COMMANDERS RE-SIGN WR TREYLON BURKS

LOUDOUN COUNTY, Va. – The Washington Commanders announced today that they have re-signed wide receiver Trelon Burks. Full terms of the deal were not disclosed.

Burks (6-2, 225) is entering his fifth year in the league after being drafted by the Tennessee Titans in the first round (18th overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft. Burks has played in 35 career games with 20 starts and totaled 63 receptions for 829 yards and two touchdowns.

Prior to joining Washington last season, Burks spent his entire career with the Tennessee Titans.

Last season, Burks played in eight games, starting in three, with 10 receptions for 130 yards and one touchdown.

In 2024, Burks appeared in five games, starting in two, garnering four receptions for 34 yards.

In 2023, Burks played in eleven games, starting in nine, with 16 receptions for 221 yards.

In 2022, Burks saw action in eleven games, starting in six, with 33 receptions for 444 yards and one touchdown.

Burks, a native of Warren, Arkansas, played collegiately at the University of Arkansas (2019-2022) and appeared in 32 games, starting in 30, with 146 receptions for 2,399 yards and 19 touchdowns. Burks was named All-SEC First Team (WR) during the 2021 season.
