

12 STEVEN MONTEZ, QB

6-5, 230, Sr., 4L, El Paso, Texas (Del Valle)

AT COLORADO: Career—Selected as CU's co-Male Career Achievement Award winner (for all sports for the athletic year ending in 2019-20) ... He set 51 records during his CU career, 37 outright and 14 others that he tied (full list later in bio) ... The most significant included finishing first in passing yards (9,649), second in pass attempts (1,312), second in completions (820), first in touchdown passes (63), 56th in rushing yards (960), sixth in true rushing yards by a quarterback (1,556) and first in total offense (10,609; just the second to eclipse the 10,000-yard mark) ... He had two of the four seasons in CU history with 3,000 yards of total offense ... He started the second most games at quarterback in school annals with 39 (17-22), the 17 wins tying for the fifth-most. He started the last 36 games of his career, snapping the old mark of 31 at the position ... The first player at Colorado to complete over 60 percent of his passes in four straight seasons ... Just the fourth at CU start games in four different seasons ... Engineered six fourth-quarter comebacks in his career, third-most ever at Colorado ... A 1,000-yard rusher when allowing for quarterback sacks to count against team passing; his true rushing numbers were 249 attempts for 1,556 yards and 11 touchdowns, or 6.25 per attempt (the latter second only to Kordell Stewart's 7.04 norm) ... Had four streaks of 80 or more passes without an interception, two over 100, just the second CU player to accomplish the latter ... Set the mark for highest ratio of touchdowns-to-interceptions at 1.97-1 (63 TDs, 32 picks) ... One of four players to throw for over 7,000 yards at Colorado ... Claimed the team's "Best Interview" award as a junior and senior as voted on by the team's beat media.

2019 (Sr.)—Named one of CU's four permanent captains for 2019 at the end of the season (he was selected as a single-game captain on six occasions) ... Earned the team's John Mack Award as the team's most outstanding offensive player, claiming it for the second time (he also won as a sophomore; he was the seventh to win it twice) ... One of 20 semifinalists for the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award ... He played in the Senior Bowl, where he completed 3-of-8 passes for 22 yards with an interception; he was also sacked three times. Played behind the second- and third-team linemen for the most part who couldn't handle the pass rush (just the second CU quarterback to play in a Senior Bowl, joining Sefo Liufau in 2017) ... Started all 12 games in completing 255-of-405 passes (63.0 percent) for 2,808 yards and 17 touchdowns against 10 interceptions, earning a quarterback rating of 130.1 ... The 2,808 yards were the sixth-most in a single season at Colorado, with his attempts the fourth-most and completions the third-most ... Had a streak of 115 straight passes without an interception over four games, the seventh-longest in school history ... Best down passing was on first (97-of-140, 1,121 yards, 6 TD, 147.8 rating), while his best quarter was the fourth (66-of-94, 70.2 percent, 783 yards, 5 TD, 157.7 rating) ... Officially gained 153 rushing yards on 65 tries (scoring three touchdowns), meaning he just missed on a third 3,000-yard total offense season, finishing with 2,961 ... When allowing for sacks, his true rushing numbers on the year improved to 283 yards on 45 carries, a healthy 6.3 yards per attempt ... Earned 142 first downs, 125 via passing and 17 by rush ... Named by the coaches as the offensive player of the game four times, against Arizona State, Arizona, Stanford and Washington ... Top games included when he was one of the Sugar Bowl/Manning Award Eight Stars of the Week for his game at Arizona State, completing 20-of-30 passes for 337 yards and three TD's (no interceptions), a rating of 204.0. Others: against Southern California (27-of-43 for 324 yards, three touchdowns with seven carries for 45 yards and a touchdown; 369 yards of total offense and a 149.1 rating) and in the season opener against Colorado State (13-of-20 for 232 yards and 2 TDs, 195.4 rating) ... Against Nebraska, teamed up with K.D. Nixon to record the longest play from scrimmage in school history, a 96-yard pass on a flea-flicker no less ... He finished that game 28-of-41 for 375 yards (2 TD/1 INT) and a 156.3 rating ... He was on five preseason watch lists for postseason trophies (Manning, Maxwell, Davey O'Brien Award, Johnny Unitas Golden Arm and the Earl Campbell Tyler Rose) ... Ranked as the No. 4 quarterback nationally in the preseason by Lindy's/NFLDraftScout.com, No. 12 by Phil Steele's College Football, No. 21 by Lindy's College Football and No. 41 by Athlon Sports ... Ranked as the No. 18 player in the Pac-12 in the preseason by collegefootballnews.com ... Attended the Manning Passing Academy for the second straight off season.

2018 (Jr.)—Named to the Colorado Chapter of the National Football Foundation All-Colorado second team ... Won nine weekly awards from the Maxwell Award, Davie O'Brien Award, Manning Award and Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award ... Set 13 new CU records including highest pass efficiency and highest completion percentage for both 20 and 25 attempts ... Also set records for most pass attempts (399), completions (258) and touchdowns (19) for a junior, most 300-yard passing games (six) and most games with 300 yards of total offense (six) ... Started all 12 games at quarterback ... Completed 258-of-399 passes for 2,849 yards and 19 touchdowns with nine interceptions ... QB rating was 135.8 ... Rushed 94 times for 216 yards and three touchdowns ... His rushing total was 454 yards after taking out yardage lost due to sacks ... His 399 attempts were the fifth-highest total in CU history while his 258 completions ranked second ... His 2,849 yards is the fifth most in CU history and ranked sixth in the Pac-12, and his 3,087 yards of total offense ranks fourth all-time ... His completion percentage of 64.7 is the fifth best at CU and his 19 touchdowns ranks for sixth ... He was responsible for 147 first downs, the third-most in CU history and his 125 first downs passing ranks tied for third in the books ... Completed 22-of-25 passes for 338 yards with four touchdowns and one interception to open the season against Colorado State ... Set CU records for passing efficiency and completion percentage for both 20 and 25 pass attempts (246.8 and 88.0, respectively) ... Against the Rams, he connected with Laviska Shenault on an 89-yard touchdown pass, the fourth-longest pass play and eighth longest play from scrimmage in CU history ... Also had a 38-yard touchdown run in the first quarter to open the scoring, the longest touchdown run by a quarterback in 24 years (Kordell Stewart, 60 yards against Kansas State in 1994); it was the seventh-longest score from scrimmage for CU's first score of a season ... Earned honors from the Davey O'Brien Award committee, the Sugar Bowl Manning Award and the Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award for his performance against CSU ... He hit 33-of-50 passes for 351 yards and three touchdowns with no interceptions against Nebraska in the second week of the season ... His 50 attempts with no interceptions set a CU record ... He hit Shenault on a 40-yard touchdown with just over a minute left to secure the comeback in CU's 33-28 victory ... He was named the Maxwell Award National Player of the Week and earned honors from the Davey O'Brien, Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award and was named Pac-12 Player of the Week by CollegeSportsMadness.com ... His game-winning touchdown to Shenault was named the Lindy's Sports U.S. Raised Catfish Catch of the Week ... Was 22-of-26 passing for 237 yards and a touchdown against UCLA ... His pass efficiency and completion percentage numbers from that game would've broken school records if not for his performance against Colorado State the first week of the season ...

CONTINUED ...

He was again honored by the Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award ... He was 24-of-33 for 328 yards and two touchdowns against Arizona State, earning another Great Eight Stars award from the Davey O'Brien Award ... Also had 300 yard games against Oregon State (24-of-39 for 319 yards, 2 touchdowns) and Arizona (27-of-42 for 343 yards, three touchdowns and one interception) ... He was on the preseason watch list for the Maxwell Award ... He attended two offseason passing academies – drilled with Steve Clarkson in Los Angeles at the end of May and was a camp counselor at the Manning Passing Academy, June 21-24 ... Phil Steele College Football selected him to his preseason All-Pac-12 fourth-team and rated him as the 21st best quarterback in the country.

2017 (Soph.)—Honorable mention All-Pac-12 selection of the league coaches ... Winner of the John Mack Award given to the team's outstanding offensive player ... Played and started in all 12 games ... Threw for 2,975 yards, narrowly missing what would have been just the third 3,000-yard passing season in Colorado history ... Set a new Colorado record for games with over 400 yards of total offense in a season with three ... Posted four 300-yard passing games on the year, including three-straight against California, Arizona State and No. 15 USC, marking the first time in school history a quarterback had three consecutive games passing for over 300 ... Completed 60.5 percent of his 377 pass attempts, the fifth most attempts in CU single-season history ... Threw 18 touchdown passes, tied for the seventh-most in single-season history, and in the 10 seasons where a CU quarterback threw at least 15 TD passes, his percentage was the second-lowest at 4.77; but he countered that by having the best interception percentage among the group, at just 2.39 ... From Sept. 23 through Nov. 4, he went 172 consecutive passes without being intercepted, setting a new school record in that regard ... His 376 yards against USC, when he was 27-of-49 for two TDs along with two interceptions, set a new career-high for passing yardage ... He threw multiple TDs in 5-of-12 games, the high being four against Northern Colorado ... He was named by The Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award as an honorable mention National Player of the Week and the NFF Colorado Chapter Player of the Week for his outing against Northern Colorado ... In the loss to No. 7 Washington, he completed 21-of-27 passes, which was a higher completion percentage (.778) than any Pac-12 quarterback had the previous season when facing a ranked opponent ... At UCLA he threw for 243 yards and ran 15 times for 108 yards, recording the second 100-yard rushing game of his career ... After posting 251 yards and three TDs in the Arizona game, he surpassed 2,500 yards passing in his career to become the 14th Buffalo to surpass that milestone at CU ... Led a fourth-quarter comeback in week seven at Oregon State when in the fourth quarter he was 8-of-10 passing for 68 yards with two TDs while rushing four times for 29 yards ... Was one of eight quarterbacks selected as Manning Award Stars of the Week, the Davey O'Brien Award pegged him as one of its "Great 8", was the NFF Colorado Chapter Player of the Week and he was named an honorable mention national player of the week by the College Football Performance Awards and the Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award for his performance in the win over California ... He was 20-of-26 passing for 347 yards and three TDs while also rushing for one score versus Cal ... His 227.2 passer rating against the Bears was a career-high ... Against No. 15 USC, he threw for a career-high 376 yards with two TDs, the first covering 79 yards and the second 59 ... He along with teammate Isaiah Oliver, he earned the John Wooten Award for outstanding work ethic during spring ball ... Was Colorado's nominee for the Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award that goes to the most outstanding offensive player with ties to the state of Texas ... Athlon Sports ranked him as the 42nd best quarterback entering the season.

2016 (Fr.-RS)—He played in 10 games along with the Alamo Bowl, including three starts (Oregon, Oregon State, USC; he was 2-1 as the starter) ... Named a co-recipient of the Lee Willard Award, presented annually by the coaches to the outstanding freshman ... Threw for 1,017 yards with nine touchdowns against four interceptions and completed 60.3 percent of his passes (79-of-131) on the year ... Passer rating of 142.1 was the seventh-highest in school history (75 or more pass attempts) and the highest ever by a freshman ... Also rushed for 231 yards with one touchdown, giving him 1,248 yards of total offense ... Became the first known player in CU history to throw a touchdown on his first career passing attempt since Joe Dowler in 1959, as he connected with Kabion Ento on a 69-yard TD pass in the second quarter against Idaho State ... Finished that game going 6-of-10 passing for 117 yards and two touchdowns ... Drew his first career start at Oregon and put in a record-setting performance in leading the Buffs to a 41-38 win while going on to collect Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Week accolades in addition to six other weekly honors (Rose Bowl, NFF Chapter State of Colorado, College Sports Madness, Allstate Sugar Bowl Manning Star of the Week, Davey O'Brien Award "Great Eight" and CU Athlete of the Week), plus he was the collegesportsmadness.com national offensive player of the week ... In the win versus the Ducks he threw for 333 yards and three touchdowns while running for 135 yards and another score, becoming the first player in Colorado history to throw for over 300 yards and rush for 100 in the same game ... His passing yardage against Oregon was the fourth-highest in a quarterback's first start at CU and his rushing yardage and total offense (468) output were the most in a debut by a starting QB ... At one point in the first half he completed 14 straight passes, matching the CU single-game record for consecutive completions (Koy Detmer at Colorado State in 1996) ... He followed up that performance the next week at home against Oregon State when he led the Buffs to a 47-6 win, the programs largest conference victory since 1992 ... For the Oregon State game the Earl Campbell-Tyler Rose Award tabbed him as honorable mention for its national player of the week ... He was 19-of-27 passing for 293 yards and three touchdowns (no interceptions) versus the Beavers ... His third and final start came at USC when he was 25-of-40 passing for 197 yards with one touchdown and one interception ... In the Pac-12 Championship game against No. 4 Washington he was inserted into the lineup in place of the injured Sefo Liufau and led the Buffaloes on a seven-play, 55-yard scoring drive in the first quarter to tie that game up at seven ... He was 2-for-3 on the drive for 34 yards, the long being a 21-yard completion to Shay Fields down to the UW eight-yard line to set up the tying score ... He was the recipient of the Fred Casotti Award, as selected by the coaches for being the most improved offensive back during spring practices. He added 20 pounds to his frame between his true and redshirt frosh seasons.

2015 (Fr.)—Redshirted; he practiced at quarterback as well as being a key scout team contributor.

HIGH SCHOOL— As a senior, he earned second-team All-State honors, along with first-team All-City and All-District 2-5A accolades; he was the El Paso area most valuable player and was selected the city’s player of the year when presented with the Steven Hill Award from ESPN 600 ... Scout.com ranked him as the No. 12 quarterback in the state of Texas ... As a junior, he was the District MVP, earning first-team honors (he was a second-team selection as a sophomore) ... He compiled some impressive career numbers, including 6,512 passing yards (86 touchdowns), and 8,149 yards of total offense ...
