

PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release
March 11, 2026

COMMANDERS RE-SIGN QB MARCUS MARIOTA

LOUDOUN COUNTY, Va. – The Washington Commanders announced today that they have re-signed quarterback Marcus Mariota. Full terms of the deal were not disclosed.

Mariota (6-4, 222) is entering his 12th year in the NFL after being drafted by the Tennessee Titans as a first-round draft pick (2nd overall) in 2015. In his career, Mariota has appeared in 104 games with 82 starts and recorded 1,500 completions on 2,389 attempts for 17,879 passing yards with 107 touchdowns and 62 interceptions. Mariota joined Washington after stints with the Las Vegas Raiders (2020-21), Atlanta Falcons (2022) and Philadelphia Eagles (2023).

Last season, Mariota played in 11 games, starting in eight, while serving as the backup quarterback for Jayden Daniels. Mariota recorded 139 completions on 227 attempts for 1,695 passing yards with 10 touchdowns and seven interceptions.

During the 2024 season Mariota appeared in three games and had 34 completions on 44 attempts for 364 passing yards and four touchdowns.

In 2023, Mariota appeared in three games and served as the backup quarterback for Jalen Hurts in Philadelphia. The previous year, Mariota played and started 13 games for the Falcons where completed 184-of-300 passing attempts for 2,219 passing yards, 15 touchdowns, and nine interceptions. He additionally totaled 438 rushing yards and four rushing touchdowns.

With Las Vegas in 2020-21 seasons, he appeared in 11 games over the two seasons where he went 18-for-30 attempts with 230 passing yards, one touchdown and one interception along with 22 carries for 178 rushing yards and two touchdowns.

Mariota spent the first five seasons of his career with the Titans from 2015-19. He finished his time in Tennessee as the franchises all-time leader in passer rating (89.6), completion percentage (62.9) and yards per attempt (7.5). He appeared in 63 games with 61 starts where he completed 1,110-of-1,765 passing attempts for 13,207 passing yards, 76 touchdowns and 44 interceptions. He also had 242 rushes for 1,077 yards and 11 touchdowns.

Mariota played collegiately at Oregon for four seasons (2011-14) where he completed 66.8 percent of his passes for 10,796 yards and 105 touchdowns. He also rushed for 2,237 rushing yards and 29 touchdowns. He was voted the 2014 Heisman Trophy winner and led Oregon to an appearance in the first ever College Football Playoff National Championship Game.

Mariota, a Honolulu Hi. native attended Saint Louis High School where he helped lead St. Louis to an 11-1 record and a state title in 2010 while being named PrepStar Magazine All-West Region and the 2010 Hawaii Gatorade Player of the Year. Mariota Founded the Motiv8 Foundation with his parents with the mission to provide educational and athletic outlets for children. He and his wife, Kiyomi, have two children Makaia and Maika.

– Washington Commanders est. 1932 –