What's New At FedExField

GrubHub Partnership

Grubhub Partnership: The Washington Football Team has launched a groundbreaking partnership with Grubhub featuring a custom ordering experience specifically for FedExField. Ticketed fans can place food and beverage orders from 20 different vendors around the stadium through the Grubhub app, as well as pay directly and pick up their order through designated concession lanes for contactless pickup. On average, wait times were cut in half for fans who ordered via the Grubhub app during the partnership pilot, as compared to placing a traditional in-person order. This partnership continues our commitment to innovating across our guest experience and providing fans with a next level gameday experience at FedExField.

Field Renovations

We just completed a multi-million-dollar renovation of our field here at the stadium, producing a state-of-the-art playing surface to match the recently enhanced practice field at the INOVA Sports Performance Center headquarters of the Washington Football Team Training Facility, located in Ashburn, VA.

Food and Beverage

We're thrilled to welcome eight new local businesses to FedExField for the 2021 season:

- KitchenCray (section 447)
- Casa De Ávila Tacos (mobile cart)
- EllaRay's Cafe (section 336)
- Fireman's Cafe (section 323)
- Seafood at the Shack (section 337)
- Suit2Cook (section 330)
- South Mountain Creamery Ice Cream Shop (section 341)
- Everything Legendary (Suites menu and concession stands around the stadium)

Gameday Entertainment

We're excited to bring new high-energy performances and entertainment throughout the game.

- The Washington Football Entertainment Team is comprised of technically trained dancers, tumblers/stunters, and a DC based Beat-Ya-Feet crew.
- This year's drumline, Stick'n Together, features 18 members of the team's marching band.
- The Hype Team will be help welcome fans throughout the stadium and get the crowd involved in celebrations when our team scores a touchdown or has a big play. Best part, they always have a bag full of giveaways and swag to share.

Rebrand

From the beginning it's been important to us to not only run an inclusive process, but also the right process for us. We have made significant progress in our rebrand journey, having recently narrowed down to three top choices from the nearly 40,000 fan-submitted logo and name ideas, and look forward to revealing our new name and logo early in 2022. Please visit WashingtonJourney.com for the latest updates.

The Opponent

Andy Reid

Andy Reid enters his ninth season at the helm of the Chiefs in 2021. He was hired as the club's 13th head coach in franchise history on January 7, 2013.

Entering his 22nd season as an NFL head coach, Reid adds Super Bowl champion to his resume after he led his squad to a 31-20 come-from-behind win in Super Bowl LIV. He owns a 207-128-1 regular season record and adds a 15-14 postseason record, giving him 222 total wins, which rank sixth in NFL history and just second among active head coaches, trailing only New England Head Coach Bill Belichick. Reid joined the Chiefs after 14 seasons as Head Coach/Executive Vice President of Football Operations of the Philadelphia Eagles where he compiled a 130-93-1 (.583) regular season record. Including his years as an assistant coach, Reid's teams have made the playoffs 21 times (24-18 record), and he has coached in four Super Bowls and 10 Championship Games (8 NFC, 2 AFC). He owns three NFL Coach of the Year titles.

Since his arrival in Kansas City, Reid's teams have made it to the playoffs six out of seven seasons, including back-to-back AFC Championship Game appearances (2018-19). In seven seasons under Reid, the Chiefs have recorded six 10-plus win seasons and a .669 (77-35) winning percentage, which is the top mark in franchise history for any coach in his first seven seasons leading the club.

n 2019, Reid's 12-4 Chiefs finished the regular season as AFC West Champs for a franchise-record fourth-straight season and secured the No. 2 seed in the AFC. The club defeated Houston 51-31 in the divisional round and Tennessee 35-24 in the AFC Championship Game on it's way to returning to the Super Bowl for the third time in franchise history and first since the club won Super Bowl IV following the 1969 season. In Super Bowl LIV in Miami, Florida, Reid's Chiefs fell behind 20-10. Entering the fourth quarter, Reid-tutored QB Patrick Mahomes rallied his offense, putting up 21-unanswered points to secure a 31-20 win over the San Francisco 49ers. Mahomes' performance earned Super Bowl MVP honors.

In 2018, Reid's team notched a 12-4 record and third-straight AFC West title. Mahomes became the first player in Chiefs history to be named NFL MVP. The club earned a No. 1 seed in the playoffs and defeated the Indianapolis Colts 31-13 in the divisional round. The win marked Kansas City's first home playoff win since Jan. 8, 1994. The Chiefs hosted the first AFC Championship Game in franchise history, falling 37-31 in overtime to the eventual Super Bowl LIII Champion New England Patriots. Following the season, Reid was named Coach of the Year from the Maxwell Football Club for the fourth time in his career (2000, 2002, 2010, 2018). That season, following the club's Week 7 win over the Cincinnati Bengals, Reid became just the ninth head coach in NFL history to log 200 wins.

Last Game L, 38-20

The Kansas City Chiefs dropped a tough one on Sunday night, as a late rally ultimately fell short in a loss to the Buffalo Bills, 38-20, at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium.

Buffalo amassed an 18-point lead at the midway mark of the third quarter, and while Kansas City narrowed the deficit to 11 points early in the fourth, the Chiefs couldn't manage to close the gap any further.

Head Coach Andy Reid spoke about the loss and the sentiment in the locker room following the game.

"They're embarrassed by it. We didn't play well. You surely don't want to play like that any time, let alone at home," Reid said. "We've got to do better. From the coaches on down to the players, we've got to do better."

Quarterback Patrick Mahomes completed 33-of-54 passes for 272 yards and two touchdowns in the loss, finding wide receiver Byron Pringle for a 5-yard score at the 10-minute mark of the second quarter that gave Kansas City an early lead. Buffalo responded with 17 unanswered points however – including long touchdown receptions by wide receiver Emmanuel Sanders (35 yards) and tight end Dawson Knox (53 yards) – that built what turned out to be an insurmountable advantage.

The Chiefs added a field goal prior to halftime, but while Kansas City held the Buffalo offense scoreless in the third quarter, Bills' safety Micah Hyde intercepted Mahomes midway through the period and brought it back for a touchdown.

Mahomes bounced back to lead a 7-play, 52-yard scoring drive that ended with a 1-yard strike to tight end Travis Kelce a bit later, but it was the last time Kansas City found the end zone on the night. Bills' quarterback Josh Allen connected with Sanders for an 8-yard touchdown on Buffalo's ensuing possession, essentially securing the game.

It was an uncharacteristic game for the Chiefs, who turned the ball over four times and converted just 5-of-12 third down chances.

"You just have to take it on the chin and get better. At the end of the day, that's what we have to do," Mahomes said. "There's still a long season left, but this is one that you're going to remember. That's a good football team, don't get me wrong, but we don't lose football games like that – especially at home."

In terms of injuries, Reid mentioned tailback Clyde Edwards-Helaire (knee), wide receiver Tyreek Hill (knee), offensive guard Joe Thuney (fractured hand), cornerback Chris Lammons (skin laceration) and tight end Travis Kelce (stinger) following the game. In regard to Edwards-Helaire – who needed to be helped off the field – Reid said that they'll know more about the severity of his injury on Monday.

The Chiefs will now look to get back on track next Sunday as they hit the road to take on the Washington Football Team.

HEAD COACH

RON RIVERA
32ND NFL SEASON (25 COACHING/9 PLAYING) // 2ND WITH WASHINGTON

Ron Rivera enters his 25th season coaching in the NFL and his second as Washington's head coach in 2021.

He was named the 30th head coach in franchise history on Jan. 1, 2020 and led Washington to their first division title since 2015. During the 2020 season Rivera was diagnosed with Squamous Cell Carcinoma (SCC) located in a lymph node and detected from a self-care check. Rivera continued to coach through his treatments and on January 28, 2021, he was declared cancer free. Rivera was selected as the NFC Coach of the Year by the Committee of 101 following the 2020 season.

A friend of legendary head coach Joe Gibbs, Rivera is a passionate and skilled leader who has earned the respect of his players, coaching staff and the community. He most recently served as the head coach of the Carolina Panthers for nine seasons, where he led the team to three straight divisional titles and an appearance in Super Bowl 50. Rivera was also recognized twice as the NFL Coach of the Year by the Associated Press in 2013 and in 2015.

Rivera inherited a 2-14 Carolina Panthers team as a rookie head coach in 2011 and guided it back to an NFC force with four playoffs appearances since 2013, tied for the second-most playoff berths in the NFC over that six-year period. In that span, the Panthers recorded 58 wins, tied for the most in any six-year period in their franchise history and fifth-most in the NFL.

In 2015, Carolina won its second NFC Championship in franchise history, third consecutive NFC South division title and appeared in Super Bowl 50. Carolina finished the season with a franchise-best 17-2 record, including home playoff victories over Seattle in the divisional round and Arizona in the NFC Championship game.

Hired by the Panthers for his defensive expertise, Rivera did not disappoint as the Panthers put together five top-10 finishes in total defense in seven seasons from 2012-18. Like Rivera, the Panthers' rebound has been steady and solid, starting with six wins in his first season in 2011 and seven victories in 2012 before registering three consecutive division championships starting in 2013 when he earned his first Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year award. Laying a foundation that included back-to-back Rookie of the Year award winners in quarterback Cam Newton and linebacker Luke Kuechly, Rivera blended veteran and young talent into productive units on both sides of the ball.

Rivera helped lead a Panthers team that finished among the league's top 10 rushing offenses, including top-five finishes in 2011, 2015, 2017 and 2018. The Panthers recorded 30 consecutive regular season games with at least 100 rushing yards from Week 6 of 2014 to Week 3 of 2016, the longest streak in the NFL since Pittsburgh tallied 43 from 1974-77.

Carolina's run defense ranked in the top 10 of the NFL in 2013, 2015, 2016 and 2017. Starting in Week 14 of 2016 through Week 1 of 2018, the Panthers went 21 consecutive games without allowing a 100-yard individual rusher, setting a franchise record.

In 2018, Rivera coached two players to All-Pro selections. Panthers running back Christian McCaffrey earned AP All-Pro second-team honors as he helped the Panthers lead the NFL in rushing yards per carry (5.1). McCaffrey also recorded 107 receptions, the most by any running back in a season in NFL history and broke Steve Smith's franchise record for single-season receptions by any player. He ran for 1,098 rushing yards, becoming the third player in NFL history with over 100 receptions and 1,000 rushing yards in the same season. McCaffrey accumulated a franchise-record 1,965 scrimmage yards, ranking third in the NFL.

Linebacker Luke Kuechly earned his sixth-straight Pro Bowl selection and fifth AP All-Pro first-team honor, tied for the most among active players. Kuechly tied for third in the NFL with 20 tackles for loss. In 2017, the rushing attack helped propel the team to an 11-5 record and a Wild Card berth by averaging 131.4 yards on the ground, good for fourth in the league.

In 2015, Rivera was named NFL Coach of the Year for the second time in three seasons as his team earned its third consecutive NFC South title and claimed the top seed in the NFC for the first time in Panthers franchise history. The Panthers became just the seventh team in the Super Bowl era to post a 15-1 or better record in the regular season. Carolina started 2015 with 14 consecutive victories, which, combined with four wins to close the 2014 regular season, gave the Panthers an NFC-record 18-game winning streak.

Rivera's Panthers went 12-4 and won the NFC South in 2013, Carolina's first division title since 2008. The Panthers then recovered from a 3-8-1 start in 2014 to win four in a row and capture a second consecutive NFC South crown. Prior to Rivera's arrival, Carolina had never reached the postseason in consecutive years, and no team had captured the NFC South twice in a row.

Rivera arrived in Carolina with a reputation for hard work, attention to detail and preparation. Those were also the qualities he exhibited in his first campaign as the Panthers tripled their win total from the previous season. Rivera did not even meet his team until they reported to training camp and, despite a slow start, held it together to finish with four wins in the final six games.

Rivera has shined as a coach and player during his 30-plus years in the NFL, serving as defensive coordinator for the San Diego Chargers' top-ranked defense in 2010 and playing linebacker for the Chicago Bears' top-ranked defense and Super Bowl XX championship team in 1985. In 23 seasons as a coach and nine as a player, he has been with teams that have reached the playoffs 19 times, including nine conference championships and three Super Bowls. The mentality of the Chargers defense that Rivera coached and the Bears defense on which he played has stuck with the head coach, and he has transferred it to his teams.

Rivera's character has been influenced by two innovative defensive coordinators. As a player, Rivera was coached by the late Buddy Ryan, the architect of the "46 Defense," which involved blitzing on nearly every down. As a coach, Rivera toiled under the late Jim Johnson, a highly regarded defensive coordinator renowned for his aggressive approach.

Rivera's identity also has been shaped by his family. The son of a U.S. Army officer and the second youngest of four boys, Rivera learned from a young age about chain of command and many of the principles he teaches and expects from his players. "I come from a military family where discipline isn't taught, it's lived. It's expected from day one. I have a philosophy that every player, every coach, everyone who works for this organization, they'll know it day one," Rivera said in his introductory press conference with Washington on Jan. 2.

Rivera worked with the Chargers from 2007-10. He coached inside linebackers before taking over as the team's defensive coordinator midway through the 2008 season. Under Rivera's guidance, the pass defense steadied itself – intercepting nine passes and yielding 229.6 passing yards per game and 11 touchdown passes over the final eight games. Those numbers contrasted to the first half of the season when San Diego notched just seven picks and was victimized for 265.1 yards per game and 14 touchdowns through the air. In Rivera's first full season leading the defense in 2009, the Chargers ranked 16th in total defense and 11th against the pass. Those rankings improved in 2010 as San Diego led the NFL with an average of 271.6 total yards allowed per game and gave up a league-low 177.8 passing yards per game. From 2004-06, Rivera oversaw the Chicago Bears defense, engineering the unit to two top-five finishes in the league. Under Rivera's direction, five different defensive players went to the Pro Bowl: linebacker Lance Briggs, safety Mike Brown, defensive tackle Tommie Harris, linebacker Brian Urlacher and cornerback Nathan Vasher.

In his first season as a defensive coordinator in 2004, Rivera presided over a defense that produced nine more takeaways and 17 more sacks than the previous year and scored a franchise-record and NFC-high six defensive touchdowns. The Bears also thrived on third down and buckled down inside their own 20-yard line, ranking first in the NFL in third-down efficiency (30.5 percent) and topping the NFC in red zone defense (42.6 percent). The following year, Chicago continued to build on the foundation Rivera laid in 2004. The Bears won their first of two consecutive NFC North titles and stood second in the NFL in total defense. In surrendering the fewest points in the league, Rivera's defense went 43 consecutive quarters without allowing more than seven points – the longest streak in the NFL since 1969. During Rivera's last season with the Bears in 2006, the defense paced the NFL with 44 takeaways and finished fifth in the league in total defense and third in scoring defense, helping propel Chicago to the NFC Championship and an appearance in Super Bowl XLI.

Prior to becoming a defensive coordinator, Rivera spent five seasons from 1999-2003 as the linebackers coach for the Philadelphia Eagles, who advanced to the NFC Championship game in each of his final three seasons. Twice during Rivera's tenure with the Eagles, the team finished second in the NFL in scoring defense and in 2001 held all 16 of its opponents to fewer than 21 points – making them just the fourth team in NFL history to do so.

Rivera gained his first coaching experience with the Bears as a defensive quality control coach from 1997-98. He is just the third Latino head coach in NFL history, joining Tom Flores with the Oakland Raiders from 1979-87 and Seattle Seahawks from 1992-94 and Tom Fears with the New Orleans Saints from 1967-70.

Following retirement from his playing career, Rivera went into broadcasting. He covered the Bears and college football as a television analyst for WGN and SportsChannel Chicago for four years from 1993-96.

Selected in the second round of the 1984 NFL Draft by Chicago, Rivera played all nine of his pro seasons with the Bears. Primarily an outside linebacker, he appeared in 149 games with 62 starts (including 12 postseason contests with six starts) and posted 392 tackles, 7.5 sacks, five forced fumbles, four fumble recoveries, nine interceptions and 15 passes defensed. Rivera was a member of six NFC Central division title teams and a Super Bowl XX championship team in 1985.

As a player, Rivera was known for both his skill and determination on the field and his dedication of time and energy to the community. As a result, he was named the Bears' Man of the Year in 1988 and earned the club's Ed Block Courage Award in 1989. He has carried that same community commitment to coaching, sponsoring a bowling tournament to benefit the Ronald McDonald House, USO and Humane Society. He was a finalist for the 2017 Salute to Service Award, an annual award presented to NFL players, coaches, personnel and alumni who demonstrate an exemplary commitment to honoring and supporting the military community.

Rivera, who lost his brother Mickey to pancreatic cancer in 2015, also serves as a spokesman for the Pancreatic Cancer Action Network. He has twice been the honorary starter for the organization's PurpleStride 5K in Charlotte. An All-American at the University of California, Rivera finished his career as the school's all-time leader in sacks with 22 and tackles with 336. As a senior in 1983, he set the Bears' single-season record for sacks with 13 and tackles for loss with 26.5.

Born Jan. 7, 1962, in Fort Ord, Calif., Rivera lived in Germany, Panama, Washington and Maryland before his family settled in Marina, Calif. He attended Seaside High School in Seaside, Calif., and was a three-sport star in football, basketball and baseball. Rivera and his wife, Stephanie, have two children, Christopher and Courtney. Stephanie is a former assistant coach for the WNBA's Washington Mystics.

RIVERA STRONG

Throughout the 2020 NFL season, the Washington Football Team family supported their head coach by wearing "Rivera Strong" apparel that supported Ron Rivera and his battle with squamous cell carcinoma. Below is a look at how the Washington Football Team came together to support the fight against cancer:

MARTIN MAYHEW
GENERAL MANAGER
32ND NFL SEASON (9 PLAYING/23 FRONT OFFICE) // 5TH WITH WASHINGTON

Martin Mayhew enters his first season as General Manager of the Washington Football Team after being hired by the organization on January 22, 2021.

Mayhew joins Washington with 22 seasons of NFL experience as an executive, including eight seasons as the general manager of the Detroit Lions. He returns to the franchise that he played for from 1989-92 and was a member of the Super Bowl XXVI team.

"Martin is a proven general manager who will bring a wealth of knowledge and experience to the organization," said Head Coach Ron Rivera. "He will be an integral part of running the daily football operations and will allow me the opportunity to focus more on coaching. He impressed both myself and Mr. Snyder during the interview process and we both believe he will be a tremendous fit here. He is a man of high character and integrity and was part of the rich history and tradition of this great franchise as a member of the Super Bowl championship team in 1991."

Mayhew spent the previous four season with the San Francisco 49ers, most recently as the club's vice president of player personnel. He held the position of senior personnel executive for the franchise from 2017-18. Mayhew assisted first-time general manager John Lynch and was a major contributor to a personnel department that was vital in the team's Super Bowl appearance in 2019.

Prior to joining San Francisco, Mayhew spent the 2016 season as the director of football operations/special projects with the New York Giants. In his role with the Giants, he worked on all aspects of the salary cap, CBA compliance and player contract negotiations.

Prior to his time in New York, Mayhew spent 15 years (2001-15) in the Detroit Lions organization, including the final seven as the team's general manager. He took over as the general manager following Detroit's winless season and oversaw the building of a roster that resulted in a 10-win season in 2011 and an 11-win season in 2014.

During Mayhew's tenure as Lions general manager, he was responsible for the draft selections of Pro Bowlers QB Matthew Stafford, DE Ezekiel Ansah and DT Ndamukong Suh. Suh was a four-time Pro Bowler and three-time First Team All-Pro selection with Detroit and was the 2010 NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. Mayhew was also responsible for signing WR Golden Tate and S Glover Quin in free agency, both of whom went on to earn Pro Bowl honors in Detroit.

Mayhew first joined the Lions organization in 2001 as the senior director of football administration/staff counsel and was promoted to senior vice president of football administration/staff counsel in 2003. Mayhew was appointed senior vice president and assistant general manager in 2004. In 2008, Mayhew was promoted to general manager.

Mayhew played nine seasons in the NFL and was originally selected by the Buffalo Bills in the 10th round (262nd overall) in the 1988 NFL Draft. During Mayhew's nine-year career, he appeared in 118 games (107 starts) for Buffalo (1988), Washington (1989-92) and Tampa Bay (1993-96) and notched 473 tackles, 21 interceptions, 1.0 sack and four forced fumbles. He started at cornerback for the Super Bowl XXVI champion Washington Redskins.

Mayhew is a native of Tallahassee, Fla. and graduated from Florida State University with a degree in business management and also holds a law degree from Georgetown University. At Florida State, he lettered in both football and track. Mayhew interned for Washington's personnel department in 1999 while in law school at Georgetown. He also held labor and legal department internships with the NFL League Office before joining the Detroit Lions.

MARTY HURNEY

EVP OF FOOTBALL/PLAYER PERSONNEL

30TH NFL SEASON // 3RD WITH WASHINGTON

Marty Hurney enters his first season as Executive Vice President of Football/Player Personnel of the Washington Football Team after being hired by the organization on January 22, 2021.

Hurney joins Washington with 29 seasons of NFL experience as an executive and will rejoin the franchise where he started his NFL career as a member of the team's public relations department.

"Marty Hurney is an excellent evaluator of talent and someone whom I trust and have worked with in the past," said Head Coach Ron Rivera. "He knows the amount of hard work it takes to operate a successful personnel department. Marty has a proven track record as a successful scout and general manager and will be a vital part of shaping our roster. Both myself and Mr. Snyder agreed that he would bring an enormous amount of experience to our operation. It is also fitting that Marty started his career here working for the legendary Bobby Beathard. I look forward to collaborating with both Marty and Martin in the years to come."

Hurney was named the Carolina Panthers General Manager in 2002 and held the position until 2012. He was then brought back as the club's interim general manager in 2017 and maintained the official role from 2018-2020. During Hurney's tenure as general manager, the Panthers appeared in the postseason four times, with two NFC South titles, two trips to the NFC Championship game and an appearance in Super Bowl XXXVIII.

Hurney has had a strong number of draft selections in the first round. Most notably, he selected both QB Cam Newton and LB Luke Kuechly in the first round of consecutive drafts in 2011 and 2012. Newton went on to win NFL Rookie of the Year in 2011, NFL MVP in 2015 along with setting nearly every passing and rushing record in franchise history. Kuechly won NFL Rookie of the Year in 2012 and NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 2013 and was a seven-time Pro Bowl selection. WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 16, CHARGERS 20

LANDOVER, Md. - The Washington Football Team loses its season opener in a close battle against against QB Justin Herbert and the Los Angeles Chargers.

The Chargers delivered the first punch as Justin Herbert goes 6-6 on the opening drive leading to a 3-yard rushing touchdown by Austin Ekeler.

Anotnio Gibson responds by exploding for a 27-yard gain in the following drive accompanied by several short passes by QB Ryan Fitzpatrick to set up a succesful 30-yard field goal.

Forcing a stop, Fitzgerald positions Washington for another scoring drive that was cut short by a forced fumble and sack from J. Bosa that was recovered. This drive would result in another 43-yard field goal by D. Hopkins.

After some offensive stagnation. J. Herbert connects with M. Williams for 18 yards to jump start the offense again followed by a 16 yard pass to K. Allen, and deep left ball to J. Guyton for 22 yards that would put them in the redzone. The defense showed resistance in the redzone with Jonathan Allen recording a sack that lead to the eventual field goal.

Washington begins the second quarter with hopes of scoring in 3 consecutive drives before Fitzgerald encounters a shot in the pocket from U. Nwosu which would take him out of the game with a hip injury. The drive would result in a punt that would lead to the Chargers scoring a field goal and T. Heinicke would start for the remainder of the game.

With 48 seconds remaining in the half, Heinicke uses great situational passing to lead to a field goal before the half concludes.

On the opening drive of the second half, Heinicke provides a spark for the offense which featured an acrobatic catch for 34 yards by Terry Mclaurin and an over the top catch by Logan Thomas in the corner of the endzone to score the teams first touchdown of the season.

Washingtons defense forced two turnovers in the redzone including an interception by William Jackson III and a forced fumble by Montez Sweat that led to a touchback. But with the Chargers offense showing dominance converting 74% of their 3rd downs, their offense was able score again from good field postion following a fumble from Antonio Gibson and managed to have possesion of the ball for the last 6 minutes to close the game.

LANDOVER, Md. - A determined Washington Football Team responds from a close loss the previous week by winning its first regular season and division game against the New York Giants on Thursday led by QB Taylor Heinicke.

The Giants get on the scoreboard first with their longest drive of the game sparked by a 41 yd. run by S. Barkeley and concluded with QB Daniel Jones showing his athelticism in a 6 yd. run to the endzone. With his first start in Washington, Taylor Heinicke responds by scoring on the next possesion with a 11 yd. touchdown pass to Terry McLaurin.

The Giants offense opens the second half with a solid drive leading to a field goal. Their following possesion, Jones finds S. Shepard on a 19 yard catch and D. Slayton on a 33 yd. deep ball to lead by 6.

Washington Kicker Dustin Hopkins and Giants Kicker Graham Gano were both reliable being perfect from the field and providing scoring drives for the next 4 possesions.

McKissic followed by a spectacular 19 yard throw to the back of the endzone to R. Seals-Jones as the only touchdown in the 4th quarter.

Washington defesne shows up in the next possesion by forcing a punt and giving Washington the ball back with 3 minutes remaining in the game. With a quick interception by Henicke, the defense provides the most important stop of the game forcing a field goal and giving the offense another chance to take the lead.

Using short throws and managing the clock well, the Washington offesne slowly progresses downfield with Heinicke connecting with 5 different recivers to position D.Hopkins for a succesful 43 yd. field goal to win the game.

BILLS 43, WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 21

ORCHARD PARK, NY. - A talented Buffalo Bills team shows their dominance in the National Football League by humbling the Washington Football Team with a 43 point performance led by QB Josh Allen and a deafening Buffalo crowd.

Buffalo's offense proved why they have one of the most high powered offenses in the league by scoring touchdowns on three of their first four drives taking control of the game early in the first half. Josh Allen after having a slow start to the season proves that he is back into his MVP caliber play by going 32-for-43 with 358 yards and four touchdowns and a rushing touchdown.

Washington's defense had a tough time handling Buffalo, but their offense wasnt making it any easier on them marking two costly interceptions by QB Taylor Heinicke and a fumble by TE Logan Thomas setting Buffalo up for easy scoring drives.

Despite many mishaps, Washington still remained in the game towards the end of the first half with a 73 yard touchdown to RB Antonio Gibson followed by a recovered kickoff leading to a four yard touchdown rush by Heinicke. But with an interception and good clock manegement ,Buffalo was able to score field goals on their next two posessions to close out the half.

Differing to the seond half, Washington went three-and-out on the opening drive of the seond half setting up what would be the defining drive of the game as Buffalo conducted a 17 play drive for 93 yards resulting in a 5 yard touchdown pass to E. Sanders to go up 19 points.

Another costly interception will give the Bills another field goal giving them control of the third quarter. The Buffalo defense made their presence evident by forcing three turnovers which all resulted in scoring drives.

Continuing to fight, Henicke is able to find the endzone after completing a 75 yard drive with a 2 yd. pass to Logan Thomas to finish the game.

FALCONS 30, WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 34

ATLANTA, Ga. - Washington shows their resiliency after being behind in the first half and completing two scoring drives in a row to win the game sparked by an explosive special teams play and a strong offensive performance led by QB Taylor Heinicke.

Atlanta displays their offensive weapons early as they score on their first two drives with QB Matt Ryan connecting with WR Calvin Ridley and TE Kyle Pitts leading to a field goal in the first drive of the game. After a quick possesion, Washington punts the ball back in which Matt Ryan delivers again connecting with C. Patterson for a deep 42 yard pass to go up 10 in the first half.

Without hesitation, Heinicke and the Washington offesne respond by scoring on two consecutive drives, with a 33 yard pass to WR Terry McLaurin followed by a two yard rushing touchdown by RB Antonio Gibson in the following drive to revive the team from the slow start. C. Patterson adds to his already impressive perfomance by closing out the half with a 12 yard touchdown to put the Falcons ahead 17-13.

On the opening kick off of the second half, DeAndre Carter provides the much needed spark by returning a 101-yard kick return touchdown to give Washington the lead and give Carter his first touchdown of his career.

With six lead changes throughout the game, The Falcons continue to use their weapons and capitalize on C. Patterson again for a 14-yard touchdown reception on the following possesion.

Having multiple injuries of key players, and being down by eight points in the fourth quarter, Washington demonstrates strong will power and resiliecy as Taylor Heinicke and the offense build a 13 play 83 yard drive that results in a electric touchdown catch by McLaurin with Heinicke evading a sack and making a much needed play to keep them in the game. This touchdown catch by McLaurin highlights his 123 yard performace on six catches with two touchdowns.

Washingtons defense provides a big stop to give the ball back and give the offense a chance to win the game. The offense takes advantage of their oppurtunity charging down the field leading to a short pass to J.D. Mckissic turning into the play of the game as he travels 30 yards and dives over the pylon for a game winning touchdown.

Oct. 10, 2021 | GAME 5 | FedExField [Landover, Md.]

WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 22, SAINTS 33

LANDOVER, Md. - Big plays were the name of the game as Washington falls to the New Orleans Sains lead by Head Coach Sean Payton and QB Jameis WInston. Among a slew of turnovers by both teams along with defensive errors, Washington couldnt manage to overcome their mistakes in a loss in FedExField.

FedExField was highlighted with the color pink from the endzone to the towels waved by the fans to display support for breast cancer awareness for the league wide Crucial Catch campaign.

The Washington defense shows up early in the game getting its first stop on the opening drive of the season with LB Cole Holcomb getting an interception on QB Jamies Winston leading to Washington scoring the first points of the game with a 45-yard field goal by K Dustin Hopkins.

Winston responds on the next drive delivering a 72-yard pass to WR D.Harris to quickly overcome his previous interception and give the Saints the lead. QB Taylor Heinicke and the Washington offense are able to drive down the field and get to the redzone but have to settle for a field goal due to a pressing Saints defense who made it difficult to get in the endzone throughout the game.

DE Chase Young lets his presence be known on the following drive recording a strip sack on Winston as DT Daron Payne recovers the fumble to give Washington the ball back. Heinicke takes advantage of the field position using his legs for a 13 yard rush and using short passes to TE Ricky Seals-Jones and J.D. McKissic to lead to a 5 yard rushing TD by Antonio Gibson giving them their first touchdown of the day.

The Saints respond by using Alvin Kamara to lead the way using his dual threat abiities logging a 12 yard reception and an eventual 23 yard rush for a touchdown to even the game. Washington will rely on the pass game to see the endzone using WR Terry McLaurin and Ricky Seals Jones on deep passes to get into the redzone. A costly interception by Heinicke attempting to throw it to WR Curtis Samuel in the endzone would halt Washington momentum and their ability to score for the rest of the half.

With the Defense holding the Saints on the last drive of the half, Winston is forced to throw a Hail Mary in the endzone with no time on the clock in which WR Marquez Callaway catches it in a sea of both teams players to give the Saints the lead at the half.

With stagnating offenses and stout defenses on both teams, Washington is only able to score the only point of the third quarter with a Hopkins field goal. In the fourth quarter, Winston finds Callaway again for a 12-yard touchdown gving the Saints a two possesion lead. Desperate to see the endozne, Antonio Gibson is able to rush for another touchdwon after a long drive to keep the game alive.

Approaching the 4-minute mark, Winston pieces together another scoring drive in the fourth with a pass to Kamara sealing the fate of the game.

IMPORTANT DATES

The Start - July 9, 1932
George P. Marshall headed a group (Vincent Bendix, Jay O'Brien, Dorland Doyle) that bought a National Football League franchise in Boston. They contracted to play in Braves Field, home of the National League Baseball team, and were called "The Braves."

The Name
The Boston Gridders moved to Fenway Park, home of the American League Red Sox, and "The Braves" became "The Redskins."

The Franchise - Feb. 13, 1937
The Washington Redskins were officially born as the National Football League approved the transfer of the Boston Redskins franchise to Washington, D.C., and a new history began.

The Band - Aug. 9, 1937
The famed Redskins Band was founded and it was the first of its kind.

First Victory - Sept. 16, 1937
The First Game! The Franchise's Thursday night opener drew 19,941 fans to flood-lighted Griffith Stadium. Riley Smith scored on a 60-yard interception return, while the team added two field goals and an extra point to make the final score - Washington 13, Giants 3.

First Title - Dec. 5, 1937
Ten thousand fans stomped up Broadway behind the brass band following the franchise's first title. In the game, Sammy Baugh completed 11-of-15 passes, while Cliff Battles had touchdown runs of 75 and 76 yards as the team routed the Giants, 49-14, for the Eastern Championship.

World Champs! - Dec. 12, 1937
Freezing weather, frozen field and the icy-nerved Bears couldn't stop Sammy Baugh (center below). He completed 17-of-33 passes for 335 yards and three touchdowns. Wayne Millner (right), the all-time Notre Dame great, finished with nine catches for 160 yards, including 77- and 55-yard touchdowns.

Westward Ho! - Aug. 2, 1939
Washington set forth on their first coast-to-coast football training trip. Training site: Eastern State Normal School in Cheney, Wash.

Zero Hour - Oct. 1, 1939
Washington and the NY Giants battled in the mud and rain as the outcome wound up being a scoreless tie, the only scoreless tie in Washington history.

Record Pass - Oct. 15, 1939
From the kick formation and standing deep in the end zone, Frank Filchock flipped a pass to Andy Farkas who went all the way for the touchdown. It was the longest pass play in National Football League history, 99 yards.

East Champs - Dec. 1, 1940
Miniature-sized Davey O'Brien of the Eagles completed 33 passes in 60 attempts, but Washington won 13-6 to clinch the Eastern Championship.

73-to-Ohhh! - Dec. 8, 1940
Despite Washington gaining the same number of first downs as the Bears in the World Championship Game at Griffith Stadium, the team lost 73-0.

California - Aug. 18, 1941
Washington brought pro football on a large scale to California for the first time. They established training quarters in San Diego at Brown Military Academy.

Title Escapes - Nov. 23, 1941
There were 50 seconds to go in the Eastern Championship Game and Washington held a 13-10 lead, but the Giants managed to score a field goal and a touchdown to win, 20-13.

Only Loss - Sept. 27, 1942
The Giants are unable to convert a first down, gained only ONE yard rushing and completed just ONE pass — but it was good for a touchdown. They then captured another touchdown on an interception and Washington suffered their only 1942 defeat, 14-7.

World Champs! - Dec. 13, 1942
The Bears took an early lead on an errant pass from center, but Sammy Baugh's 85-yard quick kick set them back on their heels. Wilbur Moore then made a vital interception and followed with a sensational catch for a 38-yard touchdown. Andy Farkas capped the victory by carrying the ball 10 of 12 times on an 80-yard touchdown drive. Score: 14-6.

Runner Up - Dec. 26, 1943
Sam Baugh suffered a concussion early, tackling Sid Luckman on a punt return and the Bears went on to win the NFL title, 41-21.

To a T - July 30, 1945
Washington abandoned their double-wing formation and adopted the T-formation.

East Champs - Dec. 9, 1945
Washington had two straight shutouts, the first coming against the Steelers, 24-0, on Dec. 2 and the team defeated the Giants, 17-0, en route to an Eastern title.

One Point Shy - Dec. 16, 1945
In subzero weather, Washington lost the world title to the Rams, 15-14, on freakish plays. Baugh's pass from the end zone hit the goal-post for a safety (no longer allowed); and Bob Waterfield's try-for-point hit the crossbar and bounced over.

Charity Game - Sept. 6, 1946
The inaugural Washington-Rams game benefiting the Los Angeles Times Charities, Inc. drew 68,188 to Memorial Coliseum and netted the Times Boys Club $96,711.23.

High Note - June 13, 1947
The Redskins Band performed at the Philadelphia Inquirer's Famed Festival of Music alongside Whiteman, Waring and the Philharmonic.
