QUICK HITS

- Washington holds eight selections in the 2021 NFL Draft which opens on Thursday, April 29. The first round begins at 8:00 p.m. ET and will be televised by NFL Network, ABC and ESPN. The draft will continue at 7 p.m. ET on Friday with the second and third rounds, and will conclude with rounds 4-7 on Saturday, starting at noon ET.
- Washington will host media virtually during all three days. Head Coach Ron Rivera and General Manager Martin Mayhew will speak to members of the media at the end of proceedings on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.
- Washington made eight selections in the 2020 NFL Draft. All of the selections appeared in game action last season including first-round selection Chase Young, who started in all 15 games he appeared in and won AP Defensive Rookie of the Year.
- Washington produced two Pro Bowlers in 2020, including guard Brandon Scherff and rookie defensive end Chase Young. Scherff was a first-round pick of Washington in 2015 (No. 5 overall) and Young was a first-round selection in 2020 (No. 2 overall).
- In the last eight seasons, Washington has had nine players earn a total of 20 Pro Bowl selections, eight of which were by homegrown talents. Eight of the nine Washington Pro Bowler's since 2013 (Williams, 7; Kerrigan, 4; Scherff, 4; Alfred Morris, 2; Kirk Cousins, 1; Brian Orakpo, 1; Jordan Reed, 1; Chase Young, 1) entered the NFL as Washington draft picks.
- Barring a trade, Washington's first selection in the 2021 NFL Draft is the No. 19 overall selection. Through the draft and free agency, Washington has compiled six first-round selections through the draft and free agency. Five of them were selected by Washington and one was added via free agency. The table below outlines the six first round selections currently on the Washington roster.

FIRST ROUND PICKS IN THE NFL DRAFT CURRENTLY ON THE WASHINGTON ROSTER:

2021 SELECTIONS

- Washington enters the 2021 NFL Draft with a total of eight scheduled selections. Washington finished the season at 7-9 and won the NFC East Division.
- Washington holds five of their original selections including picks in the first, second, third, fourth, fifth and seventh rounds. They also hold two picks in the third and seventh rounds, respectively.
- Washington traded T Trent Williams to the San Francisco 49ers during the 2020 NFL draft in exchange for a 2020 fifth-round pick in which the team selected C Keith Ismael and a 2021 third round selection.
- Washington traded their original sixth round selection to the Las Vegas Raiders for T David Sharpe and an additional seventh round pick. They then traded that selection for G Ereck Flowers and received the No. 258th pick from the Dolphins.
- Thursday's first round will allow 10 minutes before each pick. The second round, which resumes the draft on Friday evening, allows seven minutes between picks. The third round allows five minutes between selections. The final four rounds will take place on Saturday. Rounds four through six allow five minutes between picks, and all seventh round and compensatory picks allow four minutes each. The 2020 draft will mark the fourth year in which teams will be able to trade compensatory selections.

DRAFT WEEK '21 LIVE

Washington Football Team fans are invited to attend the Washington Draft Week '21 Live fan experience presented by Bud Light on Thursday, April 29 at FedExField.

The Draft Week '21 Live fan experience will be the first in-person fan event of the year. This year's theme centers around the 1980s to commemorate a golden era in Washington Football Team history – an era that inspires and fuels our future success. Admission to the event is free for all fans, who are encouraged to wear their favorite 1980s-inspired fashion trends. Capacity will be limited to 3,000 fans to ensure adequate space to comply with social distancing guidelines. Tickets will be allocated on a first-come, first-served basis beginning on April 24, with a special early-access period for Season Ticket Members beginning on April 22. For more details on Draft Week '21 Live and to register for the event, visit Washingtonfootball.com/draft.

Fans will have access to activations and entertainment throughout the night, including an on-field self-guided selfie tour – with a stop that pays homage to the “Hogs” offensive line, a Washington Football Team locker room tour, interview room tour and a field goal kick in the endzone. The night's entertainment will include performances by an '80s tribute band as well as DJ Jealousy spinning '80s hits throughout the evening. The event will also feature a live broadcast show with analysis and commentary from Julie Donaldson, Bram Weinstein and Fred Smoot, conversations with current players, alumni and special guests throughout the night, and a live HD-board feed from the NFL Draft broadcast in Cleveland. There will be a best-dressed '80s fashion contest, a limited-edition Fanatics Draft hat and '80s capsule t-shirt on sale in-stadium at the Team Shop and online, plus giveaways, prizes and more. Fans age 21 and over will also have the opportunity to enter to win a Bud Light retro beer fridge.

For fans celebrating from home, the team will livestream all the Draft Week '21 Live online coverage via the Washington Football Team YouTube, Twitter and Facebook pages. The full virtual schedule will be released Draft Week, and fans are encouraged to tune in for exclusive content and live access to event highlights in Cleveland and at FedExField.

MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA INFORMATION:

Due to the Covid-19 Pandemic, the media room at Inova Sports Performance Center will be closed.

MEDIA AVAILABILITY:

Head Coach Ron Rivera and General Manager Martin Mayhew are tentatively scheduled to speak with the media each day of the draft. The press conferences will be held virtually on Zoom.

As soon as possible, Washington Public Relations will digitally provide notes and other materials on each selection. Washington Public Relations staffers will coordinate a conference call with each of Washington's draft picks shortly after their selections. These calls will take place on our conference call line. Media will need to RSVP in order to get the call-in information. Digital transcripts will be provided.

Washington will formally introduce their picks from the first two days of the draft during Zoom press conferences on Monday, May 3, 2021. Exact timing has not yet been determined.

INTERESTING TO NOTE

- Dating back to 2011, Washington has selected at least eight players in 10 consecutive drafts for the first time since the league adopted the seven-round format in 1994.
- Washington currently has two third-round selections. It is the first time the organization is scheduled to have two third round selections since 2014.
- The 2020 NFL Draft was the second-consecutive draft that Washington picked four offensive players in a row (2020: RB Antonio Gibson, T Saahdiq Charles, WR Antonio Gandy-Golden and C Keith Ismael; 2019: WR Terry McLaurin, RB Bryce Love, G Wes Martin and C Ross Pierschbacher). Prior to that, the last time Washington selected four consecutive offensive players in the same draft was 2008 (WR Devin Thomas, TE Fred Davis, WR Malcolm Kelly and T Chad Rinehart).
- In 2020, Washington drafted players from Ohio State with their first pick in consecutive seasons marking the third time in franchise history that the team has drafted players out of the same school with their first pick in back-to-back draft. The other two instances were DT Daron Payne (2018 Alabama) and DT Jonathan Allen (2017 Alabama), FB Leon Heath (1951 Oklahoma) and HB George Thomas (1950 Oklahoma).
- Washington selected four defensive players in the 2020 NFL Draft. They have picked at least four defensive players in six consecutive drafts for the first time since 1989-93, when the draft consisted of 12 rounds.
- Five of the 10 members of the Washington's 2020 draft class played at schools in "Power Five" conferences.

2020 WASHINGTON DRAFT PICKS

Draft Notes

- Young was the 485th selection made by Washington in the Common Draft era (since 1967) and the 32nd first-round selection in that time frame. He was the 63rd first-round selection by Washington all-time since the institution of the draft in 1936.

- Young's selection marked the fourth-straight year in which Washington selected a defensive player with a first-round pick in the draft joining Montez Sweat (No. 26 overall in 2019), Daron Payne (No. 13 overall in 2018) and Jonathan Allen (No. 17 overall in 2017). It was the first time in team history Washington has selected defensive players with a first-round pick selection in four consecutive drafts.

- Young was the 11th defensive player selected by Washington in the first round since 1999, joining CB Champ Bailey (1999), LB LaVar Arrington (2000), S Sean Taylor (2004), CB Carlos Rogers (2005), S LaRon Landry (2007), DE/LB Brian Orakpo (2009), LB Ryan Kerrigan (2011), DT Jonathan Allen (2017), DT Daron Payne (2018) and DE Montez Sweat (2019). Seven of the 10 defensive players selected by Washington in the first round in that time frame have earned at least one Pro Bowl selection during their career.

- Young was the 19th player Washington selected out of Ohio State. Ohio State has now produced the sixth-most draft selections in franchise history, trailing only Notre Dame (34), USC (30), Alabama (26), Penn State (22) and Nebraska (20).

- In 2019, Young ranked No. 1 in the nation in tackles for loss per game (1.91), No. 1 in sacks (16.5) and sacks per game (1.50), No. 2 in forced fumbles (six) and No. 4 in total tackles for loss (21.0).

- Young joined Mike Vrabel as the only player in Ohio State history to post consecutive seasons with 10-plus sacks.

- Young was named the Big Ten's Nagurski-Woodson Defensive Player of the Year, Smith-Brown Defensive Lineman of the Year and first-team All-Big Ten last season.

- Young holds the Ohio State single-season sack record with 16.5 in 2019.

2020 By The Numbers

3

Young registered three games with a sack and a fumble recovery this season, the most games doing so in a season for a Washington player in franchise history.

4

Young recorded four forced fumbles in his rookie season, the most by a Washington rookie since Ryan Kerrigan also tallied four in 2011.

7.5

Young's 7.5 sacks were the most by a rookie in 2020 and tied for the third-most by a rookie in franchise history.

4

Young became the fourth player and first rookie in NFL history to record at least two games with at least one fumble recovery, forced fumble, a sack and a pass defended since the stats were first recorded in 1999, joining Khalil Mack (6), Jason Taylor (4) and Julius Peppers (2).

1

Young became the first rookie in NFL history and third player in history overall to record a fumble return touchdown, forced fumble, fumble recovery, sack and two-plus passes defended in a single game Week 14 against the 49ers.
