WASHINGTON REDSKINS 2019 NFL DRAFT NOTES

REDSKINS ENTER 2019 NFL DRAFT WITH NINE PICKS

The Washington Redskins currently hold nine selections in the 84th National Football League Draft, which opens on the evening of Thursday, April 25. The first round in Nashville, Tenn. begins at 8 p.m. ET and will be televised by NFL Network, FOX, ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 and ESPN Deportes.

The draft will continue at 7 p.m. ET on Friday with the second and third rounds, and will conclude with rounds 4-7 on Saturday, starting at noon ET.

Senior Vice President of Player Personnel Doug Williams will conduct a pre-draft press conference at the Inova Sports Performance Center at Redskins Park at noon on Monday, April 22.

The team will host media at the Inova Sports Performance Center at Redskins Park during all three days of the draft. Head Coach Jay Gruden will speak to members of the media following the team's selection on Thursday and at the end of proceedings on Friday and Saturday. The team's selections on Thursday and Friday are scheduled to be introduced to select members of the media on Saturday (see Page 2 for more details).

Last year, Washington made eight selections in the 2018 NFL Draft in Arlington. Seven of the eight members of Washington's 2018 draft class (Daron Payne, Geron Christian Sr., Troy Apke, Tim Settle, Shaun Dion Hamilton, Greg Stroman and Trey Quinn) appeared in game action as rookies.

Additionally, Washington selected Adonis Alexander in the 2018 Supplemental Draft. It was the first time the Redskins selected a player in the supplemental draft since 2009 when the organization selected Jeremy Jarmon (DE - Kentucky).

Washington produced two Pro Bowlers in 2018, including linebacker Ryan Kerrigan and tackle Trent Williams. Both of Washington's Pro Bowlers a year ago were first-round picks of the Redskins in their respective draft classes: 2010 (Williams at No. 4) and 2011 (Kerrigan at No. 16).

In the last six seasons, the Redskins have had seven players earn a total of 16 Pro Bowl selections, all of which were by homegrown talents. Every Redskins Pro Bowler since 2013 (Williams, 7; Kerrigan, 4; Scherff, 2; Alfred Morris, 2; Kirk Cousins, 1; Brian Orakpo, 1; Jordan Reed, 1) entered the NFL as Redskins draft picks.

Barring a trade, the Redskins' first selection of the 2019 NFL Draft will come with the No. 15 overall pick. Through the draft and in free agency the Redskins have compiled 13 players who were selected in the first round of the NFL Draft. Six of those players were drafted by Washington, six were acquired via free agency and one was acquired through trade. The table below outlines all 12 of the current Redskins selected in the first round of the NFL Draft.

Of the Redskins' nine current selections in the 2019 draft, four were awarded by the NFL as compensatory picks. Along with the Arizona Cardinals and the New England Patriots, the Redskins were awarded the most compensatory picks in the 2019 NFL Draft with four. It is the most compensatory picks for Washington since the Redskins held three compensatory picks in the 2008 NFL Draft. Thursday's first round will allow 10 minutes before each pick. The second round, which resumes the draft on Friday evening, allows seven minutes between picks. The third round allows five minutes between selections. The final four rounds will take place on Saturday. Rounds four through six allow five minutes between picks, and all seventh round and compensatory picks allow four minutes each. The 2019 draft will mark the third year in which teams will be able to trade compensatory selections.

REDSKINS SELECTIONS IN THE 2019 NFL DRAFT

The Redskins enter the 2019 NFL Draft with a total of nine scheduled selections. Along with Atlanta, Carolina and Miami, Washington finished the 2018 season with a 7-9 record. The Redskins, Falcons, Panthers and Dolphins will cycle between the 13th, 14th, 15th and 16th picks in each round, respectively. See Page 5 for more details on how the NFL determines the draft order in each round.

The Redskins retain five of their original selections, including picks in the first, second, third, fifth and seventh rounds. The Redskins also hold two third-round and two seventh-round picks, respectively.

Washington originally held a pick in the fourth round and an additional pick in the sixth. The Redskins exercised their sixth-round pick in the 2019 NFL Draft by selecting cornerback Adonis Alexander in the sixth round of 2018 NFL Supplemental Draft and traded their fourth-round pick (No. 118) to the Green Bay Packers for safety Ha Ha Clinton-Dix during the 2018 season.

2019 NFL DRAFT ORDER

The Draft order is determined by the following procedures:

(A) The winner of the Super Bowl game shall select last and the loser of such game shall select next-to-last in all rounds, regardless of the record of such participating clubs in the regular season.

(B) The losers of the Conference championship games shall select 29th and 30th in all rounds, according to the reverse order of their standing.

(C) The losers of the Divisional playoff games shall select in the 25th through 28th positions in all rounds, according to the reverse order of their standing.

(D) The losers of the Wild Card games shall select in the 21st through 24th positions in all rounds, according to the reverse order of their standing.

(E) Clubs not participating in the playoffs shall select in the first through 20th positions in all rounds, according to the reverse order of their standing.

If, after all the foregoing procedures have been applied, ties still exist in any grouping except (A) above, such ties shall be broken by figuring the aggregate won-lost-tied percentage of each involved club's regular season opponents and awarding preferential selection order to the club which faced the schedule of teams with the lowest aggregate won-lost-tied percentage.

If ties still exist, the divisional or conference tie-breaking method, if applicable, shall be applied. If neither the divisional nor the conference tie-breaking methods are applicable, ties shall be broken by a coin flip conducted by the Commissioner.

Clubs involved in two-club ties will alternate positions from round-to-round. In ties that involve three or more clubs, the club at the top of a tied segment in a given round will move to the bottom of the segment for the next round, while all other clubs in the segment move up one position. This rotation continues throughout the Draft.

2018 DRAFT RECAP

TEAM DRAFT NOTES

» Dating back to 2011, the Redskins have now selected at least seven players in eight consecutive drafts for the first time since the league adopted the seven-round format in 1994.

» Including their 10 selections in the 2017 NFL Draft, the Redskins have now selected eight or more players in back-to-back drafts for only the third time since the NFL adopted the seven-round format in 1994, including instances in 2011-12, 2014-15 and 2017-18.

» The Redskins made two trades during the draft. On Day 2, the Redskins sent the Nos. 44 and 142 overall picks to the San Francisco 49ers for the Nos. 59 and 74 overall selections. On Day 3, the team traded the Nos. 205 and 231 picks to the Los Angeles Rams for the Nos. 197 and 256 selections.

» Of the Redskins' eight selections, seven were made with picks acquired by trade, including draft-day trades with San Francisco (RB Derrius Guice and T Geron Christian) and the Los Angeles Rams (LB Shaun Dion Hamilton and WR Trey Quinn), an offseason trade with Denver (S Troy Apke and DL Tim Settle) and a 2017 preseason trade with the Rams (CB Greg Stroman).

» The Redskins' seven selections with picks acquired by trades are the team's most since 2011 (eight). The only player selected by Washington with one of the team's original picks was DL Daron Payne with the No. 13 overall selection.

» The Redskins have selected at least four players with picks acquired via trade in each of the last five drafts. It is the team's longest such stretch since a five-draft span from 1985-89.

» The Redskins selected two pairs of college teammates in the same draft for the first time since 2012.

» The Redskins have now selected at least one pair of college teammates in six of the last eight drafts (Nebraska's Roy Helu Jr., DeJon Gomes and Niles Paul in 2011; SMU's Josh LeRibeus and Richard Crawford and Iowa's Adam Gettis and Jordan Bernstine in 2012; Florida State's Chris Thompson and Brandon Jenkins in 2013; Arkansas' Martrell Spaight and Tevin Mitchell in 2015; Alabama's Jonathan Allen and Ryan Anderson in 2017; Alabama's Daron Payne and Shaun Dion Hamilton and Virginia Tech's Tim Settle and Greg Stroman in 2018).

» The 2018 NFL Draft marks the sixth time the Redskins have selected a pair of teammates out of Alabama (1941, 1948, 1951, 1962 and 2017).

» The 2018 NFL Draft marks the first time the Redskins have selected a pair of teammates out of Virginia Tech.

» The Redskins have now selected a pair of college teammates from the same school in back-to-back years for the first time since

1964-65, when the team selected a pair of teammates from Arizona State in both drafts. In those drafts, the Redskins selected Pro Football Hall of Fame HB/WR Charley Taylor and G John Seedborg from Arizona State in 1964, and then added legendary TE Jerry Smith and HB Dave Estrada from the same university in 1965.

» With four selections from the University of Alabama across the 2017-18 drafts, the Redskins selected at least four players from a single school in a two-year span for the first time since selecting T Mark Doak (No. 147 overall), DB Ardell Johnson (No. 277) and G Dennis Pavelka (No. 412) from Nebraska in 1975 and selecting Nebraska DE Dean Gissler (No. 308) in 1976.

» The Redskins made multiple picks in the seventh round for the third consecutive year, marking the team's first three-year stretch with multiple seventh-round picks since selecting at least two players in that round in each of the 2010-12 NFL Drafts.

» The Redskins selected five defensive players and have now picked at least five defensive players in consecutive drafts for the first time since 1989-90, when the draft consisted of 12 rounds.

» The Redskins have now selected at least one defensive lineman in each of the last three drafts (Matt Ioannidis in 2016, Jonathan Allen in 2017 and Daron Payne and Tim Settle in 2018). It marks the first time the team has taken a defensive lineman in three straight drafts since selecting one in each of the 2000-02 drafts, when all three selections were taken in sixth round or later (Del Cowsette in 2000, Mario Monds in 2001 and Greg Scott in 2002).

» The last time the Redskins took a defensive lineman in the fifth round or earlier in three consecutive drafts was from 1991-93 (Bobby Wilson in 1991, Shane Collins in 1992 and Sterling Palmer in 1993).

» All eight of the Redskins' draft picks played their collegiate careers in the Football Bowl Subdivision, marking the sixth straight year the team's entire draft class had played at the FBS level. The last Redskins draft pick to play in the Football Championship Subdivision was South Dakota's Tom Compton (2012).

» Seven of the eight members of the Redskins' draft class played at schools in "Power Five" conferences.

» The Redskins selected three players from the Southeastern Conference, three players from the Atlantic Coast Conference, and one player each from the Big Ten and American Athletic Conferences. The SEC leads all conferences with 14 of the Redskins' 43 selections since 2014, followed by the ACC with 10 selections.

DL DARON PAYNE (RD. 1, NO. 13)

» Payne was the 467th selection made by the Redskins in the Common Draft era (since 1967) and the 29th first-round selection in that time frame. He is the 60th first-round selection by the Redskins all-time since the institution of the draft in 1936.

» Payne's selection marks the second straight year in which the Redskins have selected a defensive player with their first selection of the draft (DL Jonathan Allen in 2017). The last time the Redskins selected defensive players with their first selection in consecutive drafts was in the 2013-14 drafts, in which the team selected CB David Amerson and LB Trent Murphy, respectively (both in the second round).

» With the first-round selections of Allen and Payne across the 2017-18 drafts, the Redskins have now selected a defensive player in the first round of consecutive drafts for the first time since 2004 (S Sean Taylor) and 2005 (CB Carlos Rogers).

» The selections of Payne and Allen – both University of Alabama products – in the first round of back-to-back years marks the first time the Redskins have selected players from the same school in the first round of consecutive drafts in the Common Draft era. It is the second such occurrence in the team's full draft history, including the selections of Oklahoma's George Thomas and Leon Heath in the 1950 and 1951 drafts, respectively.

» Payne and Allen became the first set of college teammates

Nine of the 10 defensive players selected by the Redskins in the first round in that time frame have earned at least one Pro Bowl selection during their career. The lone exception – Allen – was limited to five games by a season-ending Lisfranc injury as a rookie last year.

» Payne's selection marks the sixth time in the Common Draft era that the Redskins have selected a defensive lineman in the first round, joining Jonathan Allen (2017), Ryan Kerrigan (2011), Brian Orakpo (2009, transitioned to linebacker in 2010), Kenard Lang (1997) and Bobby Wilson (1991). The Redskins also selected Tracy Rocker (1989, third round), Markus Koch (1986, second round), Bob Slater (1984, second round), Duncan McColl (1977, fourth round) and Bill Brundige (1970, second round) with the team's first selections of each of the drafts listed.

» Payne is the eighth Southeastern Conference product selected by the Redskins in the first round in the Common Draft era. The Redskins have now selected an SEC product in the first round of consecutive drafts for the first time since 1999 (Georgia CB Champ Bailey) and 2000 (Alabama T Chris Samuels).

[Note: The team did not make a second-round selection in 2012.] The six consecutive second-round picks on defensive players prior to Guice represented the longest stretch used by the Redskins on one side of the ball in the second round in the Common Draft era.

» Guice becomes the first running back selected by the Redskins in the second round since the team drafted Iowa's Ladell Betts with the No. 56 overall pick in 2002.

» Guice was selected with a pick acquired by the Redskins in a draft day trade in which the Redskins sent the Nos. 44 and 142 overall picks to San Francisco in exchange for the Nos. 59 and 75 overall selections. It marked the Redskins first selection using an acquired pick in the 2018 NFL Draft. The No. 59 overall selection originally belonged to the New Orleans Saints, who traded the pick to San Francisco during the 2017 NFL Draft for the right to select 2017 Offensive Rookie of the Year Alvin Kamara.

» With Alexander’s selection, the Redskins selected teammates from Virginia Tech in a single draft year for the first time in team history.

» Including combined picks in the NFL Draft and Supplemental Draft, Alexander was the fourth Virginia Tech defensive back selected joining the selections of DB Kyshoen Jarrett (2015), CB Kendall Fuller (2016), Greg Stroman (2018) from the NFL Draft.

» The Redskins have now selected a cornerback for the first time in the Supplemental Draft. Alexander becomes the second player from the college ranks and second defensive player selected joining DE Jeremy Jarmon (2009).

» With the selection of Alexander in the Supplemental Draft and the selection of his Virginia Tech teammates DL Tim Settle and CB Greg Stroman in the NFL Draft, the Redskins have now selected at least three players from the same school for the 12th time since 1936. The last time the Redskins selected three college teammates in the same draft was 2011 when Washington selected RB Roy Helu, S DeJon Gomes and WR Niles Paul from Nebraska with consecutive picks in the NFL Draft.

» With the selection of Alexander in the Supplemental Draft and the selection of his Virginia Tech teammates DL Tim Settle and CB Greg Stroman in the NFL Draft, marks the first time that all three players picked in the same draft year played on the same defensive unit in college before becoming eligible for either draft.
