Quarterback Case Keenum

On how his foot is and what happened:

“It’s feeling better today. Short week, you know how these things go. Pretty sore after the game, wanted it to calm down, get a little swelling out. Stabilize it. Just walking around, they put me in it for the day.”

On what the exact injury was:

“It was a foot sprain.”

On how it felt today in practice:

“It felt better today. That means good things because I think it’ll just keep getting better. Those guys in the training room are doing a good job so we’ll how it responds and just keep treating it up.”

On how ‘normal’ he felt in practice:

“It felt good. Like you said, it’s a short week. Obviously, had a few times where I held on to the ball too long and certain things happen, but we’re moving on. We’ve got another great test this week.”

On what has seen from the run game that can be fixed:

“There are a lot of things. I think we can all do better. The run game is not just the offensive line and running backs. Wide receivers block a little better, I thought those guys did a good job on a lot of plays and you see it happen, you see it. But it’s just being consistent with it. Same thing with offensive line, they can be a little better. Running backs can be a little better. Really, for me, only person I can control is me. I can do better. Operationally, getting us in the right run checks, making sure people are set, getting the operation of everything, I can be better too. So, I know we can all be a little bit better.”

On how they can bounce back from committing turnovers in Week 3:

“I definitely would like to change the turnovers that happened. That’s what you do every game. You look at the good things you did and you look at the bad things and you fix the bad things and you move on. It’s the most important part of my position is turnovers. I took responsibility for that after the game. It’s all on me. They got a good [pass] rush, but I know that. I need to hold on to the ball in the pocket, it’s my job. At the very worst, eat it and take a sack. Those are the things, I watched the film, studied it, watched it with the coaches and we fix that. I’m going to be better going forward.”

On if he is more eager to get back on the field after a game against the Bears:

“Yeah I’m always eager to get back on the field. It never has a good taste in your mouth after something like that. Especially doing it on national television is not fun. Good thing is, it’s a short week. We’ll get back on there quickly and turn this thing around.”

On if he’s surprised by the attention was created by him missing Monday’s walkthrough:

“I don’t pay attention to anything. I was up here late. I didn’t watch anything or even barely look at my phone so I don’t know what attention was garnered where.”

On when exactly the foot injury took place:

“No, it was during the game.”

On if his foot was stepped on:

“No.”

On if he knew what happened:

“Yeah, it happened in the game. It happened on a sack.”

On what he has seen from the Giants defense:

“They do a lot of different stuff. They do a good job of trying to confuse quarterbacks and give different looks. We’re going to have to do a really good job of ID-ing fronts for protection wise, run game stuff. On the back end, they show a lot of different coverages as well. It’s a really good defense that mixes it up from game-to-game and series-to-series. Just from identification process, we have to really be on our Ps and Qs this week.”

On the differences he has seen in the Giants from Week 1 to Week 3:

“There are different game plans for different weeks. Obviously, different receivers that they play each week and you see that. We’re going to have to get out there and see what they bring when we play them and adjust accordingly. I feel good about the game plan so far what’s going on. Excited to get going.”

On his chemistry with WR Paul Richardson Jr.:

“I’m really excited about [WR] Paul [Richardson Jr.]. A little slow start, [WR] Terry [McLaurin] was hot and Paul is just ‘Steady-Eddy.’ He’s been there just constantly grinding. He’s a great worker and I really enjoy working with him. I think he’s just going to be a guy we constantly count on. You go back and watch some of his film of his blocking on some screens and run blocking, they were probably some of his best plays in the game on Monday night. And he made really, really big-time catches. Tough catches, contested catches too. I’m really excited to keep that connection going.
