the Blazers to an 8-3 record in 2016. Among Division II schools, his defense led the nation with 27 interceptions and ranked fifth in the country in opposing passing efficiency, limiting opposing quarterbacks to a 96.2 passer rating. Under Rowe's guidance, Valdosta State safety Kenny Moore earned first-team All-American honors from the American Football Coaches Association.

In 2015, Rowe spent one season as a defensive graduate assistant at the University of Florida. That season, the Florida defense ranked No. 8 in scoring defense, No. 6 in total defense and No. 11 in pass defense, while Rowe assisted in the development of All-American defensive backs Vernon Hargreaves, Marcus Maye, Keanu Neal and Teez Tabor.

From 2012-14, Rowe served in a variety of coaching capacities at Jacksonville University. He began his tenure assisting with the team's defensive backs in 2012, adding the wide receivers to his purview in 2013 and eventually being promoted to defensive coordinator in 2014. *Served as Interim Head Coach for final game of 2010 season

**NFL Europe experience included in separate box

Jim Tomsula enters his first season as the Redskins' defensive line coach in 2017 after being named to the position on January 23, 2017.

Tomsula joined the Redskins in the 2017 offseason with 32 seasons of football experience at the high school, college and professional levels since the fall of 1989. Prior to joining the Redskins, he spent nine years with the San Francisco 49ers, including serving as the 19th head coach in franchise history in 2015 after serving one game as the team's interim head coach in 2010.

During an eight-year run as the 49ers' defensive line coach from 2007-14, Tomsula was instrumental in developing one of the league's top-performing defenses in that timeframe. Across those eight seasons, the 49ers ranked fourth in the league in rushing yards allowed per game (98.4) and second in rushing average (3.72). San Francisco's defense also ranked third in the NFL in points per game allowed (19.4) and fourth in yards per game allowed (320.9) during that stretch. In 2011, Tomsula's defensive line and the San Francisco defense set an NFL record by not allowing a rushing touchdown in their first 14 games of the season. The team surrendered just three rushing touchdowns all year, the fewest allowed in the NFL since the league went to a 16-game schedule in 1978.

Under Tomsula's tutelage, defensive tackle Justin Smith was named to five consecutive Pro Bowls (2009-13) and earned All-Pro honors three times from 2011-13. Despite being the fourth overall pick in the 2001 NFL Draft, Smith had never been selected to either team prior to working with Tomsula.

Tomsula joined the 49ers after enjoying one of the most successful stints in NFL Europe history. Prior to being named the head coach of the Rhein Fire — which made him the youngest head coach in NFLE history at age 38 in 2006 — Tomsula served as the Berlin Thunder's defensive coordinator for two seasons, winning World Bowl XII in his first season with a defense that ranked first in the NFLE against the run.

Tomsula joined the NFLE in 1998 as the defensive line coach of the England Monarchs. He then went on to serve in the same capacity for five seasons with the Scottish Claymores, where he established a reputation for producing some of the league's most dominant lines. He also played a leading role in mentoring and teaching young talent in the league's National Player Development program.

Between NFL Europe seasons, Tomsula spent each fall as a member of the coaching staff Division II Catawba College in Salisbury, N.C., where he had been a defensive lineman after transferring from Middle Tennessee State.

Tomsula's coaching career began with great uncertainty, but his desire to coach the game was steadfast. In 1989, Tomsula began his coaching career as an assistant at his alma mater following a career-ending knee injury. The following season, he went on to coach the defensive line at Woodland Hills (Pa.) H.S.. After spending the next two years out of coaching to provide for his family as a medical equipment sales rep with Thera-Kinetics, Tomsula landed a position as an assistant on the Charleston Southern University coaching staff (1992-95). He would once again spend two seasons out of coaching, as he returned to his hometown of Pittsburgh to serve as a sales representative with Cisco Foods. Urged by his family to continue his dream of coaching football, Tomsula returned to the coaching ranks in 1997 as the volunteer assistant defensive line coach at Catawba.

He and his wife, Julie, have two daughters, Britney and Brooke, and a son, Bear.

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

EAGLES 30, REDSKINS 17

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins lost to the Philadelphia Eagles, 30-17, in front of an announced crowd of 78,685 people at FedExField in Week 1.

After ceding a 13-0 early lead to the Eagles, the Redskins responded with two touchdowns in the second quarter to temporarily take a 14-13 advantage. Linebacker Ryan Kerrigan intercepted Eagles quarterback Carson Wentz and returned the interception 24 yards for a touchdown. The interception was the third of Kerrigan's career, with all three having been returned for touchdowns.

With that touchdown and his pick-six in the 2011 season opener, Kerrigan became the sixth player in league history to record multiple Week 1 interception returns for touchdowns in a career, according to records provided by STATS. Kerrigan joined Lem Barney, Tyrone Braxton, Terrell Buckley, Chuck Howley and Aqib Talib, who all have two career Week 1 pick-sixes to their credit. Kerrigan tied DeAngelo Hall, Monte Coleman, Andre Collins, Brig Owens and Mike Bass for second-most career interception return touchdowns in Redskins history.

The second touchdown came via a 29-yard catch and run by running back Chris Thompson from quarterback Kirk Cousins. The touchdown was the 73rd touchdown pass of Cousins' career and the sixth receiving touchdown of Thompson's career.

The Redskins had the ball trailing 22-17 in the final minutes until Eagles defensive tackle Fletcher Cox recovered a Cousins fumble and returned it 20 yards for a touchdown. After video review to determine whether or not Cousins' arm was moving forward, the call stood, pushing the final score to 30-17.

With the performance, Cousins moved past Billy Kilmer (12,352) for the fifth-most career passing yards in Redskins history.

Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum

REDSKINS 27, RAMS 20

LOS ANGELES – The Washington Redskins defeated the Los Angeles Rams, 27-20, in front of an announced crowd of 56,612 people at Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum in Week 2.

The Redskins played in the greater Los Angeles area for the first time since Dec. 24, 1994, a 24-21 Redskins victory that represented the Rams' final contest in Los Angeles prior to the franchise's relocation to St. Louis. The Redskins improved to 26-13-1 against the Rams all-time, including postseason play, with the victory.

The Redskins raced out to a 13-0 lead, buoyed largely by the strength of the running game. The Redskins recorded 167 rushing yards in the first half, the team's most in a first half since Dec. 12, 2010, vs. Tampa Bay (174). Of those 167 first-half rushing yards, 75 came in the first quarter, the team's most in an opening frame since Week 2 of the 2015 season, coincidentally Washington's most recent contest against the Rams.

The Redskins finished the game with 229 rushing yards, the team's first 200-yard rushing effort since Week 16 of the 2016 season at Chicago. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, with running backs Rob Kelley (78 yards), Chris Thompson (77) and Samaje Perine (67), the Redskins had three different players reach 65 rushing yards in a single game for the first time since Dec. 1, 1957, against the Chicago Bears (Ed Sutton, 72; Jim Podoley, 71; Don Bosseler, 68).

Running back Chris Thompson rushed three times and posted career highs in rushing yards (77) and rushing touchdowns (two), including a career-long 61-yard touchdown scamper. It marked his second career multi-touchdown game, joining Week 16 of the 2016 season at Chicago (one rushing, one receiving). Thompson's 25.7-yard rushing average was the best by a member of the Redskins with at least three carries in a game in records available dating back to 1960.

Tied at 20 in the final minutes, quarterback Kirk Cousins engineered a 10-play, 70-yard drive that culminated in an 11-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Ryan Grant with 1:49 remaining. On the ensuing Rams possession, linebacker Mason Foster intercepted Rams quarterback Jared Goff to seal the victory for Washington.

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

REDSKINS 27, RAIDERS 10

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins defeated the Oakland Raiders, 27-10, in front of an announced crowd of 77,123 people at FedExField in Week 3.

The Redskins outgained the Raiders, 472-128. Washington's 344-yard differential was its largest in regular season play since a 385-yard advantage against the Chicago Bears on Dec. 15, 1974, a span of 660 regular season games. The Redskins held the Raiders to 128 total yards, the lowest total during Head Coach Jay Gruden's tenure in Washington. The total represented the fewest yards allowed by the Redskins since Oct. 12, 1992, against Denver.

The Redskins tied a team record by limiting the Raiders to 0-of-11 on third downs. It marked the first time the Redskins have held an opponent without a third down conversion since Dec. 30, 2007, against Dallas.

Quarterback Kirk Cousins recorded season highs in completions (25), passing yards (365), passing touchdowns (three) and passer rating (150.7). He added to his team record for career 300-yard passing games (20, including 19 in regular season play), and he exceeded a 150.0 passer rating as the starter for the fourth time in his career and his first time since Week 17 of the 2015 season at Dallas.

Running back Chris Thompson finished the contest with a career-high 150 receiving yards, surpassing his previous high of 57 yards, set in Week 3 of the 2015 season against the New York Giants. Thompson produced the most receiving yards in a game by any Redskins running back in records available dating back to 1960, surpassing the 140 receiving yards by running back Dick James on Dec. 16, 1962. Including his 38 rushing yards, Thompson finished the game with 188 yards from scrimmage, the most by any member of the Redskins since Alfred Morris on Dec. 30, 2012 vs. Dallas (212, including 200 rushing and 12 receiving).

Wide receiver Josh Doctson recorded his first career touchdown reception on his first reception of the season, a 52-yard pass from Cousins. Doctson became the first member of the Redskins to score his first career touchdown on a reception of 50 yards or longer since Rashad Ross in the final week of the 2015 season (71 yards at Dallas).

The game was the Redskins' first appearance on NBC's Sunday Night Football in 2017. The Redskins improved to 18-17-1 all-time on Sunday Night Football since the broadcast package's debut in 1987 and won consecutive appearances on Sunday Night Football for the first time since Weeks 15-16 of the 2007 season.

Arrowhead Stadium [Kansas City, Mo.]

CHIEFS 29, REDSKINS 20

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – The Washington Redskins fell to the Kansas City Chiefs, 29-20, in front of an announced crowd of 74,587 people at Arrowhead Stadium in Week 4.

The Redskins scored on the game's opening possession, with quarterback Kirk Cousins hitting wide receiver Terrelle Pryor Sr. for a 44-yard touchdown. The receiving touchdown was the fifth of Pryor's career and his first as a member of the Redskins. The receiving touchdown was the longest of Pryor's career and his longest touchdown of any kind since a 93-yard rushing touchdown on Oct. 27, 2013, as quarterback of the Oakland Raiders. It also marked back-to-back weeks with an opening-drive touchdown for the Redskins for the first time since Weeks 8-10 of the 2016 season (including a bye in Week 9).

The teams traded the lead in the third quarter, as a go-ahead touchdown run by Chiefs quarterback Alex Smith was immediately answered with a three-play, 75-yard touchdown drive by Washington. On the drive, tight end Vernon Davis caught a 69-yard reception, moving past Heath Miller (6,569) for the 10th-most career receiving yards by a tight end in NFL history on the play.

The Redskins engineered a 10-play, 53-yard drive late in the contest that resulted in a game-tying 40-yard field goal from kicker Dustin Hopkins with 47 seconds remaining. However, a 43-yard field goal and a fumble recovery touchdown on a desperation lateral play in the final few seconds accounted for the game's final score.

Linebacker Ryan Kerrigan made both his 100th career regular season appearance and his 100th career regular season start in the contest. Kerrigan became the first member of the Redskins since the 1970 merger to open a career with 100 consecutive starts, according to the Elias Sports Bureau.

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

REDSKINS 26, 49ERS 24

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins defeated the San Francisco 49ers, 26-24, in front of an announced crowd of 75,568 people at FedExField in Week 6.

The Redskins opened the game with an eight-play, 75-yard drive that resulted in an 11-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Kirk Cousins to wide receiver Josh Doctson. With the score, the Redskins recorded touchdowns on their first possession in three consecutive games for the first time since Weeks 13-15 of the 2004 season.

The Redskins pushed their first-half lead to 17-0 with after a three-yard touchdown pass to running back Samaje Perine and a 48-yard field goal by kicker Dustin Hopkins. However, San Francisco responded with 17 consecutive points across the second and third quarters, evening the game at 17-17.

The Redskins engineered drives of 72 and 84 yards in the fourth quarter, resulting in a Hopkins field goal and a Cousins touchdown run. The Niners cut the Redskins' lead to two points on a late touchdown pass, but Washington recovered the resulting onside kick. After three consecutive runs and a punt, the Redskins' defense stopped San Francisco on the 49ers' final drive, as cornerback Kendall Fuller sealed the 26-24 victory with an interception with three seconds remaining.

Cousins completed 25-of-37 passes for 330 yards with two touchdowns and one interception for a passer rating of 102.3 and also rushed four times for 26 yards, including a seven-yard touchdown run. On the touchdown run, Cousins tied Sonny Jurgensen (10) for the second-most career rushing touchdowns by a Redskins quarterback.

Running back Chris Thompson rushed a career-high 16 times for 33 yards and caught four passes for 105 yards in his first career start. The 100-yard receiving game was his second of the season, making him only the second Redskins running back with multiple 100-yard receiving games in a single season in records dating back to 1960 (Dick James, two in 1962). With the effort, Thompson became the first member of the Redskins to lead the team in rushing and receiving yardage in the same game since Evan Royster in Week 17 of the 2011 season at Philadelphia.

Lincoln Financial Field (Philadelphia)

EAGLES 34, REDSKINS 24

PHILADELPHIA – The Washington Redskins fell to the Philadelphia Eagles, 34-24, in front of an announced crowd of 69,596 people at Lincoln Financial Field in Week 7.

Washington held leads of 3-0 and 10-3 in the first half, but a string of 21 consecutive points by the Eagles on either side of halftime pushed Philadelphia to a 24-10 advantage. Washington cut the lead to 24-17 on a five-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Kirk Cousins to tight end Jordan Reed in the third quarter. However, 10 more Philadelphia points and a late touchdown connection from Cousins to Reed accounted for the final 34-24 score.

Cousins completed 30-of-40 passes for 303 yards with three touchdowns and one interception for a passer rating of 110.7. Cousins added to his team record for career 300-yard passing games (22, including 21 in regular season play). It also marked his fourth consecutive game with a passer rating of 100.0 or better for the first time since a six-game regular season streak in Weeks 12-17 of the 2015 season.

Reed posted season highs in receptions (eight) and receiving yards (64) and tied his career high with two receiving touchdowns. With the two touchdowns, Reed passed Jean Fugett (21) for third-most career receiving touchdowns by a tight end in Redskins history. He now trails only Jerry Smith (60) and Chris Cooley (33) among tight ends in team history.

The Redskins logged their 70th all-time appearance on Monday Night Football since 1970. The appearance tied the Redskins with the Denver Broncos for fourth-most by any team in the program's history.

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

COWBOYS 33, REDSKINS 19

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins fell to the Dallas Cowboys, 33-19, in front of an announced crowd of 78,428 people at FedExField in Week 8.

The Redskins recorded a takeaway on the game's first play from scrimmage, when a fumble by Cowboys running back Ezekiel Elliott was forced by defensive lineman Matt Ioannidis and recovered by cornerback Josh Norman. The takeaway was the Redskins' first on their opponent's first play from scrimmage since cornerback Bashaud Breeland recovered a fumble on the New York Jets' first offensive play in Week 6 of the 2015 season. The Redskins scored on their ensuing opening drive on a 38-yard field goal by kicker Nick Rose, giving the Redskins points on their opening drive in six consecutive games for the first time since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, according to the Elias Sports Bureau.

Another Rose field goal and a Rob Kelley touchdown run gave the Redskins a 13-7 lead in the second quarter, but the game turned on a blocked field goal in the second quarter that Dallas cornerback Orlando Scandrick returned 86 yards to the Washington four-yard line. Dallas scored a touchdown two plays later to take a 14-13 halftime lead that they would not relinquish.

Quarterback Kirk Cousins completed 26-of-39 pass attempts for 263 yards with one touchdown and one interception for a passer rating of 83.6. With his 38th attempt of the game, Cousins moved past Billy Kilmer (1,791) for the fifth-most career passing attempts in Redskins history.

Wide receiver Jamison Crowder recorded a career-high 123 receiving yards, surpassing his previous career high of 109 yards set in Week 17 of the 2015 season at Dallas. Crowder eclipsed 100 receiving yards in a game for the fifth time in his career and the first time since Week 11 of the 2016 season vs. Green Bay.

With two sacks by linebacker Ryan Kerrigan, the Redskins posted a sack in a 31st straight regular season game to take sole possession of the second-longest sack streak in team history (surpassing a 30-game streak in Week 15 in 2008 through Week 12 in 2010) since the NFL adopted sacks as an official statistic in 1982.

GAME 8

CenturyLink Field (Seattle)

REDSKINS 17, SEAHAWKS 14

SEATTLE – The Washington Redskins defeated the Seattle Seahawks, 17-14, in front of an announced crowd of 68,927 at CenturyLink Field in Week 9.

The Redskins earned the victory despite playing only 42 players in the contest. In addition to the team's seven injured inactives, the Redskins had two active players that did not dress plus a third that dressed only for emergency but did not play.

The Seahawks opened the scoring in the first quarter when Seahawks linebacker Bobby Wagner sacked quarterback Kirk Cousins from the blindside for a safety. However, thanks in part to three missed field goals by Seahawks kicker Blair Walsh and a 13-play, 71-yard touchdown drive by the Redskins, the Redskins entered halftime with a 7-2 lead.

The game approached the final frame with the Redskins holding a 10-2 lead, as interceptions by cornerback Kendall Fuller and linebacker Will Compton helped keep the Seattle offense in check. However, two touchdown passes by Seahawks quarterback Russell Wilson, including one to Doug Baldwin with 1:34 remaining, gave Seattle its first lead of the game, setting the stage for Washington's late-game heroics.

Cousins and the Redskins engineered a four-play, 70-yard touchdown drive in response. Wide receiver Brian Quick absorbed a substantial hit from Seahawks safety Kam Chancellor on a 31-yard reception, and on the ensuing play, wide receiver Josh Doctson laid out for an acrobatic 38-yard grab at the Seattle one-yard line. Running back Rob Kelley completed the drive with a one-yard touchdown plunge, his second of the day. Washington's defense sealed the win on Seattle's final drive, with safety DeAngelo Hall batting away a Hail Mary attempt in his first game back since suffering an injury in Week 3 of the 2016 season.

The fourth-quarter comeback victory by Cousins was the seventh of his career and his first of the season. The game marked the 11th time that Cousins' has engineered a go-ahead drive in the fourth quarter of an eventual Redskins victory.

The win extended the Redskins' regular season winning streak in Seattle to four games, dating back to 2002. The Seahawks had entered the day 37-8 in regular season play at CenturyLink Field since 2012, as their .841 winning percentage at home prior to the game since 2012 was the best in the NFL.

The Redskins improved to 3-0 against NFC West opponents on the year. The victory gave Washington three wins against the NFC West in a single season for the first time since 2011 (3-1).

The victory was Head Coach Jay Gruden's 25th career win, allowing him to surpass Mike Shanahan and Jack Pardee for sole possession of the sixth-most coaching victories in team history.

GAME 9

VIKINGS 38, REDSKINS 30

LANDOVER ,Md. – The Washington Redskins fell to the Minnesota Vikings, 38-30, in front of an announced crowd of 74,476 people at FedExField in Week 10.

The game marked the second straight year in which the Redskins and Vikings have played at FedExField in Week 10. The Redskins earned a 26-20 victory against Minnesota in Week 10 of the 2016 season.

After being promoted to the team's active roster a day earlier, wide receiver Maurice Harris recorded a 36-yard touchdown reception in the first quarter on his first reception of the season on the Redskins' first drive. The Redskins led, 17-14, late in the first half, but a string of 21 consecutive points by the Vikings on either side of the halftime pushed the Vikings to a 35-17 lead early in the third quarter.

The Redskins cut the deficit to one score early in the fourth quarter thanks in part to a pair of interceptions by safety D.J. Swearinger. Swearinger's multi-interception game was the first by a member of the Redskins since both Bashaud Breeland and Josh Norman accomplished the feat in Week 16 of the 2016 season at Chicago.

The Vikings pushed their lead to 11 points on a 53-yard field goal, and the Redskins countered with a career-long 55-yard field goal by Nick Rose inside of the two-minute warning to push the score to 38-30. However, an onside kick attempt by Washington rolled out of bounds, allowing the Vikings to kneel out the clock for the victory.

The 68 combined points were the most by two teams in a game featuring Washington since the Redskins and Colts combined for 76 points in Week 13 of the 2014 season. Quarterback Kirk Cousins recorded two one-yard rushing touchdowns, scoring on the ground twice in a game for the second time in his career. With his first rushing touchdown, he passed Sonny Jurgensen (10) for sole possession of the second-most career rushing touchdowns by a Redskins quarterback.

SAINTS 34, REDSKINS 31 (OT)

NEW ORLEANS – The Washington Redskins fell to the New Orleans Saints in overtime, 34-31, in front of an announced crowd of 73,138 people at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome in New Orleans in Week 11.

The game was the 43rd overtime contest in Redskins history and the team's first overtime game since Week 8 of the 2016 season against the Cincinnati Bengals in London's Wembley Stadium. The Redskins dropped to 25-16-2 all-time in overtime games.

The Redskins scored a season-high 31 points, their highest total since a 41-point effort against the Chicago Bears in Week 16 of the 2016 season. The Redskins scored 30 points in consecutive games for the first time since a three-game stretch in Weeks 15-17 of the 2015 season.

Quarterback Kirk Cousins completed 22-of-32 passes for 322 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions for a passer rating of 132.6. On his 12th completion of the day, Cousins surpassed Mark Rypien [1,244] for the fourth-most career completions in team history. Cousins started his 42nd consecutive regular season game for the Redskins, passing Rypien [41 from 1990-93] for the second-longest streak by a Redskins quarterback since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.

Running back Samaje Perine recorded career highs in rushing attempts [23] and rushing yards [117]. The 100-yard rushing performance was the first of his career. Perine recorded the first 100-yard rushing day by a Redskins running back since Rob Kelley in Week 11 of the 2016 season.

Safety D.J. Swearinger recorded an interception on the Saints' first possession, picking off quarterback Drew Brees. The interception was Swearinger's third of the season, matching his single-season career high set in 2016. He became the first member of the Redskins to record an interception in consecutive games since Bashaud Breeland in Weeks 5-6 of the 2015 season.

FedExField (Landover, Md.)

REDSKINS 20, GIANTS 10

LANDOVER, Md. – The Washington Redskins defeated the New York Giants, 20-10, in front of an announced crowd of 73,210 people at FedExField on Thanksgiving night in Week 12.

The Redskins hosted a Thanksgiving home game for the first time in their 85-plus-year history. It was the Redskins' 10th Thanksgiving Day contest in team history, but their outside of road games against the Detroit Lions or Dallas Cowboys.

The Redskins leaned heavily on a strong defensive performance, holding the Giants without an offensive touchdown. The Redskins allowed only 170 total yards, their second-fewest of the season and the third-fewest in a game in Gruden's tenure. The Giants gained only 3.09 yards per play, the Redskins' ninth-best defensive mark in a game since 2000. Giants quarterback Eli Manning accounted for only 113 passing yards, his lowest total since Week 16 of the 2007 season (111, at Buffalo), a span of 155 regular season games.

The Redskins held the Giants to seven first downs, marking Washington's second game this season allowing only seven first downs (Week 3 vs. Oakland). Washington has now held opponents to seven or fewer first downs multiple time in a single season for the first time since 1992 (two).

Kirk Cousins completed 19-of-31 passes for 242 yards with two touchdowns and one interception for a passer rating of 93.8. During the game, Cousins (3,038) surpassed 3,000 passing yards on the season, becoming the first quarterback in Redskins history to record three consecutive 3,000-yard passing seasons. Cousins reached the 15,000-yard career passing mark, becoming only the fifth player in team history to throw for 15,000 career yards with the Redskins, joining Joe Theismann, Sonny Jurgensen, Sammy Baugh and Mark Rypien.

Wide receiver Jamison Crowder recorded a career-high 141 yards and one receiving touchdown on seven receptions, surpassing his previous career high of 123 yards set in Week 8 vs. Dallas. The 141 receiving yards by Crowder are the second-most by a member of the Redskins in a single game this season, trailing running back Chris Thompson's 150-yard effort against Oakland in Week 3.

Running back Samaje Perine recorded 100 rushing yards on 24 carries and added 30 receiving yards on three receptions. He became the first member of the Redskins to post consecutive 100-yard rushing games since Alfred Morris in Weeks 9-10 of the 2013 season. He also became the first Redskins rookie with back-to-back 100-yard rushing games since Morris in Weeks 12-14 of the 2012 season.

The win represented Head Coach Jay Gruden's 26th career victory, tying him with Joe Kuharich for the fifth-most coaching victories in franchise history.

GAME 12

AT&T Stadium (Arlington, Texas)

COWBOYS 38, REDSKINS 14

ARLINGTON, Texas – The Washington Redskins fell to the Dallas Cowboys, 38-14, in front of an announced crowd of 91,712 people at AT&T Stadium in Week 13.

The Redskins held the Cowboys to 93 net passing yards and have now allowed fewer than 100 net passing yards in back-to-back games for the first time since Weeks 5-6 of the 2004 season.

Quarterback Kirk Cousins completed 26-of-37 passes for 251 yards with two touchdowns and two interceptions for a passer rating of 84.4. With two touchdown passes, Cousins pushed his passing touchdown total this season to 21, making him the first quarterback in Redskins history to record three consecutive 20-touchdown seasons.

Wide receiver Ryan Grant recorded a career-high 76 receiving yards on a career-high-tying five receptions. His previous single-game career high in receiving yards was 61, set against Philadelphia in Week 1. Wide receiver Josh Doctson added a 14-yard touchdown reception, giving him a touchdown reception in back-to-back games for the first time in his career and making him the first member of the Redskins to catch a touchdown in back-to-back games since DeSean Jackson in Weeks 11-12 of the 2016 season.

The Redskins completed their first set of consecutive Thursday contests for the first time in team history. The 2017 season marked the team's first year in which it has played multiple Thursday games. The game was broadcast by NBC, NFL Network, and for the first time in Redskins history, on Amazon. Announcing crews for the game included the flagship NBC Thursday Night Football presentation as well as British English, Spanish and Portuguese presentations.
